CLOSE OF PLAY.
The cricket season of 1930 is now over, but the selling of Furniture still goes on, and will continue while people and houses exist. A certain kind of Furniture is "put over" on the public under a spurious description, which isn't "cricket", hence the need to draw attention to it.
The remedy is to get curious. When purchasing Furniture ask where it is made—if it is imported it can't be good value. Should it be Irish, ask the Maker's name, because all Furniture made in the Saorstát isn't perfect, mainly because a portion of it is manufactured in "back lanes" by persons who are a nuisance to the Industry and a menace to the workers.
"OD" products continue their record "innings"; there's no "catch" in them.

EARLY CHRYSANTHEMUMS.

Writing on this subject in the Weekly Irish Times, the Garden Correspondent says:—

The wonderful advance that has been made in the more precocious of Japan's Golden Flower, the Chrysanthemum, was very evident at Southport's marvellous show on the 27th, 28th and 29th ult., when masses of the Summer flowering kinds quite captivated all eyes. The Woolman exhibit, which held premier position, found a host of interested admirers taking notes of the most prominent sorts already in perfection of bloom, and for the benefit of those who were not there we give the names of the most conspicuous varieties—viz., Bronze, Early Buttercup, Silver Queen, Voltaire, Mrs. J. Pearson, Debutante, Autumn Gold, Harvester, and H. Cartwright. The clearness and brilliance of the blooms was an outstanding feature, the secret of which was, doubtless, the taste of sulphate of ammonia in the liquid feeding.

POULTRY, CAGE BIRDS, DAIRY.

GENERAL MANAGEMENT OF CONFINED FOWLS.

Writing on this subject in the Weekly Irish Times, the Poultry Correspondent says:—

Whether the birds are kept intensively or allowed out for part of each day the houses and runs should be kept scrupulously clean. Warmth, freedom from wet and good food are necessary during the winter for egg-production. Every effort should be made to keep them exercising, as moping about not only prevents laying, but induces feather plucking and egg-eating. A constant supply of fresh, clean water, grit and shell should be provided in vessels set on raised platforms, or attached to the wall, so that no dust can reach them from the litter, and the water should not be where the sun shines.

LEGAL NOTICES.

NOTICE OF CHARITABLE BEQUESTS.
In the Goods of
MARY ADELAIDE MACNAMARA, late of Ailesbury House, Merrion, in the County of Dublin, Widow.

Notice is hereby given in pursuance of the provisions of the Act of Parliament 30 and 31 Vict., C. 54, intituled "An Act to amend the law of charitable donations and bequests in Ireland," that the said Mary Adelaide Macnamara by her Will bearing date the 13th day of January, 1930, bequeathed unto Raymond Stephenson and Gerald William Spratt a sum of £25,000 upon trust to establish a Home which is to be called "The Mary Adelaide Macnamara Home" for Roman Catholic ladies of good character and temperate habits resident in Dublin who have seen better days, and who shall be in reduced circumstances; and the Testatrix directed that her said Trustees should either purchase or take on lease a house and premises which they shall consider suitable for the purpose of the said Home, or, in their discretion, to purchase or take on lease a piece or plot of land within the Roman Catholic Diocese of Dublin and build thereon a suitable building for the said Home, and to apply a competent part of the said legacy in making suitable any house or building to be acquired as aforesaid or in purchasing a site for the purpose of such Home, and erecting thereon a suitable building, and to invest the remainder of the said sum of £25,000, and out of the income arising from such investments to keep the said Home in proper repair and discharge all outgoings and apply the surplus income in making a weekly allowance to each of the inmates of the said Home. The Testatrix also bequeathed a sum of £100 to the Sandymount Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, a sum of £100 to the Donnybrook Conference of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, a sum of £500 to the Little Sisters of the Assumption, Camden street, Dublin; a sum of £1,000 to the Reverend John Flood or other the Administrator of the Pro-Cathedral, Marlborough street, at the time of Testatrix's death, in aid of the Building Fund for the erection of the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes, Lower Gloucester street, Dublin; a sum of £100 to the Reverend Charles Ridgeway or other the Parish Priest of Sandymount at the time of Testatrix's death for Masses for the Repose of her Soul; a sum of £1,000 to the said Reverend Charles Ridgeway or other the Parish Priest of Sandymount at the time of Testatrix's death for the decoration of the Parish Church of Sandymount. Probate of said Will was, on the 14th day of August, 1930, granted forth of the Principal Registry of the High Court of Justice to Raymond Stephenson, of Cranford, Stillorgan road, in the County of Dublin, Solicitor, and Gerald William Spratt, of Melfort, Stillorgan road, in the County of Dublin, Esquire.

Dated this 19th day of September, 1930.

BRIDGE "SCENE."

STORY OF STRUGGLE WITH GIRL ON PARAPET.

(BEFORE MR. JUSTICE HANNON.)

When a young girl named Norah Lawlor, with an address in Mountjoy place, Dublin, was brought up charged with disorderly conduct on O'Connell Bridge between 11 and 12 o'clock on Thursday night, Guard Mynes told the Court that when he noticed suspicious movements on the part of the girl and approached her she immediately got on to the parapet of the bridge and attempted to throw herself into the Liffey. She struggled when he caught hold of her, but, with assistance, he was able to get her on to the footpath. She then struggled violently and shouted several times "Let me drown." It was with difficulty that he saved the girl from entering the water. A crowd gathered and traffic was held up as a result of the girl's conduct.

The defendant was remanded in custody pending a medical report.

MIDNIGHT CYCLIST.

YOUTH CHARGED WITH LOITERING.

John Cameron, a youth, living in Merrion View avenue, was charged with loitering at Sydney parade avenue between 12 and 1 o'clock yesterday morning.

Guard 47 E, who brought the charge, said that he saw defendant looking up at a house in Sydney parade. When he asked him what he was doing, Cameron said that he was "looking for a plumber." (Laughter.) The defendant had a bicycle with him.

Mr. P. Campbell, solicitor (defending)—Loitering with a bicycle is a novelty. (Laughter.)

The Guard—He was lying over the bicycle looking up at the house.

Mr. Campbell said that the boy, who was of respectable parents, was visiting a friend and was coming home late at the time. He got confused when the Guard came on the scene and gave conflicting answers to questions.

The father of the boy said that the lad was serving his time to him as a carpenter, and was a good and hard-working boy. Usually he was at home at 10 o'clock at night, but on Thursday night he was on a visit to a friend in Monkstown.

The defendant, giving evidence, said that he went to Monkstown, where he stayed until about midnight, and was going home when the Guard intercepted him. Some new houses were in the course of construction in Sydney Parade avenue, and he got off his bicycle to look at them.

Mr. Hannan—Midnight seems a strange time to go inspecting new or other houses. (Laughter.)

The defendant, concluding his statement, said that the story of the plumber came into his head "like a flash," because the Guard "popped up and gave him a shock." (Renewed laughter.)

Mr. Hannan remanded the defendant for a week in his father's bail of £5.

LABOURERS FROM LIMERICK.

Two labourers from Limerick—Francis McMahon (28), Piggot's lane, and Patrick Hugh Staunton (30), White's lane—who were charged with loitering in Bride street, Dublin, between 1 and 2 a.m. on Thursday, were stated to have said that they had no place to go and had no bad intentions. They had intended to get to England, where they had heard there was plenty of work.

As there was no previous convictions against them, the defendants were discharged with a caution.

RAID ON PAWN OFFICE.

Thomas Martin, McLean's lane, and Patrick Donovan, Mill lane, newsvendors, were remanded in custody, charged with breaking into the pawn office of Mr. Delaney, the Coombe, and stealing property valued at £7 10s.

Detective Sergeant Lynch, who prosecuted, said that when Martin was questioned about shoes which he had in his possession he said that he got them from a man. Asked for a description of the man, he said that he was "a red-headed fellow" who sold papers at the corner of South Great George's street, and lived somewhere about Golden lane."

ACCOUNTANT STUDENTS.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

At the annual general meeting of the Dublin Incorporated Accountants' Students' Society, held at Jury's Hotel on Thursday evening, Mr. A. J. Walkey, F.S.A.A., Vice-President, who occupied the chair in the absence of the President, Mr. R. J. Kidney, F.S.A.A., congratulated the members of the Society who were successful at the Incorporated Accountants' Examinations, and formally presented to Mr. E. M. Forde the second certificate of merit, which was awarded to him at the recent final examination.

Mr. Forde, in reply, paid a tribute to the work of the Students' Society, whose lectures and discussions he regarded as indispensable to every accountant student.

The result of the election of officers for the ensuing session was as follows:—President—Mr. R. J. Kidney, F.S.A.A. (re-elected). Vice-Presidents—Mr. J. G. Dowling, A.S.A.A.; Mr. E. M. Forde, A.S.A.A. Hon. Treasurer—Mr. R. A. Kidney. Hon. Secretary—Mr. J. P. Coyle. Committee—Messrs. R. P. Smyth, J. A. Caulfield, M. Bell. Hon. Auditor—Mr. C. J. Dalton, A.S.A.A.

ROYAL HOSPITAL FOR INCURABLES.

A meeting of the Board of Governors of the Royal Hospital for Incurables was held at the hospital on Tuesday morning, 16th inst., at 9.30 o'clock—Sir Walter H. Boyd, Bart., K.C. (Vice-Chairman), presiding. Read and signed proceedings of the last meeting of the Committee. Apologies were received from the Chairman and the Hon. Treasurer.

Before proceeding with the business of the day the Chairman made sympathetic reference to the great loss the hospital had sustained through the death of one of its dearest friends, Miss O'Brien; and, on his proposal, seconded by Monsignor J. J. Dunne, the following resolution was passed in silence, all present standing:—

"The Board of Governors of the Royal Hospital for Incurables desire to place on record their deep regret on the demise of Miss Emily O'Brien, who was for 51 years a Life Governor of the charity, and was a daily visitor to the hospital. The Board convey their deep sympathy to Mr. Monahan and relatives in their bereavement."

Miss d'Alton, Miss A. Harding, William J. Riley, Esq., and Sir Joseph A. Glynn, LL.D., having kindly consented to act, were appointed Visiting Governors for the month.

Payment of £50 reported from Bertram O'Reilly, Esq., and the Board unanimously elected as Life Governors Mrs. B. T. O'Reilly and Mrs. Charles J. O'Reilly.

The Chairman made special allusion to the hospital's bank debt (£5,685 12s. 7d.), and he appealed for financial help to aid in reducing this liability, particularly for contributions of £21, to qualify the kind donors as Life Governors, who as such have complete control of the management of the institution. The hospital, which is capable of accommodating 249 patients, has claims on all classes of the community, as it admits poor, necessitous and incurable patients, without religious distinction, from all parts of Ireland, and supplies them with food, lodging, clothing, medical and surgical assistance, medicines and all manner of necessaries, without fee or reward from the sufferer. Last year it cost the hospital £214 1s. 6d. for interest in overdraft, which would almost have been sufficient to support four patients for one year.

The election of patients was then proceeded with. Fifteen names appeared on the printed list. Nos. 4 and 10 having tied for 6th place, an emergency meeting of the Visiting Committee was called, and it was unanimously resolved: That both patients be elected, No. 10 to receive pension. The following having obtained the highest number of votes were declared duly elected patients:—Ellen Kenny, cancer of the spine; Johanna Crimmins, consumption; Mary Teresa Murphy, paralysis; Mary Walsh, paralysis of the legs; Agnes Turner, heart disease and amputated leg; Sarah McGovern, paralysis of the legs; Mary Byrne, parlaysis of the legs.

The Board were reluctantly obliged to reject distressing cases of arthritis, paralysis and heart disease, urgently in need of admission.

The Board adjourned to Tuesday, 18th November, 1930, when an election for male patients will take place.

The Board tender their grateful thanks for the following kind contributions received since last meeting:—£1 1s. 0d.: W. H. Fry, Esq., and Mrs. Fry; R. H. Bell, Esq.

Further contributions are earnestly solicited to reduce the hospital's bank debt, and will be gratefully received by: William Perrin, Esq. (Chairman), 27 Palmerston Gardens, Dublin; Sir Walter H. Boyd, Bart., K.C. (Vice-Chairman), Balnagowan, Palmerston Park, Dublin; Alfred G. Hollinshead, Esq., J.P. (Hon. Treasurer), The Haven, Palmerston Gardens, Dublin, or by the Registrar at the hospital.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

THE PEDESTRIAN'S RIGHTS.

LETTER FROM SIR THOMAS MYLES.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

Sir,—It seems to me that the time has come when some definite rules should be laid down by whoever is responsible for our street traffic which would define, so far as definition is possible, the respective rights of the pedestrian and the motorist. The toll of the road is increasing daily and our hospitals are every day being called upon to deal with some of the consequences of the present lack of well-defined rules and regulations. At every coroner's inquest on the victims of a motor accident one question is invariably put to the defendant motor-driver: "Did you sound your horn?" If he can prove that he did, it is assumed inferentially that the responsibility for the tragedy is not his, but his victim's. As a result of this, I presume, the motorist, when he sees a pedestrian using the roadway on his lawful occasions, thinks that, if he sounds his horn blatantly enough, he is under no obligation to reduce his speed, or adopt any other precaution to ensure the safety of the objectionable pedestrian. In fact, it may to-day be taken as axiomatic that, once the motorist has sounded his horn, the road is his and the pedestrian who dares to use it does so at his own peril. Similarly, where streets intersect, the motorist, having emitted a howl or shriek, which may be construed either as a menace or a warning, considers himself at liberty to dash across the intersection without the slightest regard for the safety of other road-users who may be in the vicinity.

During the last few weeks, as my own car has been in dry dock, I have been compelled to adopt the rôle of the pedestrian. The perils of the streets, both by night and day, have been brought so very forcibly before me that I am compelled to put to you, sir, and, through you, to the proper authorities a few questions:—

What, if any, rights has the pedestrian vis-à-vis the motorist?

If I wish to cross the street at a recognised crossing place, am I legally debarred from doing so if a motorist utters a menacing blast on his horn?

If a continuous stream of cars, 'buses and trams is pouring along the north side of Merrion square, en route to the suburbs, am I, as a pedestrian, to consider myself as no longer entitled to a reasonable use of the road?

If a group of timid little children wish to cross the road on their way to or from school, must they stand patiently waiting—possibly in heavy rain—till the tide of traffic has passed by? In other words, have little children no rights vis-à-vis the motors and 'buses?

I hope that anyone who does me the honour of reading this letter will not get the idea that I am an anti-motorist fanatic. I have been an owner of motor cars for nearly thirty years, but I am also a visiting surgeon to one of our largest city hospitals, and when one sees a lovely little girl of eight brought into the hospital with one foot torn bodily off and the other hanging by mere strips of skin and flesh, a young woman of twenty-two carried in with a fractured pelvis and several fractures of the spine, an elderly man with a fracture of the thigh that, if he lives, with leave him lamed for life, one is compelled to put the question to one's self: Are these tragedies absolutely inevitable; are they the price which we must pay for progress? It would be sheer cowardice to accept such dicta. They are not inevitable, and they are not the necessary price of progress. Ninety-five per cent. of those who drive motor cars are thoughtful, kindly, courteous people, who have no desire to kill or injure anyone, and merely use the machines as instruments of their business; but there does exist a small minority, who, let us hope, largely through sheer ignorance or inexperience, expose themselves and those around them to imminent peril. There is a still smaller class, the most dangerous of all, who have so much confidence in their own skill as drivers that they take, and impose upon others, the most appalling risks in driving their cars. Last comes the most objectionable type of all, the bully of the road, who, believing himself to be quite safe, takes delight in frightening timid people by first bellowing at them with a raucous electric horn, and then, with an imbecile grin on his idiotic face, dashes past his victim at fifty miles an hour.

In the early days of the railways, when accidents became frequent, it was suggested that protection would be afforded to the passengers if a director were compelled to ride on the front buffers of the locomotive. I do not know that this method was ever actually adopted, but the moral of it should not be forgotten. In the not-distant future the quiet, law-abiding citizens of Dublin may learn with horror that the father and relatives of some butchered child have taken the law into their own hands and have converted the offending 'bus, lorry or motor car into a juggernaut over the prostrate body of the driver.—Yours, etc.,

UNEMPLOYMENT AND INSURANCE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

Sir,—There are many ways of making a living, but the best that I know is that of unemployment, as proved by my experience. I have a small garden, in which I employ a man for two days a week, when I can get one, but it is difficult, because most men are looking for a job; few if any are looking for work; there is a big difference between the two. Recently a young man offered his services and said that he wanted 5s. a day. I engaged him and told him that, if he worked, I would give him two days a week. He gave fair satisfaction and I recommended him to a friend, who agreed to employ him two more days weekly. I told the workman the joyful news. He asked me if my friend would take his relation, who was married and had a wife to support. I thought him very considerate. Later he told me that he had seen my friend and thought it better that his relation should come to me and he would go to my friend, as he himself knew more about flowers.

The relation came and did not satisfy me; and the first man came to know what was wrong. I told him that his friend would not suit me, and asked himself to return. "But," he said, "I cannot work more than two days a week or I shall get six months in jail." I asked why, and he told me that he was drawing the "dole" (unemployment money), and that he had already worked two days that week, and he would be prosecuted by the Government if he worked more than two days in any week. He accused me of "upsetting all his arrangements"; that by his relation's working two days with me he qualified for the "dole," and he himself, working two days for my friend, qualified also. In any case, he said, 5s. a day was too small for odd days. I refused to pay more than 5s. and we parted.

The pay for this class of workman is 30s. for working the full week; those two men can make more money by working for two days and drawing the dole. I made inquiries and discovered the following interesting facts:—

Plus unemployment money, single man		0 15 0
		£1 9 0
If employed two days at 7s.	14 0
Plus unemployment money; married man; no family.....	1 0 0	1 14 0
		£3 3 0
If employed full week at 30s. each		3 0 0
Net gain of being "unemployed" ...		£0 3 0

(Three shillings weekly.)

Yours, etc.,
"Eureka."
September 19th, 1930.

[With reference to the subject matter of "Eureka's" letter, our Political Correspondent, in conversation with an official of the Free State Department of Industry and Commerce, was told that there was no "dole" at all in the Free State since 1923. There is, however, a system of unemployment insurance, under which benefit is paid to insured contributors in the proportion of one week's benefit to every six unexhausted contributions standing to their credit in the unemployment fund. Whatever be the number of contributions to credit, no person can receive benefit for more than 156 days in any year. Thus, he said, there are two limitations to the amount of unemployment benefit that any contributor may receive. In no case can any payment be made unless the statutory conditions for the receipt of benefit are satisfied. Before any person can receive benefit he must prove, inter alia, that he is unemployed, and that he is capable of and available for work, but unable to obtain suitable employment. A person is not entitled to benefit for any day on which he is employed. If by falsely representing himself as unemployed when, in fact, he was employed, a person succeeded in obtaining benefit, he would have received it unlawfully, and would be prosecuted as soon as the fraud was discovered.

It was wrong to think that a person who worked two days in the week was entitled to unemployment benefit for the full week; benefit could only be paid for days on which he was unemployed. A person refusing an offer of suitable employment would fail to fulfil one of the statutory conditions for the receipt of benefit, and would not, of course, receive it, as he would not be unable to obtain suitable employment. This plain statement of the position, said our informant, should have the effect of correcting the belief which apparently is fairly commonly held—that the "dole" is available in the Free State. Employers of labour, he said, could help the Department to prevent abuse of the scheme by reporting cases of the kind described by "Eureka."]

PROTECTION OF GAME.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

Sir,—I see that a request is being made to the Free State Minister for Justice to extend the close time on partridges for one year. I cannot think that those who have lent their names to this request have quite realised what will be the unhappy result. Those who have had much to do with the preservation of partridges know that the cock birds are very pugnacious, and that it is the unfortunate habit of old cocks to run off young cocks during the pairing season, with the result that either the eggs laid are unfertile or, instead of good, well-grown coveys, a few unhealthy birds are found, and a number of unpaired cocks.

The fact of the matter is that a proper destruction of vermin will do far more to produce a good stock of birds than any measure of the kind suggested. Shootings in this country—and I do not speak only of partridge—are far too often let for a single season, with the result that the tenant takes all he can get off the shooting, and at the end of the season gives it up. Thus the birds (if any) left to breed get no protection during the time when they most want it. Vermin of all kinds are left to harry the stock available for replenishing the ground, so that it is not to be wondered that our shoots get steadily worse. The tenant or owner who does poison finds that he is in the middle of a number of shoots where vermin are not discouraged, with the natural result that, as soon as he got rid of what he can, they come in over his neighbour's boundary, and he has it all to do again.

It must be conceded that the greatest enemy of the partridge is the potato spray, young birds picking up the insects killed by the spray, with the result that their intestines are burned by the strong vitriol solution. This is, of course, unavoidable. In my opinion, what is required to improve our shooting is the compulsory destruction of vermin by every tenant or owner of shooting, with an agreed number of poison baits per acre, put down during an agreed period, after every shooting season has closed. Proper destruction of vermin would do much for our shoots, but a close season, as suggested, would do absolute harm, and so long as nature produces more male than female birds, with both partridge and grouse, this must be so.—Yours, etc.,

SERVICES FOR HARVESTIDE.

Harvest-tide Services will be held at Christ Church, Blackrock, to-morrow and on Monday next. The Rev. L. Parkinson Hill and the Rev. Chancellor Scott will be the special preachers. On Monday evening Mr. J. Verner Love, organist of Christ Church, Bray, will give a recital. The offertories will be devoted to the Sustentation Fund of the parish.

BRAY AMUSEMENTS.

A varied programme of amusements has been arranged for Bray Esplanade to-morrow. The Garda Siochana (Dépôt) Band, under Superintendent Delaney, will play a specially selected programme, which includes Tschaikowsky's famous "1812" Overture, with special effects, featuring Napoleon's invasion of Russia and retreat from Moscow. On conclusion of the band performance a mimic naval battle and display of fireworks will be presented on a more ambitious scale than ever. The programme will conclude before 10.30 p.m., in ample time for return trains to the city.

AN IRISHMAN'S DIARY.

St. Matthew's Day : Nature the Sculptor : A Kingstown Memorial.
Irish Plays in London : Traveller's Joy : Quail.
The White Rat : The Split Rock.

Traveller's Joy.

During the winter months many of the roadside hedges in County Dublin will be beautified by a feathery mantle of traveller's joy. In an old herbal devoted to those plants and flowers that are valuable as ingredients for a medicine or ointment, I found, when I looked the other day, that "these plants have no use in physicke as yet found, but are esteemed only for pleasure by reason of the goodly shadow which they make with their thick bushing."

"The floures come forth in July," the old scribe says; "the beautie therof appeares in November and December. It sendeth forth many shoots and clasping tendrils, wherewith it foldeth itselfe upon the hedge, and it taketh hold and climbeth upon everything that standeth neere unto it. There cometh forth clusters of white floures, and after them great tufts of flax seeds, each seed having a fine white plume like a feather fastened to it, which maketh in winter a goodly shew."

The Split Rock.

Not very far from Ballina, in the parish of Easkey, many people stop to look at the enormous boulder in a field beside the road. This is known as the Split Rock, and has been cleft into two unequal portions as cleanly as though some monster sword had gone through.

The inevitable legend says that, during some games on the top of the nearest mountain, a giant of old boasted that he could throw the huge boulder into the sea, fourteen miles away. He missed his goal by less than a mile, and was so angry that he ran down and split the rock with a stroke of his sword.

Many years ago a warning went forth among the people that, if anyone walked through the cleft of the rock three times, the two portions would close upon him, with dire results. It is a fact that in a large party of visitors no one could be found who was prepared to take the risk. Several members of the party walked through twice, but the thought of the fate that might overtake them if they disobeyed the warning was enough to keep them back when it came to a third passage. A man who lived in that district told them that he had gone there often, fully prepared to risk it; but when it came to the point, he could not bring himself to do so.

The White Rat.

I was one of a tram-load of people in a Dublin suburb the other day when a small boy cyclist drew alongside with a large white rat perched confidently upon his shoulder. Everybody stared for a moment; then the women, registering horror and disgust, turned away from the sight.

"I never could understand how anyone could have a snake round his neck and not go mad in a very short time," one said to another, "but I think I should lose my reason even sooner with a rat on my shoulder." Her friend agreed, fervently. Meanwhile the rat looked about with much interest, and showed decided disapproval when a dog crossed the road just in front of the bicycle. One of my fellow-passengers winked surreptitiously at me, and, following his gaze, I saw that the passengers of the gentler sex were not the only ones to be affected by the sight. In the corner was a very gloomy-looking man who stared, closed his eyes, and fidgeted in his seat. Then, cautiously, he looked again. He seemed to be vastly relieved that other people saw it, too.

Nature the Sculptor.

That mountain and cliff have been noticed to imitate the forms of men and beasts has been frequently remarked by the local names attached to such phenomena, among such being the Puck Rock, well-known to all those who visit Howth and see the writhen form of that irritating sprite which St. Nessan pinned there. Crossing the Albert Bridge in Belfast the other day, I gazed down the Lagan at Cave Hill, and my companion asked me if I noticed anything strange in the shape of that mass seen from the vantage point of a tram top. I speedily distinguished the shape of a human head recumbent and apparently wearing the cocked hat of an earlier century; there was no doubt of the likeness; the nose and chin were unmistakeable. In this way I was introduced to that piece of Nature's sculpture work that Belfast has recognised as the head of the Emperor Napoleon. This identification is old, and due to the interest taken by a rising industrial centre in one who must have been in a very real sense the Corsican ogre, a menace to their linen and their ships. The shape, however, was seen still earlier as a giant's portrait, and it is still possible to unearth legends that identify it as representing Shane O'Neil, or as being a metamorphosis of Finn McCool.

A Mayoral "Bull."

Back in the seventies of the last century an Irish artist, Michael Angelo Hayes, issued two cartoons, which Sir William Carroll, who had been chief magistrate of Dublin, alleged to be a reflection on his dignity and character. The sting of the cartoons must have gone deep, indeed; for Sir William declared in court that he never suffered "more bodily pain of mind" than the caricatures caused him; and in defining their relative severity he complained that "one was cruelly bad, and the other equally worse."

Irish Plays in London.

The London stage, now at the commencement of the autumn, is strongly tinged with an Irish influence, whether that be in the authorship or in the nature of the plays presented.

Mr. Lennox Robinson's comedy, "Far-Off Hills," has had such a big success at the Everyman Theatre that it is being retained for a longer period than originally intended, a plan that will necessitate the postponement of the revival of Mr. Arnold Bennett's "The Honeymoon," which had been fixed to be produced at the Everyman Theatre this week. Mr. Lennox Robinson will thus have two plays running simultaneously in London; for his "Give a Dog——" is being played at the Embassy Theatre.

Mr. St. John Ervine, the Belfast-born dramatist, has had the greatest stage success of his career with "The First Mrs. Fraser," which completed its first 500 continuous performances last week at the Haymarket Theatre. A translation of the play is to be given at Vienna on Friday of this week, and the author has promised to attend the first performance.

Then an important theatrical event will be the presentation, on October 1, at the Arts Theatre in London, of Mr. George Moore's new play, "The Passing of the Essenes," which is founded on incidents in the later chapters of Mr. Moore's novel, "The Brook Kerith."

Kingstown Presbyterian Church.

At the Memorial Service to be held at 4 p.m. to-morrow afternoon in the Kingstown Presbyterian Church, in remembrance of the late Rev. Francis Stuart Gardiner, there will be unveiled, in addition to the pulpit and screen designed by Mr. R. C. Orpen, a very beautiful mosaic mural tablet, which is the work of Sir Nevile Wilkinson, K.C.V.O., and is the only one of its kind in this country. It is a symbolic treatment of the seals from the Book of Revelation, and is executed in a most effective arrangement of blue mosaic, relieved by gold and colours. Situated, as it is, over the vestry door, the tablet cannot fail to be associated with the memory of the late Mr. Gardiner by the congregation that he served with faith and devotion for nearly thirty years.

The Late Rev. F. S. Gardiner.

St. Matthew's Day.

St. Matthew, whose festival falls to-morrow, is a weather saint, with a somewhat unpleasant reputation. Two old rhymes, however,

> "St. Matthew > Brings the cold dew";

and

> On St. Mathee
> Shut up the bee.

date from the time of the unreformed calendar, when the apostle's anniversary fell eleven days later, and was generally regarded as the beginning of winter. Perhaps, because he was a tax-collector, St. Matthew has never enjoyed great popularity in Great Britain—as witness the few churches dedicated to his invocation—but he alone among the apostles has been the recipient of a posthumous legacy. Horace Walpole declared that Sir John Germaine bequeathed Sir Matthew Decker £200, in the belief that he was the author of the First Gospel, which he greatly admired.

Quail.

Now that the Free State Government is making determined efforts to increase the game supply, surely here is an opportunity to re-introduce the once abundant quail—now, alas, an irregular summer visitor. Numbers of these birds might easily be obtained and released on selected ground in the early spring, or enclosed in large wire runs, from which a certain number of young birds could be distributed every year. The annual migration would, of course, have to be reckoned with, but a large proportion of the birds should return to their old haunts. As a game bird quail offer quite good sport, while their gastronomic qualities have endeared them throughout the ages to all followers of Lucullus and Apicius.

Tom Moore's Visit.

It is just a century since Tom Moore paid one of his last visits to Ireland. This was in September, 1830. The chief entry in the "Diary" concerns the celebrations held to commemorate the French Revolution. The meeting took place in the "National Mart," and Sheil having addressed an audience of over two thousand, Moore was called on to speak. After some early hesitation, the applause mounted to his head, and he made a most fiery oration, and he records with some complacency that Sheil remarked: "What a beautiful speaker!"

There are two quaint entries, typical of Moore's unintentional charm as a diarist. He records that "the Irish are much colder as auditors to my singing than the English." Also, that he and Bessy paid a visit to Kilkenny, where he courted Bessy, then an actress, and adds: "We did not love half so really then as now."

He does not record that he drove in his carriage to No. 12 Aungier street, his first home, and sat watching it for a long time, his eyes suffused with tears.

Pioneer Discomforts.

The Railway Centenary celebrations are a reminder that railway travel was once dangerous and very uncomfortable. In "The Iron Road Book and Railway Companion" of 1838 some advice is tendered to passengers.

> "Get as far away from the engine as possible," it says, "for this reason: First, should an explosion take place, you may happily get off with the loss of an arm or a leg; whereas, if you should happen to be placed near the said piece of hot machinery and an unfortunate accident occur, you would very probably be 'smashed to smithereens,' as brother Jonathan most expressively terms the likely result of such an occurrence. Secondly, the vibration is very much diminished the farther you get away from the engine. Thirdly, always sit (if you can get a seat) with your back towards the engine, against the boarded part of the wagon; by this plan you will avoid being chilled by a cold circuit of air which passes through these open wagons, and also save yourself from being nearly blinded by the small cinders which escape through the funnel."

The Hoopoe.

In the list of birds contained in the National Museum, compiled by the late R. J. Ussher, the paragraph about the hoopoe winds up with the following: "A conspicuous bird, which might breed here if it were not shot." The same applies to all other rare or brilliantly coloured birds. There is no reason why the hoopoe should not arrive yearly. He is beautiful, innocuous, and not in the least dainty in his choice of food. Long ago the hoopoe lacked the magnificent crest he now has, and was, indeed, somewhat inconspicuous. According to the story, a great king of the time had decided to marry a bride from Asia, and to do her honour had sent his army to meet her at the port of landing and escort her to his royal city. There, by his special command, all the birds of the air were to await her arrival, shade her from the sun with their wings, and regale her with sweet songs. All the feathered tribes agreed, except the hoopoe. Perhaps, he knew something of the lady's character. At any rate, he refused to go, and sought refuge in a distant cavern. Hearing of this, the king was wroth, and commanded that the offender be brought before him. So well did the hoopoe defend himself and his lofty scruples that the king was lost in admiration at such virtue. Then, removing the crown from his royal head, he placed it on the chaste bird's, saying: "Thou are a very king among birds, and shalt for ever be crowned." Charles Whymper is my authority for this quaint story.

Newgate.

A composite map of the walls of Dublin, by Leonard R. Strangways, M.I.R.A., indicates that the old ruins recently removed from Corn Market were part of "the Southeaste Towre of the Newe Gate." This was once the strongest point in the city defences. In the twelfth century the civic laws enacted that the watchman should there begin his "patrolle," thence through High street to the Tholsel, and as far as "the other lane leading to the house of Thomas le Marechal." In the sixteenth century the city wall at "the Newe Gate, which hath two towres," was "seventeen foote hie and fyfe foote thicke and no rampier within the said wall." It connected up the six gates that protected the landward entrances, and between the gates there were towers at distances varying up to three hundred and fifty feet. An excerpt from an old work in my possession may be taken as a fair description of these towers: ". . . . three stories hie with three tymber loftes, and the loer storie three lowpes (loop-holes), in the second storie one lowpe, and in the third storie twoe lowpes. . . . the wall six foote thicke nineteen foote sqware within. . . . the Towre forty-six foote hie, besydes the garrettes."

QUIDNUNC.

MARRIAGE OF DR. R. A. HEATLEY AND MISS H. L. TASSELL.

The marriage took place on Saturday last at St. Michael and All Angels', Marden, Kent, of Robert A. Heatley, M.B., eldest surviving son of Robert Heatley, Peace Commissioner and Mrs. Heatley, St. Paul's, Bray, Co. Wicklow, and Hilda Lilian, third daughter of William and Mrs. Tassell, Westfield, Marden. The Rev. J. A. Finch, M.A., officiated at the Service, which was fully choral.

The bride wore a gown of embossed ninon in parchment over pink, with a Juliette cap of pearls trimmed with orange blossoms and a long veil of pink tulle, and carried a sheaf of creamy pink gladioli.

The bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Tassell, sister of the bride; Miss Eveleen Heatley, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Daphne Day, niece of the bride. They wore ankle-length pink georgette frocks and diamante-trimmed coatees, with head-dresses of pink and blue crystal flowers, and carried bouquets of pink carnations and blue love-in-the-mist. Two nephews of the bride, Master Tony Hill-Reid and Master Philip Guring, acted as pages, and looked well in parchment satin suits.

Mr. Y. R. Heatley, the bridegroom's brother, acted as best man.

A reception was held at Westfield, where over a hundred and fifty guests were entertained. The presents, which were numerous, were much admired.

Later in the afternoon Dr. and Mrs. Heatley left for a motoring tour in Devonshire before leaving for India. The bride's travelling dress was a beige lace gown and coatee, with hat, etc., to tone.

TRINITY COLLEGE NOTES.

THE APPROACH OF TERM.

ADVENTURES IN CANADA.

From a Correspondent.

Term will not begin until the end of October, but already the tide of taxis, outside cars, and even humble cabs, is flowing more rapidly through the front gate, depositing every day a mixed cargo of returning undergraduates and Junior Freshmen about to make the experiment of "living in" for the first time. The latter may be distinguished by the inordinate quantity of their luggage, and by the inevitable second-hand easy chair, reposing outside their doors, labelled and swathed in cloth, which barely hides the pathetic, faded green plush. This luxurious object usually emanates from some small shop on the quays, and is absolutely necessary to supplement the meagre furniture supplied by the authorities, who seem to think that a student should be content to sit on a kitchen chair.

The habit of travel appears to have spread among Trinity students recently. The old grand tour would be too expensive for the average student nowadays, but many contrive to spend the vacation on the Continent. The enthusiastic modern language student usually repairs to Tours or Grenoble, or to Paris if he or she wishes to combine life with learning. Others prefer to study nachkultur in Germany, and some wander as far as the Tyrol and Hungary, eschewing the aid of Mr. Cook as a rule. The Gaelic enthusiast, however, disdains all foreign parts and betakes himself to the Blaskets or Tory Island, whence he writes postcards in Gaelic to his friends, who take about half-an-hour to read them with the aid of a dictionary.

THE WILD WEST.

An enterprise which will rival the feats of German students who cycle or paddle a canoe earnestly all over the globe is being planned by a Trinity student. Mr. J. C. Coulter, who went to Canada after taking entrance, and spent several years there before continuing his course in College, intends to drive across Canada in a "baby" Austin car, following the most difficult and most unfrequented routes. He will probably take another Trinity student with him, though his plans are by no means complete as yet. His knowledge of life in the "Wild West" is considerable, and his rooms in the "Bay" are enhanced by a fine collection of snow-shoes.

There is already much activity among the various athletic clubs, and football and hockey practices are being held in the Park. The "Soccer" Club, which made its début this season, has already played several matches, and last week defeated the Bank of Ireland. Owing to the formation of this new club the Hockey Club will no longer play matches on their old ground in the Park, though practices will still be held there when they do not interfere with the "Soccer" Club's activities. Their matches will be played on the Irish Hockey Union ground near Lansdowne road. Some difficulty is being experienced in finding a goal-keeper of the calibre of Mr. F. B. Moynihan, who has just departed for England.

IRELAND IN AFRICA.

It would not be easy to reckon the number of Trinity graduates scattered in various places throughout Africa. Next month Mr. M. J. Hogan, a prominent personality in College for several years, will join this ever-increasing band of exiles. Most of them are exclusively Empire-builders, but Mr. Hogan will carry on the profession of a solicitor in Nairobi. He is a Scholar in History and a Moderator in Legal and Political Science. In athletics he attained a standard of all-round proficiency, and was prominent especially in tennis, boxing and football. Greatness was thrust upon him this year when he was elected Secretary of the Trinity Week Committee—a most responsible position, which entails, with other duties, the encouraging of niggardly students to buy Trinity Week "badges," and strutting about in a top hat at the College races with the air of a head boy of Eton. Mr. Hogan was a most energetic and efficient secretary.

Mr. M. J. Hogan.

"JOURNEY'S END."

DISABLED EX-SOLDIERS AT GRAFTON CINEMA.

At the invitation of the directors of the Grafton Cinema, Dublin, fifty disabled ex-Service men who are still undergoing treatment at the Ministry of Pensions Orthopædic Hospital, Blackrock, attended a performance of "Journey's End" yesterday. Anxious to see the film, the men had written asking whether it was possible to grant them a reduced admission price, and the directors very kindly offered them seats free of cost. The men were deeply impressed with the film.

DUBLIN MUNICIPAL COUNCIL.

THREE CANDIDATES WITHDRAW.

Messrs. J. P. McAvin, D. J. O'Herlihy, J. P. McGivern have withdrawn their nominations as candidates for the new Dublin Municipal Council. There are now ninety-eight candidates for the thirty-five seats.

The Commercial ballot papers will be posted to the voters on the Commercial register on the 23rd inst., and they may be returned prepaid through the post, or be delivered in the Town Clerk's office during office hours up to 9 o'clock a.m. on the 30th inst.

No voting paper will be accepted after that hour.

THE COUNTING OF THE VOTES.

The counting of the Commercial Men's votes will commence at 9 o'clock on the morning of October 1st, and the votes for the six electoral boroughs will be taken up simultaneously.

THE BUSINESS MEN'S CANDIDATES.

MEETING OF SUPPORTERS.

Mr. Hutchison presided at a largely attended meeting in Dublin last night of supporters of the candidates of the National Business Men's Association who are seeking election to the Municipal Council. Mr Donal J. O'Herlihy acted as secretary to the meeting.

The Chairman said that each of their candidates had hitherto shown his ability publicly at some period, and he thought that the organisation which chose them as its standard-bearers did so with full consciousness of their honesty, energy, and business acumen.

THE NEED FOR BUSINESS CANDIDATES.

Mr. J. J. Harte, speaking as a native of the city, dwelt upon the necessity for citizens interesting themselves in municipal affairs, which might be much better conducted, and with better financial results for the ratepayers, if men accustomed to conducting their own businesses successfully came forward and took an interest in municipal matters. He welcomed the formation of the National Business group; for in it he could find men of all shades of political opinion realising that something must be done to save the economic situation and prevent the finances of the city from falling into the hands of rival political factions, who in their antagonism to each other too frequently lost sight of the fact that the citizens suffered by their indiscretions.

His work in the various charitable organisations in which he laboured had taught him that much remained to be done in Dublin. The poor lived in many instances in dreadful circumstances, and he thought that while too little was spent on some municipal services, too much was given away for others. It was his desire and duty if elected to strive for such conditions as would improve the lot of the poor, bring about employment by keeping our local industries going, furthering, as he had always done, home manufacture. He advocated houses at permissible rates for the poorer, working and middle-class people, and that the dwellings built should be erected with some idea of family requirements.

He thanked the members of his trade and the allied trades for the support accorded him, and from a canvass of the districts of No. 3 Area, he said that he was assured beyond doubt of the success of the nominees of the National Businessmen.

A CITIZEN'S DUTY.

Mr. Kevin Kenny, speaking as a candidate and one of the fifth generation of his family born in Dublin, said that his candidature as the nominee of a group of Dublin businessmen of national outlook and national instincts told him that it was possible for a Dublin man to live at home, and despite all assertion to the contrary many of them did so. Not only was he proud of being invited to seek their suffrages, but he was glad of the opportunity of being asked to put his services into a work which was a citizen's duty.

To me and those who think as I do, he said, the words, "Greater Dublin," are no mere shibboleth. Dublin has been, and is now, great in its culture, and its citizens, and it is the duty of everyone here to assure that it shall in future live up to its title by providing, through its municipal sagacity, such public services and improved conditions of living as will be consistent with judicious expenditure and voluntary work and devotion in helping to administer that expenditure. My organisation does not stand for parsimony; it stands for trying to get the best possible value for the ratepayers' money, for the protection of their interests, no matter of what station, for trying to alleviate some of the many pressing imposts with which we are confronted, and in doing so avoiding all political factiousness, but working always for the citizens best interests, nationally and patriotically.

MAKING THE MARKETS PAY.

Mr. Liam Paul said that Dublin received him many years ago, and at the last municipal election honoured him by electing him Senior Councillor of Arran Quay Ward, which was an important and large area of the present No. 3 District. Judge me, he said, in seeking a renewal of your confidence by my municipal record, which I am proud to say will bear scrutiny of friend and opponent alike. I was Chairman of your Markets Committee for the first two years of my former term. I put your markets on a paying basis by making them convert a considerable loss into a profit of £17,000 in the first year, and enabling money to be spent for improvements on a property which could not be done for some time previous. My work in dealing with the Port and Docks Board, on which I was a municipal representative, and the fact that my efforts succeeded in exposing the strangle-hold of foreigners on our port, and getting a special shipping berth built for Irish cattle shippers with Irish owned steamers, is not, I feel, forgotten.

TOWN-PLANNING IN THE NORTH.

BILL TO BE LAID BEFORE PARLIAMENT.

ELECTRICITY SUPPLY MEASURE.

The Northern Ireland Parliament when it reassembles on the 7th October will have a programme of nine measures for consideration.

One of the principal bills will be that dealing with town-planning, which is awaited with considerable interest by local authorities.

Another important measure will be a bill to deal with electricity. This bill will contain over one hundred clauses, and will deal with the problem of electricity supply and distribution over the greater portion of Northern Ireland. It will probably follow the lines of the recent report, which advocated the establishment of the Belfast and Derry electricity stations as central power-houses for a large area of the Northern territory.

A MOTORING BILL.

A Motor Car Licensing and Insurance Bill will also be introduced. The bill, it is understood, will bring the law in Northern Ireland into line with recent legislation in Great Britain, particularly in regard to third-party insurance.

Other measures, including the Agricultural Produce (Meat Regulation) Bill, the Marketing of Fruit Bill and the Constabulary (Reward Fund) Bill, which has already been introduced, will be proceeded with.

The Agricultural Produce (Meat Regulation) Bill provides for the maintenance of proper standards of quality, and the carrying out of inspections in connection with the marketing of certain kinds of meat.

INSPECTION OF MEAT.

It also deals with the licensing of persons engaged in such marketing, and the registration of premises used for the slaughter of animals.

The first stage of the bill provides for the inspection of animals where the meat is intended for export before and after killing at abattoirs or licensed slaughter houses. The final portion deals with the inspection of dead pigs sent to curing establishments.

There will also be a small Finance Bill and a Weights and Measures Bill, as well as the annual Expiring Laws Continuance Bill. The latter two measures will be considered firstly in the Senate before going before the Commons.

FRIENDLY SOCIETIES' CONFERENCE.

Mr. Herbert White (Oddfellows), London, at Blackpool yesterday was elected President of the National Conference of Friendly Societies for the ensuing year, in succession to Mr. Frank Lewis (Rechabites), Bristol. Mr. G. Wright (Free Gardeners) was appointed Vice-president.

THE COUNTY COUNCIL.

ANOTHER WITHDRAWAL.

Mrs. Mary Adrian, who was on the Fianna Fail list of candidates, and the only woman candidate nominated for the County Council, withdrew her nomination yesterday. She is the third candidate who has withdrawn, Messrs. Sean Brady, T.D., and William Butler (Farmers) having withdrawn on Wednesday.

There are now fifty-five candidates to contest the twenty-four seats on the Council.

COASTAL BOROUGH.

NO WITHDRAWALS.

The Returning Officer for the Borough of Dun Laoghaire elections closed his office yesterday without having received any withdrawals.

The names of forty candidates will, therefore, go before the electors for the fifteen seats on the Council.

COASTING VESSEL WRECKED.

CREW OF SEVEN MEN SAVED.

The coasting steamer Treport, 285 tons gross, owned by Treport Services, London, was wrecked in Prince's Channel at two o'clock yesterday morning, when making the journey with a general cargo from London to Treport, France.

The crew of seven were rescued by the Margate motor lifeboat and the motor pilot boat, Thanet Queen.

SUBMERGED VESSEL STRUCK.

Five hours after leaving London on Thursday night the vessel struck a submerged wreck, and was badly holed in the fore part of the engine room. She quickly filled with water, and was beached on the Girdler Sands, about twenty miles off Margate.

Rockets and flares were sent up, whilst the ship's boat was lowered in case that the vessel had to be abandoned.

Five of the crew were taken ashore in the Thanet Queen, whilst the captain, Mr. Bertram Hancock, of Tunbridge Wells, and the mate, Mr. Francis Nelson, of Sunderland, remained behind. They had to abandon the ship an hour or two later, and were brought to Margate in the lifeboat.

CAPTAIN'S STATEMENT.

In an interview the captain said: "When the lifeboat and the Thanet Queen arrived I gave my crew the option of going ashore if they wanted to. They put off in the Thanet Queen, leaving the mate and myself on board. The sea was still increasing, and, owing to weather conditions, we were eventually compelled to leave.

"It will be impossible to salve the vessel or her cargo, but we managed to save a few of our personal effects."

"AN ACT OF WANTON CRUELTY."

AIR-GUN FIRED AT HORSES.

At Rathfarnham District Court, Michael Somers, Templeogue, Joseph Somers, Templeogue, and John Cranny, Rathfarnham, were charged by Guard Culleton with having fired an air gun at horses at Templeogue.

Christopher Lawlor said that on September 11 he had four horses grazing at the Strand at Templeogue. On September 12 he found that the horses had been molested, and he picked several pellets (produced) out of their bodies.

Evidence was given by Mrs. Hastings that she saw some boys firing an air gun, and saw the horses jumping about the field.

The defendants said that they were firing at a target, and did not see the horses.

Justice Reddin said that the defendants had committed perjury in court. They were guilty of an act of wanton cruelty, and if he (the Justice) thought that they acted with malice he would certainly have sent them to prison. He fined defendants 20s., and ordered the air gun to be confiscated for three months.

POSSESSION OF DUBLIN PREMISES.

Before the Master of the High Court, Dublin, yesterday, an application was made on behalf of Emelie Minton, 72 Park avenue, Sydney parade, County Dublin, for an order for possession of the premises, 3 Synge street, Dublin, occupied by Teresa Sturdy. It was stated that the premises had been purchased by the plaintiff through the Court for £260 in connection with an action brought by the Munster and Leinster Bank against Claire McLoughlin, and that the plaintiff would not agree to a stay of three months, as suggested by the defendant, whose rent was in arrear, but agreed to a stay of six weeks.

The Master gave the plaintiff a decree for possession, with a stay of execution for six weeks.

Messrs. John H. Minton and Company were the solicitors for the plaintiff, and Mr. C. Rupert Robinson was the solicitor for the defendant.

Ex-R.I.C. MAN'S DEATH.

A verdict of "Suicide whilst temporarily insane" was returned at the inquest held at Jervis Street Hospital, Dublin, yesterday, on Thomas McLoghlin (37), an ex-member of the Royal Irish Constabulary, who was found hanged at Seafield road, Clontarf, on Thursday morning.

Edward Bladley, a postman, said that while he was going his rounds on Thursday morning he saw the body hanging from a tree, and informed Guard Patrick Fitzpatrick, of Clontarf, who cut the body down and applied artificial respiration until the ambulance arrived.

Bridget McLoghlin, widow, said that her health was quite good. husband was depressed recently, but his

Dr. Louis A. Byrne, City Coroner, conducted the inquest without a jury.

NEWS FROM ALL IRELAND.

WEXFORD FISHERY RATE.

The WEXFORD Board of Fishery Conservators has struck a rate of 11s. 6d. in the £, which is an increase of 2s. on last year. The increase was due to increased estimates for the coming year. The payment of extra water bailiffs is the heaviest item in the Conservators' expenses.

MEDICAL APPOINTMENT.

Dr. Annie Mary Stafford, a daughter of Mr. James J. Stafford, Wexford, has been appointed, on the recommendation of the Local Appointments Commissioners, to the position of medical officer of the County Fever Hospital at New Ross.

CRUELTY TO HORSES.

At RATHFARNHAM District Court John Lawless, Firhouse, was charged by Sergeant Nyhan, Tallaght, with having worked a horse while it was suffering from a sore. A fine of 2s. 6d. was imposed. Peter Lawlor and James Donohoe, Oldbawn, were summoned for working horses while in an unfit condition. They were fined 2s. 6d. each.

JUNIOR MARINE SCHOOL.

The City of GALWAY Technical Instruction Committee at a special meeting decided to set up a junior marine and fishery day school in the Galway Technical Institute, and to appoint an instructor, who must have at least a first mate's certificate. In addition to training local fishermen, the Committee hope to help boys to enter the mercantile marine and to qualify for pilots' licences.

DERRY CIVIC WEEK.

At a meeting of the DERRY Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Wallace Edmiston, President, referring to Civic Week, to be held in Derry from October 3 to October 11, said that it was pleasing to state that all sections of the community were co-operating in pushing the matter, and, while all their arrangements were not completed yet, they were in a forward state. There was every prospect of their having a successful Civic Week.

A POPULAR PRIEST.

The DROGHEDA Choral Class spent a pleasant day in Omeath last Thursday, where they travelled specially to make a presentation to the Rev. J. Lavelle, P.P., Whitecross, Co. Armagh, with whom the class had pleasant associations during Father Lavelle's twenty years in Drogheda as senior curate in St. Peter's. The presentation took the form of an illuminated address and a gold cross of Celtic design, and was made by Mr. Dominic Maguire and Mr. J. McAllester on behalf of the class.

DERRY-LIVERPOOL MAILS.

At the meeting of the DERRY Chamber of Commerce yesterday Mr. Wallace Edmiston, the President, said that there had been an improved mail service between Belfast and Liverpool, and he thought that the Derry mails should be included, so as to give an extra hour for posting letters in Derry for Liverpool and district. Mr. J. G. Magee proposed that the Chamber make representations to the local postmaster with this object in view. Mr. A. W. Anderson seconded the motion, which was agreed to.

IRISH TEACHER APPOINTED.

Forty applications were received by LIMERICK City Technical Education Committee for the position of temporary whole-time teacher of Irish, rendered vacant by the appointment of Mr. F. G. Spencer as junior inspector of primary schools under the Board of Education. Three candidates were proposed, and Miss B. O'Sullivan, B.A., O'Curry street, Limerick, having received a clear majority, was declared elected to the position. There is an initial salary attaching to the position of £120 a year, in addition to the cost of living bonus.

THIEVES AT LARGE.

Thieves who broke into the spirit store of Mr. Patrick O'Connell in Clanbrassil street, DUNDALK, on Thursday night regaled themselves with whiskey, cigarettes and cakes while raiding the premises. On a report being made to the Civic Guards, Detective Kavanagh and Guard Behan searched the demesne which runs at the back of the premises, and, hidden in the grass, they found a box containing several bottles of whiskey, packets of cigarettes and cakes, which apparently had been hidden in what the theives considered a safe place. No arrests have yet been made.

'BUS DRIVER'S LICENCE.

At RATHFARNHAM District Court yesterday Benjamin Boles was charged by Superintendent Murphy with having driven a 'bus in a reckless and dangerous manner near Tallaght, and for failing to stop. Mr. E. H. Bourne, solicitor, who defended, said that the case had been dealt with some time ago, and defendant was fined 20s. for reckless driving, and £5 for failing to stop. His licence was suspended. He asked that the summons be amended. Defendant said that he was driving a 'bus on the Tallaght road, and an accident happened to a lorry, but he was not responsible for it. He did not stop, as he had been fired on that morning, a strike being on at the time. Justice Reddin removed the endorsement from defendant's licence.

DRIVER'S LICENCE SUSPENDED.

At RATHFARNHAM District Court, John Davenport Cooper, 3 Mayhill terrace, Terenure, 'bus driver, was charged by Inspector Murphy with having driven a 'bus in a reckless and dangerous manner. Captain Luby, Rathfarnham, said that he left Rathfarnham with his wife and children on August 10. Another 'bus passed, and then the 'bus in which witness was travelling, driven by defendant, went out at a great pace, and at Bushy Park road was travelling at about 45 miles per hour. Witness pulled the communication cord, and spoke to defendant, who afterwards drove carefully. Justice Reddin said that Captain Luby had acted very properly in this case, and he hoped that others would follow his example. He fined defendant 40s., and suspended his licence for a fortnight.

THE TWO ASPECTS.

At DUNDALK District Court Peter Donnelly, Church street, applied for a licence for a dance hall to be carried on in his premises, but the application was adjourned, as sufficient notice had not been given. Opposition to the application was made by Mr. J. B. Hamill, State Solicitor for the authorities, and by Mr. T. Teevan, solicitor, on behalf of the Rev. Father Tohall, Adm. Mr. Hamill stated that the authorities considered the premises unsuitable. They were behind a furniture shop, and in case of fire there would be great danger. Mr. Goodlett Hamill (or the applicant) urged that nobody except the State had power to interfere in the proceedings. District Justice Goff, in adjourning the case, said that the granting of the application would be in his discretion, and in that event he could certainly take into account the moral aspect as well as the physical.

TRESPASS ON GOLF LINKS.

At RATHFARNHAM District Court yesterday, before District Justice Reddin, Michael Dillon, Rathfarnham, was charged with having trespassed on the Castle Golf Links, Rathfarnham, on August 11. Mr. E. H. Burne, solicitor, said that Dillon and a man named Ellis were convicted in July last for trespassing on the links. On August 11, Mr. Sharpe, an employé of the Golf Club, saw Dillon and Ellis standing near the pavilion. Sharpe questioned them, and Dillon said that if Sharpe prosecuted him he would wait for him going home and "do six months for him." Mr. Burne added that on the night before the professional golf tournament at The Castle, the flags were removed from the greens and hidden in a sewer pipe. Defendant said that he had nothing to do with taking the flags. A fine of 5s. and 20s. costs was imposed, and defendant was ordered to find bail, himself in £5 and two sureties of £5 each.

LICENSING PROSECUTION.

At RATHFARNHAM District Court yesterday Mrs. Sarah Conaty, licensed vintner, Embankment House, Tallaght, was charged with having committed a breach of the licensing laws on Saturday, August 2. Sergeant Nyhan, Tallaght, deposed that he visited the shop at 11 p.m. He found three local men, three women, and three men, who were bona fide travellers. Mrs. Conaty said that a man from Saggart came in for a drink and got weak in the shop. The three men offered to drive this man home, and did so. On their way back their motor car broke down, and the men "beseeched" her to give them a drink, which she did, but took no money from them. Justice Reddin commented on the fact that the three men did not appear in Court in support of Mrs. Conaty's evidence. There was a previous conviction against defendant. Mr. Fagan, solicitor, asked for leniency, in view of her inexperience. A fine of 40s. was imposed, the conviction not to be recorded in the licence. The men found on the premises were each fined 5s.

THE AUSTRALIAN CRISIS.

STATEMENT BY THE PREMIER.

MR. SCULLIN LANDS AT TOULON.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.
TOULON, Friday.

Mr. Scullin, the Prime Minister of Australia, and the members of the Australian Delegation to the Imperial Conference, landed here this evening from the Orient liner Orama. Mr. Scullin has benefited considerably by the sea voyage from Australia, but he is still far from well.

It is the opinion of the ship's doctor, as well as that of the members of the Prime Minister's staff, that, had Mr. Scullin remained working at the pressure he maintained during the last few months, he would have suffered a complete breakdown in health. The weeks of unremitting and exacting work preceding his departure from Australia, combined with the seriousness of his illness on the trans-Continental Railway, have proved a severe handicap to Mr. Scullin in his work of preparation for the coming Imperial Conference.

Some days out from Colombo Mr. Scullin, although not well, began daily conferences with Mr. Parker Moloney and with the members of his staff, and discussed the agenda of the Imperial Conference.

The Prime Minister was unable to take part in any of the usual recreational activities on board, but he attended an entertainment in the third class saloon, in which there were about five hundred passengers. Mr. Scullin also distributed the prizes for the sports among the first class passengers, and Mrs. Scullin was one of the judges at the fancy dress ball. The Prime Minister spent his fifty-fourth birthday on board ship between Naples and Toulon on Thursday.

It is expected that at Geneva Mr. Scullin will speak briefly on disarmament at a meeting of the Committee on Disarmament.

MR. SCULLIN'S STATEMENT.

Interviewed by the Press Association's Correspondent, the Prime Minister said:—"Although the revenue for the first two months of the financial year has shown a considerable shortage, it is impossible at this stage to give a true estimate of the general revenue position. There is always a considerable lagging behind in the early part of the financial year in connection with revenue receipts.

"Before I left Australia my colleagues and I determined that the Budget should be balanced, and that any necessary additional action to maintain the balance must be taken before the financial year had proceeded very far. If it is necessary to call Parliament together at an early date to submit financial proposals that will be done."

DEBT TO BRITAIN.

Questioned regarding the Australian debt to Great Britain, Mr. Scullin replied: "There are many questions that will be discussed with the British Government, but I do not propose at this stage to anticipate the discussions on these questions."

He added that he had every confidence in the Acting Prime Minister, Mr. Fenton, and his colleagues, and felt sure that they would take the proper steps to deal with the difficult position that had arisen in Australia.

DERRY SHIPPING HOURS.

COMPLAINT AT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

At a meeting of the Derry Chamber of Commerce yesterday Mr. Wallace Edmiston, President, presiding, Councillor Cochrane complained of the refusal of the Burns-Laird Line to accept goods for shipment from Derry to Glasgow after 5 o'clock.

Mr. W. McCarter, Derry, agent for the Burns-Laird Line, said that the shipping company was perfectly willing to accept goods up to 7 o'clock at night provided they were kept going. Their difficulty was that frequently they were left absolutely idle, perhaps from 5 to 5.45 o'clock, with forty-five men on their hands at 2s. 5d. per hour each; and then when they ought to be finishing up three or four stray loads arrived at the last minute, and the men were put on for anothr half-hour's pay. This often meant that the cost of putting the goods on board was more than the entire freight.

Lieut.-Commander Frank Gilliland asked that the Shipping Committee be requested to make a general investigation of Derry's cross-Channel trade because there was a great deal of trade passing the Derry Port owing to the inadequate services to England. There was a tremendous amount of trade going via rail to Belfast for England which could be obtained for the Port of Derry if there was an adequate service.

The President said that Mr. McCarter had given a good explanation. Personally he found the Burns-Laird Line most anxious to serve shippers. Of course in the case of goods coming in at the last moment, especially if they were perishable, shippers liked to get them away.

It was decided to ask the Shipping Committee to take up the question of Derry's cross-Channel trade generally.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1930.

IRELAND.

Three of the candidates who were nominated on Wednesday for the Dublin City Council have withdrawn their nominations, leaving the names of ninety-eight candidates to go before the electors.—(Page 5.)

A conference of farmers from Leinster counties and members of the Dail in Maryborough yesterday called for a special meeting of the Dail to enact legislation prohibiting the entry of foreign oats, butter and eggs, and to impose tariffs on imported barley, malt, bacon and hams.—(Page 7.)

The high winds and heavy rains which visited a large area of the South of Ireland on Thursday night caused a good deal of flooding. In Wales and Scotland crops were carried away by the floods.—(Page 7.)

GREAT BRITAIN.

Warships of the Atlantic Fleet are ready for next week's "war," which will mark the climax of the autumn manœuvres.—(Page 8.)

Sir William Morris, in an interview with a Press Association representative yesterday, advocated protection and safeguarding as a means of increasing employment and restoring prosperity.—(Page 7.)

ABROAD

World trade depression and the urgent necessity of international action to check "dumping" provided discussion at the meeting of the Second Committee of the League of Nations yesterday. Proposals for penal administration reform were adopted by the Fifth Committee. The Sixth Committee discussed the treatment of minorities.—(Page 7.)

SPORTING

At Ayr yesterday Heronslea won the Ayr Gold Cup.—(Page 6.)

At Windsor, Sans Espoir won the Windsor Handicap.—(Page 10.)

FINANCIAL.

London Stock Markets were dull. Following New York, International issues were marked lower.—(Page 12.)

The Treasury bills were placed at 2 1-16 per cent., against nearly 2⅛ per cent. last week. Discount rates were easier. Overnight loans were again offered as low as 1 per cent. The Bank received £23,000 in sovereigns from abroad, and £350,000 in sovereigns was released; £27,768 in bar gold was sold, and £7,000 in sovereigns exported.—(Page 12.)

The Home Market.

During the Great War Britain's dependence on overseas supplies was illustrated in a painful manner, and since the Armistice this condition of affairs has grown worse. The problem may be said to be concentrated in the matter of wheat supplies. Wheat is the staple of tillage, and in Ireland, as well as in England, the number of acres under this crop is falling every year. Of the wheat that was milled in England last year only 13 per cent. was home-grown. In the first seven months of the present year the Irish Free State imported foreign wheat to the value of £1,205,999, while her bill for imported flour came to £1,641,030. The problem in the two islands is virtually identical. Agriculturists will not grow wheat because they cannot compete with foreign countries; any farmer in Ireland will confirm the view that, in existing circumstances, the game is not worth the candle. In Ireland the farmers are concentrating more and more strongly on pastures, because the export of cattle pays them; in England the wheat-growers are almost in despair, and are turning their attention to other crops. The result must be that the British Isles in times of future emergency will depend for their bread supplies on foreign countries.

Since the need for a native crop cannot be questioned, the problem resolves itself into a matter of ways and means. By an interesting coincidence wheat-growers in England and in Ireland are making similar proposals, although they are working independently of one another. The Irish Grain Growers' Association last year demanded that every miller in the Free State should be compelled by law to mix fifteen per cent. of home-grown grain with his imported wheat. The demand was brought forward again at a meeting in Maryborough yesterday, when representatives of the grain-growing counties called not only for a quota system for wheat, but for the complete prohibition of imported oats for stock-feeding, and a stiff tariff on barley and malt. Yesterday, also, Lieutenant-Colonel E. A. Ruggles-Brise, M.P., in the course of an article in The Times, advocated the quota system for England. He proposes the admixture of fifteen per cent. of home-grown wheat for milling purposes, with a guaranteed price for the producer. He declares that this system would be infinitely preferable to the proposed Import Board, which would involve a State monopoly. The proposal of a quota system would secure like results in a less obnoxious way. It would ensure the milling of a certain proportion not only of home-grown, but also of Empire-grown, wheat; and Colonel Ruggles-Brise estimates that eighty-five per cent. of the national needs could be supplied from home and Dominion sources.

In one respect the Irish grain-growers are in a worse case than their neighbours. England has no industrial tariffs, but in the Irish Free State the farmers are required to pay stiff import duties on many necessaries of life. During the last financial year Free State consumers—mostly farmers—paid the Government no less than £1,335,872 in import duties. It is true that 11,626 additional workers were employed as a result of these tariffs; but, as the consumer was forced to pay more than £114 for every worker, the net gain is not apparent. There is much to be said for the quota system in the Free State, but there is nothing at all to be said for the sweeping series of food tariffs which were demanded at yesterday's meeting. Already there are far too many tariffs in the Free State, and the introduction of a quota system for wheat would bring the same benefit as a tariff. If it were administered properly, it ought not to increase the price of bread by any appreciable amount; a tariff, on the other hand, undoubtedly would have that effect. We can sympathise with the farmers' desire to prevent large imports of foreign bacon, butter, eggs, and the like, and we agree that the home market, so far as may be possible, ought to be supplied by the home producer. In the case of wheat the increase of the native crop is a national need. Tariffs, however, will not solve the problem. A guaranteed price, such as Colonel Ruggles-Brise advocates for England, is quite another matter. We commend the idea to Mr. Hogan, in the hope that it may suggest a plan suitable to Free State conditions.

Rights of the Road.

Our pedestrians—who had begun to adopt the motto, Una salus victis nullam sperare salutem—have found a champion in Sir Thomas Myles. Usually the pedestrian's plaint against motorists is attributed to jealousy or malice: the fellow would not be a pedestrian if he could afford to own a motor car. No such suspicion can affect Sir Thomas Myles, who has driven motor cars for thirty years. His arresting letter, which we print to-day, is inspired by his experience of the streets and hospitals and by a generous sympathy with the "under-dog." It pleads the pedestrian's cause and challenges a definition of his rights. The challenge is timely and important; for a considerable number of motorists assumes, and is suffered to assume, that the pedestrian has no rights. It is the motorist's imperious horn, not the pedestrian's convenience, which now decides the normal course of traffic. That horn, even when blown by the mildest motorist, expects instant obedience. If a foolhardy pedestrian should defy the blast, the look of mingled surprise and wrath on the motorist's face could receive justice only from Mr. Bateman's pencil. There are a few specially crowded spots in Dublin and other Irish cities where civic authority provides privileged crossings for pedestrians; but, in general, the motorist commands the roadway and foot-passengers cross it at his pleasure. The picture which Sir Thomas Myles draws—a number of children waiting patiently upon a safe gap in a long procession of swiftly-moving motor cars—is familiar to everybody. If a child should try to cross in front of an on-coming car, and, if an accident should happen, the motorist would tell the police magistrate that he had blown his horn. In many police court cases, as Sir Thomas Myles says, such a statement, duly proved, exonerates the motorist. Thus it appears that, in practice, a motorist's right to clear the way with his horn dominates the pedestrian's need to escape from the rain or to reach his office at an appointed hour. What then is the pedestrian's right—if, indeed, he has any rights? The question is important, since, after all, pedestrians still form a majority of the population. It is important because the death-toll of the roads is growing at a dreadful rate, and because, while most motorists are decent citizens, a minority of them is arrogant or unskilled. The "road hog" who believes—not without some excuse—that a shrieking horn puts him always in the right is a public danger. We hope that, in addition to its severe penalties for reckless or incompetent driving, the Free State Government's long-promised traffic bill will answer Sir Thomas Myles's question. Hitherto such legislation in these islands has not defined the pedestrian's rights. If they exist at all, they must be inferred negatively from the restrictions and penalties which the law ordains for motorists. The new bill ought to define positively and with absolute clearness the pedestrian's rights to the use of the streets and roads. We do not suggest that it ought to transmogrify him suddenly from a hunted slave to a despot. There are reckless pedestrians as well as reckless motorists, and the bill ought to punish both with an equal hand.

Civic Affairs.

The new City Council of Dublin will be composed of thirty-five seats, of which five will be allotted to the commercial register. Every Dublin business man on that register will have a vote for one of these prescriptive seats. In addition, he will be entitled to cast another vote in his own ward for a "popular" candidate. The National Business Men's Association has been constituted to guide his judgment in regard to this second vote, and it has chosen to effect its purpose by the selection of certain candidates as its official nominees. At a meeting of supporters last night these candidates outlined the Association's ideals. They are pledged to dissociate municipal politics, as far as may be possible, from national politics. Recognising the immense harm that local affairs can suffer from an admixture of party dissension, we hasten to recommend this candidature to the notice of every Dublin business man. The ideal is difficult of accomplishment, since party politics are wont to intrude themselves uninvited into almost every type of discussion; but an honest attempt to discharge the city's business without taint of the legislative chamber is bound to do a great deal of good, and the influence of a solid element united by such singleness of purpose eventually must leaven the whole administrative lump. Many problems await the new Council—problems sufficient to occupy its time to the full. It must live up to the high standard of local government which the City Commissioners have set in recent years. Its first—indeed, its only—concern is to ensure Dublin's prosperity and sound administration. The task is large and difficult, and partisan squabbles will have no effect save to hinder its fulfilment.

Midget Golf.

Supercilious "scratch" men do not take kindly to midget golf, the latest craze which has reached Europe from the Occident. They say that it bears much the same relation to real golf as "blow football" bears to real football, and as manœuvres with toy soldiers bear to the game of war. There is a strong element of truth in their indictment, but—lusty "he-men" as they are—they have not taken trouble to analyse the reasons why midget golf has taken two hemispheres by storm. In the first place, there is a pleasant sense of fellowship about the clientèle of the midget golf course, where a hundred devotees are herded together, and two players are not condemned to wander around in lonely fellowship. In the next place, the discomforts of real golf are lacking; there falls not hail nor rain nor any snow, and the chance of collision with a ball driven from an unseen tee is negligible. The principal reason, however, we conceive to be as follows: The new pastime is a symptom of the process vulgarly called "democratisation"; in a word, it is a levelling influence. On the links the mighty hitter, opening his shoulders, can smite a ball far beyond the distance attained by his companion less gifted by nature; but the unusual hazards of midget golf offer no advantage to the man of brawn. Mr. Jones, whose club handicap is 18, stands as good a chance of proficiency as Mr. Smith, whose drives from the open-air tee are seldom less than three hundred yards long. On the midget course brain is a more vital factor than brawn, and in this respect the new game is comparable with cricket, modern warfare and the activities of the League of Nations.

COURT AND PERSONAL.

The Prince of Wales will be the guest of honour at the banquet and ball which will take place in London on October 12th, in celebration of the Fieste de la Raza. The Spanish Ambassador and the South American Ambassador and Ministers in London will be present, and Madame de Bettencourt, wife of the President of the Centro Espanol, will receive the guests.

Princess Mary will visit Leeds early next month, and will inspect the exhibition of handicrafts which is being organised in the Training College at Beckett's Park, under the auspices of the Leeds Education Committee.

The Maharajah of Jaipur, who has been spending some time in London, has left for Marseilles, and will join the s.s. Kaisar-i-Hind to-day en route for Bombay. Lady Irwin is returning to India by the same steamer.

Lord Portman, who crossed to Ireland to see his horse run in the Irish St. Leger at the Curragh, has returned to England. Lord and Lady Ventry have returned to London from Scotland. The Countess Fitzwilliam has arrived at Coollattin Park from Yorkshire.

Lord Barnby and his sister, the Hon. Mrs. Campbell, will leave Southampton to-day in the s.s. Aquitania for New York. Other departures to-day for the United States and Canada will include Sir Hugh Turnbull and Sir James and Lady M'Kechnie. The British Commissioner in Canada, Sir William Clark, accompanied by Lady Clark and Miss Diana Clark, left Liverpool yesterday for Quebec. The Governor of Rhodesia, Sir James Crawford Maxwell, and Lady Crawford Maxwell left Southampton in the Castle liner Windsor Castle yesterday for South Africa.

The Hon. Frederick and Mrs. Sterling will return to the United States Legation, Dublin, to-day from America, where they have been paying visits for the past six weeks.

An Ice Carnival and Gymkhana are being arranged in support of the appeal by the Marchioness of Londonderry and Lady Eleanor Keane for the National Council of Girls' Clubs. The Irish supporters of the movement include the Countess of Granard, the Countess of Huntingdon, the Countess of Bandon, Viscountess de Vesci, Lady Katharine Meade and Lady Power.

If the weather is fine to-day, a large attendance is expected at the Alexandra College, Dublin, where the gardens will be on view in aid of the District Nurses, Fund.

Major-General Sir William Hickie leaves Cobh in the Scythia to-morrow for Boston, where he is to attend the Convention of the American Legion as their guest. He will be absent from Ireland till the end of October. Letters will not be forwarded.

The marriage arranged between Wilfred Charles Rawle, only son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Rawle, Portstewart, and Clare Evelyn O'Sullivan, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. O'Sullivan, "Lindville," Mayfield road, Terenure, will take place quietly on the 1st October.

Dr. Stokes has left Dublin for ten days.

Dr J. M. Gilmor has returned to 88 St. Stephen's Green.

Mr. Harrison, L.D.S., has returned to 15 Westland Row.

Miss Eileen G. Buckley, A.R.C.M., has returned to 36 York road, Rathgar.

LONDON LETTER

THE ROUND-TABLE CONFERENCE.

59 FLEET STREET, LONDON,
FRIDAY NIGHT.

Arrangements are being made to ensure that the proceedings of the Indian Round Table Conference shall receive the fullest publicity. Some of the Princes who will represent the Indian States are already in England, but the majority of the delegates have arranged to sail from Bombay by the Kaisar-I-Hind on October 4th, and are expected to arrive in London about October 20th. The date of the Conference's opening meeting will depend upon the concluding day of the Imperial Conference, but it is anticipated that the delegates will begin their work about November 10th. The proceedings on the opening day will be public, and afterwards it is likely that the delegates will be split up into a number of committees. The Press arrangements will follow closely those of the Naval Conference. Special cabling facilities will be installed at St. James's Palace, so that the information available at the end of every day can be transmitted to all parts of the world without delay. There has been much speculation about the probable duration of the Conference, but this will depend largely on the measure of agreement among the delegates. In any case, it is unlikely to finish its task before Christmas.

Government Debt.

Rumours have been continuous during the week of a coming Government Debt Conversion Loan, mentioning particularly the Four per cent. tax-free War Loan. It is suggested that an exchange will be offered to holders of the 4½ per cent. Treasury Bonds, 1930-32, which are repayable at par at three months' notice. The Four per cent. Stock is mentioned in consequence of a belief that the Government wishes to see a reduction in the amount of a loan, the interest upon which is paid without deduction of tax. It scarcely can be contended that the Exchequer loses revenue in connection with this Loan, but, if this should be the case, there must be a very much bigger loss from the Five per cent. issue. The outstanding amount of the Five per cent. War Loan exceeds two thousand millions, and it is estimated that people resident abroad hold at least a quarter of this sum, and, possibly, a great deal more. On account of the exceptional privilege attached to this Loan it is believed that the Treasury loses a considerable amount of revenue every year, and it would be a great advantage if a substantial proportion of the Loan could be replaced by a security bearing interest subject to deduction of income-tax. It is unlikely, however, that any terms except the most favourable will induce the foreign holder to exchange.

The Chinese Market.

The economic mission to the Far East, headed by Sir Ernest Thompson, left England to-day on the Macedonia. The mission will inquire into the present condition of British trade with Japan and China, and hopes to find means to improve that trade. With the mission sail cotton and other experts and representatives of the trade union movement. The mission is proceeding first to Japan, and is looking forward with great interest to the visit. From Japan it will advance to China, arriving there at the end of November. It is curious that, notwithstanding the disturbed conditions, China's trade continues to increase year after year. Her import trade has almost doubled in value since 1913 and in 1928 it amounted to not less than £176,000,000. At one time this country had a predominant place in the Chinese market, but the position has been lost. Our proportionate share of China's trade has fallen to about one-half of what it was in 1913, whereas the shares of our principal competitors have risen by leaps and bounds. Sir Ernest Thompson, the leader of the mission, said to-day: "It is essential for British industry that we should find out why we are failing in this market, in what respects our competitors are meeting more closely than we are the requirements of China, and what steps we must take to bring to the consumers in China the goods they want."

Roses.

The unfavourable weather of recent weeks was responsible for a falling off in the quantity and quality of the exhibits at the National Rose Society's Autumn Show, held to-day at the Horticultural Hall, Westminster. Only one gold medal was awarded, and it went to an English grower, Mr. Chaplin, for a very beautiful crimson bloom named W. E. Chaplin, which has taken eight years to reach perfection. It is, however, one of the sturdiest in growth. Another new rose named "Delightful" came from Ireland, and was shown by Messrs. S. McGredy, of Portadown. It has a pale yellow centre and deep pink outer petals. This bloom received a certificate of merit. The Clay Cup was awarded to a beautifully-scented rose of a delicate apricot shade named "Barbara Richards." Messrs. McGredy took the first prize for a magnificent display of sixty distinct varieties, including a rose so darkly red that it appeared to be black.

Industrial Insurance.

The remarkable development of industrial insurance—the term applied to policies for which payment is made weekly—is disclosed by the report of the Industrial Insurance Commissioner for 1929, which was issued to-day. The latest figures available are those for 1928, and sixteen industrial assurance companies and 156 collecting societies made returns. These figures show that the premiums on industrial policies collected during 1928 amounted to £50,450,000, and that £12,050,000 accrued as interest on investments. Income from miscellaneous sources amounted to £100,000, and brought the total income for the year to £62,600,000. Of this amount £24,950,000 was disbursed in claims and surrenders; £17,150,000 in management expenses, and £4,350,000 in dividends to shareholders and in miscellaneous expenditure. The remaining £16,150,000 was added to the assurance funds. The total number of industrial assurances in force at the end of 1928 was 74,400,000, and the aggregate sum assured was about £1,137,000.

Arsenic.

Dr. A. Wotherspoon, who, as Medical Officer of Health for Stoke-on-Trent, helped to trace the arsenic-infected sweets recently distributed from a factory in the Potteries, writes to the British Medical Journal to point out the necessity for closer control over all premises where food or sweets are manufactured. He contends that notification of the beginning of a business for the manufacture of sweets or other kinds of food ought to be made to the authorities; and another matter that calls for attention is the ease with which large quantities of arsenic can be purchased from manufacturers, over the sale of which the police have no control. Dr. Wotherspoon adds that such a deadly poison should never be let out of control, and suggests that the attention of the Home Office ought to be called to the situation.

RUMANIAN PARLIAMENT.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

BUCHAREST, Friday.

The opening of Parliament has been postponed from October 15 to November 15, to permit the presence of M. Maniu, the Prime Minister, who is making a trip abroad.

A LEGACY OF THE ARCTIC WASTES.

ANDREE'S DIARY OF THIRTY-THREE YEARS AGO.

MYSTERY OF ILL-FATED BALLOONISTS.

WEEKS OF WANDERING AMONG THE ICE.

EXTRACTS are published to-day from the diary of Andrée, the Swedish engineer, who set out from Spitzbergen in July, 1897, to reach the North Pole by balloon, and whose body was recently discovered with those of his two companions.

It is not quite clear from the diary why the explorers abandoned the balloon altogether on July 14th, 1897, though it is apparent that for some time previously the craft was overweighted, owing to wet weather and hoar frost, with the result that the gondola was repeatedly dragged and jolted over the ice, completely exhausting the inmates.

The leader of the expedition made elaborate entries, ranging from astronomical observations, chronometrical readings and meteorological facts to descriptions of birds and notes on the drift of the ice. For most people, however, the paramount interest of the diary lies in its revelation of the gallant manner in which the three men battled against incalculable hardships and difficulties.

Andrée throughout displays solicitude for the younger men, and the last entry, dated 2nd October, 1897, ends with a tribute to them and an expression of undaunted confidence:—"With such companions everything will go on all right in almost any circumstances."

COLD, HUNGRY—BUT UNDAUNTED.

From Reuter's Correspondent.
STOCKHOLM, Friday.

The Committee of Legal Experts consulted by the Swedish Government on the question of the ownership of the Andrée relics, which were discovered at Kvito (White) Island, decided, after examining the diaries, that the Swedish law of copyright must apply in the circumstances. Consequently, more than thirty years having gone by since the diaries were written, the copyright has lapsed, and anyone is at liberty to publish their contents.

According to the report drawn up by the Committee composed of the two Professors, Messrs. Gunnar Andersson and Ahlmann, the diary of Dr. Andrée was most carefully compiled. It consists of 142 pages, and, thanks to its numerous observations and reflections, it constitutes a most remarkable human and scientific document.

The contents cover a variety of subjects, ranging from astronomical observations, chronometrical readings and meteorological facts, to descriptions of birds observed by members of the expedition, and repeated observations about the drift of the ice, with detailed descriptions.

Interspersed among the facts are numerous humorous remarks, which demonstrate the unbroken spirit of the three intrepid men. The diary shows the solicitude of a mature man for his younger companions, the leader invariably retaining his spirit of optimism, even in the most difficult situations.

FATE OF THE BALLOON.

The wet weather, ice and hoar frost evidently overweighted the balloon, with the result that the gondola was repeatedly dragged and jolted over the ice, completely exhausting the inmates.

An entry in the diary records that at seven o'clock on the evening of July 13th, 1897, a fire occurred in the balloon, but this fortunately was immediately extinguished. The reason why the balloon was emptied and landed the following day, when 83 degrees North and 30 degrees East, is, however, not quite clear from the diary, and the mystery will probably not be elucidated until all the recovered documents have been investigated and compared.

The last entry in the diary, which has reference to the voyage of the balloon itself, says:—"The balloon again rose, but both valves were then opened in preparation for a landing."

THE MARCH OVER THE ICE.

The subsequent entries describe, with admirable clarity, the ensuing march over the ice.

The following week—namely, from July 14th to 21st—was occupied in the organisation of the march over the ice with the sleigh and the selection of the equipment to be taken, and it was only on the afternoon of the 22nd that the march actually started.

The decisive problems that had to be confronted on the hazardous sleigh march are not discussed in the diary, which at this point confines itself to the narration of minor incidents. A certain amount of uncertainty is, therefore, left in the reader's mind regarding the direction and eventual goal of the sleigh journey.

An entry made in the diary on July 30th is the first to throw a new light upon the decision to bring the balloon voyage to a premature end.

Instead of directing their course towards the northern coast of Spitzbergen, where three provision dépôts had been prepared, the nearest one being on Seven Islands, the stranded men apparently planned to reach little-known regions over the drift ice.

CANVAS BOAT IN USE.

They therefore started in an easterly direction for regions north of Franz Josef Land, slowly wandering day after day in a constant struggle with the breaking ice and deep pools of fresh water, which they crossed with the help of the canvas boat.

The distance covered each day varied greatly, but the maximum covered in any one day did not exceed a few miles. Their astronomical observations indicate that the westward drift of the ice was beginning to overwhelm them.

Finally, on August 4th, after having reached a spot 82 degrees 17 minutes North and 22 degrees 43 minutes East, the little heroic band had to abandon their plan of penetrating further eastwards, and decided, with the aid of the drift of the ice, to proceed in a south-westerly direction in a belated attempt to reach Seven Islands, off Spitzbergen.

"WANDERING MEATSHOPS."

The provisions taken from the balloon proved to be totally insufficient, and consequently the fate of the distracted wanderers depended upon their chance kills of Polar bears—"the wandering meatshops of the Arctic," as Dr. Andrée calls them in his diary. With every successful "kill" the future prospects of the party brightened, but when the "wandering meatshops" failed to put in an appearance the most rigid economy had to be observed.

During the prolonged and wearisome trudge over the crumbling ice, first one and then another of the party fell into the pools of freshwater which dotted the surface and filled up the crevasses. Fraenkel and Strindberg both suffered periodically from diarrhœa and bruised feet, Fraenkel experiencing a particularly bad bout at one period, but his good spirits never failed him, and jokes continued to be plentiful, despite all the drudgery and fatigue of the journey.

DEVOTION TO SCIENCE.

Dr. Andrée continued conscientiously to fill page after page of his diary with scientific observations of the utmost interest. Among other things, he collected some twenty samples of clay, gravel, moss and driftwood, which he discovered on the ice and icefloes. One of the samples he dried on his bare chest.

Throughout the diary there are frequent entries showing Dr. Andrée's great solicitude for these specimens, which he believed might prove to be of great importance for the future study of the ice-drift in the Polar seas.

Slowly, but surely, the party approached the north coast of Spitzbergen. On one or two occasions the weary and footsore trio had an opportunity to load the whole of their equipment on their small canvas boat, and they then were able to enjoy a few happy, restful hours rowing amidst the icefloes, at the same time gradually acquiring a great amount of skill in picking up any food available on or beneath the surface of the ice.

"BLOOD PANCAKE."

Fraenkel, for instance, was very skilful in preparing a so-called "blood pancake" as a substitute for bread, whilst Strindberg acquired a great reputation for making soup from alga (a kind of seaweed).

On arrival in shallower waters off the north coast of North Eastland (Spitzbergen) the icedrift began to change, rendering it impossible to reach the desired goal of Seven Islands. Between September 12th and 17th the ice drifted over one hundred kilometres in an east-south-east direction, and the cold gradually became worse and worse.

The three marooned men decided to make preparations for spending the winter on a suitable "ice-float," all working eagerly on the construction of an "ice-cot." On the 17th September Giles Land (White Island), which is referred to in the diary as "New Iceland," is sighted, the first land seen since July 11th.

GOOD FORTUNE—AND BAD.

The following day the party killed their first seal, and the following day three more seals, and on the 20th a bear.

As a result of this stroke of good fortune Dr. Andrée estimates that the little band will have a sufficient supply of food to last them until April.

A week later they moved into their ice cabin, which they christened "The Home," but on the morning of October 2nd they were suddenly awakened by a thunderous noise, the ice floe on which they had taken up their quarters having split in twain and shattered their little "ice-cot."

As a result of this fresh misfortune their equipment and provisions drifted about on various ice-floes, until heroically rescued by the members of the party plunging into the icy water.

In the midst of this predicament the diary comes to a sudden end with the following entry: "With such companions everything will go on all right in almost any circumstances."

DECIPHERING THE DIARY.

In the preamble of the report presented to the Government summarising Dr. Andrée's diary, the experts declare that the first six pages of the diary have been damaged to such an extent that the work of deciphering has been rendered very difficult, if not impossible. The summary now published is based upon copies received from Tromsoe.

A supplementary official communique probably will be published as soon as the Professors who have been despatched to Tromsoe as experts have returned to Stockholm. The documents, which have been summarised to date, end on October 2nd, 1897.

THE PRINCE IN PARIS.

FLIGHT FROM LE TOUQUET.

From Reuter's Correspondent.
PARIS, Friday.

The Prince of Wales, travelling incognito, left Berck Aerodrome at 3.50 p.m. for Le Bourget on his private aeroplane, which was piloted by Captain Fielden, and had been brought specially from London. The Prince is expected to make a stay of several days in Paris. His visit will be of a purely private nature. He arrived at Le Bourget at four minutes past five o'clock. He had had a rough journey owing to very bad weather, but looked very well. He was greeted by M. Rendoise and by M. Girardot, in charge of the air port, with whom he talked for a few minutes before entering the car which was to take him to Paris.

It is understood at Le Bourget that the Prince will leave on Tuesday by air.

The Prince of Wales reached the hotel in Paris where he is staying just before six o'clock.

Brigadier-General Trotter made the journey to Paris by train.

Although the Prince's intention to visit Paris had not been publicly announced, the news of his arrival went round the hotel in a twinkling, and before he reached the lift to go to his suite a large number of guests had taken up discreet points of vantage to see him.

A message from Le Touquet states that the Prince intends to go from Paris to the South of France.

PRESENT OF TEA FOR THE POPE.

From Reuter's Correspondent.
VATICAN CITY, Friday.

The Pope to-day granted a private audience to Mudaliyar John Rodrigo, of Colombo, a fervent Catholic, and a generous benefactor to the missions in Ceylon, who offered the Pontiff a magnificent ivory casket and a large case of tea, gifts which were much appreciated by His Holiness.

PROTECTION AND PROSPERITY.

NEEDS OF BRITISH INDUSTRY.

SIR WILLIAM MORRIS AND SAFEGUARDING.

Sir William Morris, Chairman of the proposed National Council of Industry and Commerce, last night discussed the subject with a Press Association reporter. The new Council is to be set up by a body of leading British industrialists.

We have in England the best workmen in the world, Sir William said. They are screaming for a leader. During the past decade we have suffered from a system of government that has not helped, but has hampered, industry. Post-war and pre-war business conditions differ enormously; yet the Government is still "run" on the lines of the old political shibboleths, which continue because the leaders think of party matters first and business afterwards.

The aim of the National Council of Industry and Commerce is to emphasise the necessity for the Government of this country to be "run" on business lines.

"THE CRYING NEED."

The British workman is tired of futile politics. At heart he is not socialistic or communistic, and the old partisanship has gone by the board. The crying need of the British workman to-day is for employment and wages—not the dole—and it is impossible for an article manufactured by the foreigner to find employment or wages for British labour. The obvious answer is protection, and I for one shall not be satisfied until a full measure of safeguarding is given to every one of our industries that is suffering from competition from imported manufactured goods and the awful bogey of unemployment is thus stamped out.

Protection does not lead to high prices. The motor car industry, for one, gives proof of that fact. We must import less manufactured goods and create productive work in our own country, which can only be done by the introduction of a proper fiscal system of protection.

Cheap production, by which is meant highly organised and intensively operated methods of production, automatically leads to high wages, and there is no doubt in my mind that a properly organised system of protection would lead to an increase in the average rate of British workmen's wages, besides employing more men, and ultimately producing cheaper goods for home and export. The motor car industry, again, is an example of this basic truth

LABOUR'S SWING ROUND.

One of the most potent events which has taken place recently has been the swing-over of the Trade Union Congress towards the policy of protection. The days of free trade are gone. We have had ten years of floundering in the mire of political mismanagement, and the National Council of Industry and Commerce is about to be formed in an endeavour to prove that this country must be run on business lines if it is again to be prosperous. In Britain we have the finest materials in the world. Our populace is capable of working enthusiastically and efficiently. They are sportsmen to a degree, and, given sound leadership and freed from the fog of party politics, could turn the present state of depression into a boom that would see Britain once again in a pre-eminent position in the world.

A THOUSAND-TON PAPER MILL.

HEARST INTERESTS IN CANADA.

From Reuter's Correspondent.
ST. JOHN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND, Friday.

Mr. Frank W. Clarke, Vice-President of the Canada Power and Paper Corporation and the Anglo-Canadian Pulp Paper Mills, Ltd., has issued a statement here to-day in regard to an important newsprint "deal."

It appears that arrangements have been made with the Hearst newspaper interests in the United States, involving the acquisition by the Hearst organisation of a stock interest in the Canadian Power and Paper Corporation, which acquires a substantial interest in the Dominion Newsprint Company, Limited, the subsidiary company which is negotiating on behalf of the Hearst organisation for the acquisition of water-power rights and timber limits in Newfoundland, adequate to the requirements of a thousand-ton paper-mill.

The announcement follows closely on reports of the making of similar arrangements between the Canada Power and Paper Corporation and the Rothermere newspaper interests in Great Britain.

Mr. Clarke stated that this union of interests involved the adoption by the Hearst organisation of a policy in respect of their supplies of newsprint paper similar to that adopted some time ago by the New York Times, the Chicago Tribune and the New York Daily News in the United States, and by the Rothermere interests in Great Britain.

The Executive of the Government meets to-night to give its decision as to the erection of a thousand-ton paper mill on the Gander River. It is estimated that the proposed mill would bring to the country a revenue of two million dollars per annum.

GAME PROTECTION ACT.

PARTRIDGES NOT TO BE KILLED.

Mr. Edward White and Mr. B. J. Newcombe, Chairman and Secretary, respectively, of the Irish Game Protection Association, were received yesterday at Government Buildings, Dublin, by the Free State Minister for Justice (Mr. FitzGerald-Kenney).

They had come as a deputation to request the Minister to give effect to the resolution which the Association, supported by other Game Associations, has passed unanimously in favour of an Order to prevent the killing of partridges in the Free State for a period of one year.

The Minister promised to make the Order asked for, and that it should remain in force for one year.

It is understood that the Order will come into force immediately.

FORCED LABOUR IN RUSSIA.

182,000 MEN MOBILISED BY GOVERNMENT.

From Reuter's Correspondent.
RIGA, Friday.

The Soviet Government has ordered the mobilisation of 182,000 labourers for service on the "timber front." The measure has been necessitated partly by the widespread desertions of forced labourers, especially in the Archangel region, where, during the last few months, more than seventy-five per cent. have deserted from the labour gangs. The Government is now working out a new programme with regard to the export of timber for its great new "dumping" campaign in the spring and summer.

DEPRESSION IN WORLD TRADE.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS AND "DUMPING."

BRITISH PLEA FOR DISARMAMENT.

ELEVEN YEARS OF WAITING.

From Reuter's Correspondent.
GENEVA, Friday.

A warning that it was imperative that the League should tackle the grave economic position resulting from world trade depression was uttered at this morning's meeting of the Second Committee, when the Scandinavian proposal for an international inquiry into the interpretation of the most favoured nation clause was considered, and the Danish and other delegates stressed the necessity of dealing with problems of over-production and rationalisation.

The Swedish delegate pleaded for international action to check "dumping" arising from the export bounty system, particularly the "dumping" of agricultural produce, from which Sweden was suffering seriously.

The Indian delegate, Sir J. C. Coyajee, referring to the resolution which he presented this morning asking for a thorough examination of the economic situation, declared that India was vitally interested in the solution of the problem of agricultural depression, but the question must be tackled on general lines, and not merely from a European standpoint.

PENAL ADMINISTRATION REFORM.

The Fifth Committee to-day adopted a resolution based on the proposals made yesterday by Miss Susan Lawrence for establishing co-operation between the League and the nations with regard to improvements in penal administration and the standard minimum rules for the treatment of prisoners drafted by the International Prison Commission.

These rules are to be communicated to all the Governments, and the Secretary-General of the League will submit a further report on the question to the next Assembly.

LEAGUE'S MOST URGENT TASK.

THE EXPENDITURE ON ARMAMENTS.

From Reuter's Correspondent.
GENEVA, Friday Afternoon.

The Budget Committee of the League to-day appointed M. Philippe Roy (Canada) Rapporteur to the Assembly.

Various items of the estimates were adopted at to-day's meeting.

Dr. Dalton (Great Britain) made an important statement in connection with the item for provision for the work of disarmament. Britain, he said, regarded the work of disarmament as the most important and most urgent of all the tasks awaiting the League, and he hoped that the sums allotted to the work of disarmament were adequate. The expenditure of the nations of the world on armaments in a single year would pay for all the League's work for six hundred years.

He hoped that the Committee would agree with him that the most promising way of reducing the burdens of the peoples was by endeavouring to make a success of the Disarmament Conference, for which they had waited eleven years.

The Italian and Dutch members associated themselves with Mr. Dalton's remarks.

The Committee adopted the Budget of the Labour Office, which was the same as that for last year.

VICTIMS OF AGGRESSION.

The Third Committee of the League, dealing with the limitation of armaments this afternoon, continued the discussion of the amendments to Articles of the Draft Convention dealing with financial aid to States victims of aggression.

The Committee, on the proposal of Lord Cecil, fixed December 31st, 1931, as the date limit for adhering to the Convention.

An article, No. 15, was added to the Convention with the object of enabling the League Council to suspend at any moment payment, in whole or in part, of loans to a borrowing Government, should the Council consider such a measure necessary owing to the attitude of such Government after financial assistance had been granted to it.

THE TREATMENT OF MINORITIES.

M. BRIAND AND A PERMANENT COMMITTEE.

From Reuter's Correspondent.
GENEVA, Friday Evening.

The question of improving the procedure of the Secretariat in dealing with petitions from minorities formed the subject of an important discussion at the Sixth Committee Assembly at the League this morning.

The debate rose to a high level of frank and friendly exposition of the views of the representatives of European countries interested in the treatment of minorities. The German, Austrian, Albanian, Japanese, French, Czechoslovakian and Rumanian members took part in the debate.

The German representative made a long statement, in which he furnished a historical sketch of the minorities problem, for the treatment of which the League is responsible. He contended that the subject should be dealt with more fully in the annual report of the Secretariat, as the Republic was anxious for information of the League's activity in that direction. There had been an improvement in the League's procedure and treatment of the question in the last fifteen months, he said. He proposed that petitions from minorities should be sent to all members of the League Council and greater publicity given to them. The minority problem was a European problem, and improvement in its treatment by the League would conduce to good relations between the nations, which did not only rest upon the removal of Customs barriers.

A PERMANENT COMMITTEE?

The Austrian member of the Committee associated himself with the remarks of the German member, and added that national excitement among minorities was a danger to peace and should be removed.

The Albanian delegate proposed that a permanent committee be set up to deal with the protection of minorities.

The Japanese delegate drew attention to the difficult nature of the problem. "It is necessary," he said, "to harmonise the rights of minorities with the rights of sovereignty of those States including minorities."

STATEMENT BY M. BRIAND.

Mr. Briand followed with an important statement, in the course of which he objected to the establishment of a special committee, and added that time was necessary to see if the new procedure for dealing with minority petitions, which had been unanimously adopted at the Council held at Madrid last year, had proved a success.

M. Benes declared that Czechoslovakia was firmly resolved to carry out her obligations under the minority treaty, to the extension of which, however, his country could not agree.

Count Apponyi, who followed, said that Hungary could not disinterest herself in

GALE AND RAINS.

LIFEBOAT RESCUE AT WICKLOW.

FOUR FISHERMEN BROUGHT ASHORE.

Early yesterday morning four fishermen left Wicklow in a rowing skiff owned by a man named Byrne. They were bound for local fishing grounds and set out with the intention of hauling in their lines.

The wind, which was of gale force, coupled with a high sea, which was on the ebb, prevented them from getting back to the harbour.

After some hours, and, as no sign of the boat could be seen from the shore, the Coast Life-Saving Service officials fired a signal rocket, and in a few minutes the lifeboat crew had assembled, and the motor lifeboat was launched.

After a severe buffeting by the storm the lifeboat succeeded in locating the missing boat, and with some difficulty managed to bring crew and boat back to port.

Meanwhile the Greystones Coast Life-Saving Service officials, who had been warned that the boat might be driven northward by the gale were standing by. A good deal of excitement was caused along the coast villages when it was first learned that the boat was missing. The four men were completely exhausted by their efforts to gain the land.

A portion of their fishing gear has been lost.

ELECTRIC CABLE BLOWN DOWN.

BOY'S DEATH AT TRAMORE.

During a storm of wind and rain which passed over the County Waterford on Thursday night an overhead electric wire was blown down at Tramore.

Yesterday morning the three children of Mr. Thomas Casey, clerk to the Mental Hospital Committee of Management, left their home at Eaton terrace for school in charge of a maid. One of the children, Thomas, aged five, accidentally touched the wire, which was hanging from a wall, and received a severe shock. The maid went to his assistance, and, although she also received a shock, she got the child away from the wire and brought him to the house of Mr. Deevy, where he died a short time later.

HEAVY RAIN IN DUBLIN.

ROADS FLOODED.

In Dublin yesterday there were heavy showers during the day, accompanied by a rather cold breeze.

Flooding occurred in the forenoon, with the result that tram services were dislocated temporarily, and people were delayed in getting in to their business in the city.

At about mid-day the weather improved somewhat for a few hours, but towards three o'clock rain again fell heavily and continued until well after midnight. The rain was particularly heavy just as the crowds were leaving the cinemas and theatres.

STORM IN COUNTY CORK.

FLOODS IN BANTRY.

A storm of rain and wind swept over the Bantry district on Thursday night. It was the worst storm of the kind experienced for some time. The town was flooded, and the occupants of several houses worked hard during the night to keep the water from flooding their homes.

Some roads in the locality were torn up, and crops were damaged.

The storm visited Youghal early yesterday morning and lasted until 9 a.m. The barometer showed the remarkable fall of nearly an inch to 28.80. With a change of wind the weather cleared for a couple of hours, when it began to blow again, and rain fell heavily.

STORM DAMAGE IN GREAT BRITAIN.

CROPS WASHED AWAY IN WALES.

A severe gale, accompanied by heavy rain, raged over North Wales yesterday and caused much damage by flooding. Low-lying houses in the Vale of Llangollen, Denbighshire, were inundated, and fruit crops and corn were washed from hillsides into streams, which became raging torrents.

Barmouth felt the full force of the storm, and nearly all the pleasure boats in the harbour were sunk. A number of motor-boats, which also broke loose from their moorings, were badly damaged.

Owing to the gale, more than one hundred men employed on sea defence works had to cease work.

The Severn and other rivers were heavily swollen last night.

BEACH HUTS LOST.

A terrific gale, with heavy rainstorms, swept Bournemouth from the south-west last night and beach huts and tents suffered badly. At Southbourne about 100 beach tents and huts were destroyed by the sea, and the water near the short was strewn with wreckage.

At Branksome Chine, west of Bournemouth, last night the sea was right up to the cliffs and had swept the beach almost clear of huts and tents. All sorts of débris was floating about. Severe damage was also done to the huts and tents along other parts of the shore.

Tent owners at Bournemouth received urgent messages from the beach officials and went down to secure their property.

The heavy seas breaking over Bournemouth and Boscombe Piers, and over the Undercliff Drive about 11 p.m. last night provided a thrilling sight. Telephone communication in the district was also seriously interfered with, several hundred local lines being reported down.

THREE DAYS' RAIN.

HARVEST RUINED IN EAST SCOTLAND.

The rainstorm in the East of Scotland continued during most of yesterday—its third day. Almost all hope has now been abandoned by farmers of securing hundreds of fields of cut corn, the best of which is now so discoloured as to be unlikely to fetch even one-third of the normal market value.

In other cases corn is standing in several feet of water, and has been rendered unfit for any purpose.

CHANNEL SWIM ABANDONED.

Owing to wild weather Miss Mercedes Gleitze abandoned her attempt to swim from Dover to France yesterday.

Bad weather put an end to the manœuvres in Wiltshire yesterday. Nearly everybody was saturated.

SHANNON ACCIDENT.

STEAMER DAMAGED.

A Lloyd's message states that the steamer, Kerry Head, stranded on Hard Rock, about eight miles from Limerick, when proceeding up the Shannon yesterday. Although making water, she was able to reach Limerick with her own pump.

The vessel is now discharging, and intends to dry-dock at Limerick for examination.

LATE NEWS.

BY SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT WITH "THE TIMES."

THE BURDEN OF UNEMPLOYMENT.

A GOVERNMENT'S FIRST TASK.

The Times, in a leading article to-day, says:—The conference between the representatives of the Liberal Party and the Government on the problem of unemployment has so far produced no practical result. Our Political Correspondent reported a fortnight ago that the Socialist representatives had asked the Liberals—a full month after the conference had started—how Mr. Lloyd George had been able to promise to reduce unemployment to normal within a year without adding a penny to local or national taxation. The answer is presumably still the same as it was when the promise was made—namely, that the miracle is to be worked by a loan of a few hundred millions, and it is not likely to appeal to a Government which has already discarded Sir Oswald Mosley for making much the same suggestion. If, therefore, as would appear to be the case, the conference is short of promising suggestions, it would do well to turn its attention to the possibilities of economy rather than to the possibilities of expenditure.

The first task of the Government is to teach the people that a better chance of work is preferable to a better chance of the dole. If it be true that public economy is the best way to restore industrial confidence and thus to increase the volume of employment, they should begin this task by studying what economies are possible. There are two ways of making the burden lighter, the first being an actual reduction of expenditure, and the second being the raising of money by means less onerous to industry. The opportunities for both are not so small as may appear from the facts that the service of the debt takes £355,000,000, that the social services require on an average slightly more, and that the actual total cost of administration is only between £40,000,000 and £50,000,000 a year. Good credit for short-term loans is not the same, as Mr. Snowden has discovered, as the credit required for successful conversions, which must be based on public confidence in the soundness of the Government's policy. But if that confidence can be created, as it would be by the resolute pursuit of economy, the time would become favourable for effecting by conversion a saving in interest charges, and it would then be time to consider whether the scheme of a fixed debt charge should be allowed to stand.

OTHER SUGGESTIONS.

Again, the cost of the social services varies widely according to the spirit of administration and to the prosperity or depression of trade. Finally, there is the question whether some part of public expenditure cannot be met from fiscal sources. It is stated that Mr. H. D. Henderson, the well-known Liberal, who was appointed as one of the experts on the Economic Advisory Council, has suggested to the Government a tariff of ten per cent. upon all imports of manufactured articles. Such tariff might bring in between £20,000,000 and £25,000,000 a year, and produce a stimulating effect upon manufacturers and taxpayers not to be measured in terms of bare figures. These suggestions are not exhaustive, but, in conjunction with such evidence as the manifesto of the bankers last July, the report of the Associated Chambers of Commerce last week, and the letter of the conveners of a National Council of Industry yesterday, they are enough to dispel the illusion that the Government are a body of "good men struggling with adversity" to whom no alternative policy is open.

Ministers must by this time be aware that the nation is awaiting some action which will show that they mean to help industry to prosperity, and not to badger it into despair.

THE IMPERIAL CONFERENCE.

ENTERTAINMENT OF THE DELEGATES.

The Parliamentary Correspondent of The Times writes:—Although the detailed arrangements for the Imperial Conference, which will open on Tuesday week, have not yet been completed, a full list of engagements is being prepared. On October 3 there will be a dinner party given by Their Majesties at Buckingham Palace, and it is understood that an afternoon party will also be given by Their Majesties on October 29. The displays arranged by the three Services will be of special interest. War Office displays have been provisionally fixed for October 11 and 18, and it is understood that they will include a visit to the training centre at Chisledon. October 25 is the date of the air display, which will take place at Croydon, and will show the progress made on the civil, as well as the military, side of aviation Arrangements are being made for a visit to the Atlantic Fleet on November 1. It is proposed that the delegates should embark in a battleship at Portland, and spend about six hours at sea. Various exercises by the ships of the Fleet will be carried out.

Other engagements include a dinner by the Royal Empire Society on October 1; a dinner and reception by the Empire Marketing Board on October 8; a dinner by the Association of British Chambers of Commerce, the Federation of British Industries, and the United Kingdom Chambers of Shipping, on October 14; and the Empire Parliamentary Union dinner on October 31.

PEACE MOVE IN CHINA.

MANCHURIAN WAR LORD PROPOSES ARMISTICE.

From Reuter's Correspondent.
SHANGHAI, Friday.

It is stated in authoritative Chinese circles that Marshal Chang Hsuer-liang, the Manchurian War Lord, has telegraphed to General Chiang Kai-shek, President of the National Government; General Yen Hsi-shan, the head of the new Northern Government, and General Feng Yu-hsiang, the "Christian" General, demanding an immediate armistice. He proposes that during the negotiations the three leaders should maintain their status quo and should send representatives to an agreed place to discuss conditions of peace, to which the three leaders are to agree. The Manchurian War Lord threatens that, failing assent, he will take punitive measures against any dissident.

It is understood that both General Feng Yu-hsiang and General Yen Hsi-shan are agreeable to his terms. Manchurian troops yesterday entered Lwanchow, in the south-east of Chihli, the small Shansi garrison withdrawing in accordance with orders received from General Yen Hsi-shan.

It is also reported from Peking that the left wing leader there, Wang Ching-wei, the civil head of the Northern Coalition, left there this evening, and his departure is taken as marking the collapse of the Coalition.

THE MELBOURNE BANK ROBBERY.

FOUR PERSONS DETAINED.

From Reuter's Correspondent.
MELBOURNE, Friday.

It is announced that two men and two women have been detained in connection with the robbery at the Brunswick Branch of the Bank of New South Wales this morning, when the cashier was struck down and the thieves got away with £300. Portion of the proceeds has been recovered.

FOREIGN GRAIN AND BACON.

FARMERS CALL FOR TARIFFS.

PROHIBITION OF BUTTER IMPORTS.

THE BARLEY AND MAIZE MIXTURE PROPOSAL.

A conference, confined to appointed delegates and members of the Dail, from the counties of Louth, Kildare, Leix, Offaly, Carlow, Kilkenny, Wexford and Tipperary, was held yesterday in the Courthouse, Maryborough, under the auspices of the Irish Grain Growers' Association.

DELEGATES WELCOMED.

The Rev. J. M. Hayes, C.C., who presided at the outset, welcomed the delegates, who, he said, had their minds made up to help the country. The farmers were the most important people in Ireland, and unless something was done for them, the country was going to enter into chaos.

The agriculturists of the country should be their first claim, but, although other sections had their trade unions, and business men their organisations, the farmer was left out.

THE CHAIRMAN.

Mr. T. McCloskey (Cashel) then took the chair, and, in his address, said that it was now a year since a similar conference was held there to discuss a similar subject and to find ways and means of protecting the country and the farmers from the terrible economic effects of unnecessary imports of grain and corn products. A year ago they decided on a particular line of action, which was subsequently departed from by a delegation from the Executive Committee. Had the delegation not agreed to the course adopted, and had they re-summoned the conference, these matters might have ended differently.

It was only right to say that the conditions drawn up and signed in Leinster House on 23rd October last were not observed by the Government, in so far as a report not only was not submitted by Christmas, but was not submitted even yet. They looked on this as a distinct breach of faith.

UNPLOUGHED LAND.

What the result would have been if their scheme for adding home-grown grain to maize before sale had been adopted last winter they left to the judgment of the general public. It was reasonable, however, to suggest that, had it been adopted, there would not have been a fall of 64,000 acres in the ploughed area in the Free State.

No economist could look complacently at the inroads that were being made by foreign daily and Sunday publications into a field hitherto adequately covered by home papers. Irish national well-being was not the concern of foreign newspaper magnates, and in their hour of economic tribulation they might seek in vain for solace or aid in a Press whose avowed object was a still greater Irish circulation as the forerunner to a still greater Irish market for the goods of its advertisers. They committed foreign newspapers to the same category among the bars to national progress as foreign oats, foreign barley and foreign bacon, and unless they awoke to the danger, they surely would realise that the "pen is mightier than the sword," and that a pernicious foreign Press might succeed in a mission where statecraft and military despotism had failed.

GRAIN AND FLOUR IMPORTS.

Nobody in the Free State could advance a sound reason for the importation of oats for stock-feeding. They called for prohibition of all such imports. As regards barley, they preferred a duty to total prohibition of imports, as the latter might interfere with manufacturing methods. They pleaded for a tariff of 7s. 6d. a cwt. on malt. As regards maize, given 15 per cent. admixture the first year, there was no reason why the percentage admixture could not be increased year by year.

They were prepared to support a proposal to curtail flour imports if a system of wheat cultivation under contract was instituted either by legislation or by mutual agreement between the millers and the growers. The pig industry was being slowly and surely killed by the unrestricted imports of foreign bacon. These imports did not help to lower the cost of bacon, but helped to make Irish bacon dear by first making it scarce.

THE HOME MARKET.

They called for an import duty of not less than 10s. per cwt. on all bacon, hams, pigs' heads, lard and other pig products. The Association was considering the question of other unwanted imports, such as eggs, frozen and chilled beef, mutton and lamb, butter, cheese, condensed milk, etc.

Their general policy was to hold the home market for the home producer. The nation's slogan should be: "Produce all that you can, and import what you cannot."

GRAIN TRIBUNAL'S REPORT.

In the course of a report on behalf of the Committee of Deputies appointed last year to press for legislative action to give effect to a proposal to have 15 per cent. of home-grown grain added to maize products before sale, Mr. Aird, T.D., said that he, with the other members of the Committee, had on several occasions pressed for the report of the Grain Tribunal, but it had not arrived. While he had as great an interest in farming as anybody, and in barley particularly, he pointed out that to try to bring the price of barley up to the present price of maize, which was exceptionally low, would not improve the position to any great extent.

The price was now very low, and, in addition, they knew that wheat was to come in cheaper than it had been for the past forty years, and all these things were going to affect the price of produce generally in the country. How to improve the position beyond what they had already done he did not know. He was fully convinced that there was a lot in the admixture scheme, but he, with his colleagues, was not able to move the powers as quickly as they wished.

IMPORTED BACON.

He referred to the import of bacon, and said that the quantity of bacon that was imported should not be allowed into the country at all. He would be inclined to legislate to prohibit that import, because Irish bacon was the best in the world. He was sorry to say that the farmer was the person mainly responsible for that import. In the prohibition he would also include eggs. He was out to utilise the home market to the fullest extent, but it would, in his opinion, have to be done gradually.

The Chairman thanked Mr. Aird for his efforts, [illegible] that the Association was justified in expecting that the report would have been submitted to the country.

Mr. Aird—I quite agree.

THE CONSUMPTION OF HOME PRODUCTS.

Mr. Davin, T.D., said that from what he had seen in local papers he was regarded as a criminal in the dock, and he would like some substantiation of the charge made against him and his colleagues on the Committee of having "let the Association down."

Having detailed the circumstances which led to the setting up of the grain inquiry, he said that, in his opinion, the number of witnesses presented on behalf of the Association was too big, and responsibility for dragging the inquiry out to March 12th, when the public sittings concluded, rested with the Association. On the question of his report to the meeting, he pointed out that any report that he had to give was given in Leinster House last October, when the matter was discussed before the President and Minister for Agriculture.

He had no responsibility for the failure of the Government to tender the report. If there was any future before the country from the point of view of the prosperity of the farmer, it was only to come by building up the home market and educating the people into consuming what was produced here.

SECRETARY'S STATEMENT.

Mr. Bergin (hon. secretary), speaking with reference to the charge made against the Committee of Deputies, said that he, and not the Committee, had, at a recent meeting of county delegates, been charged with letting the Association down. He could assure Mr. Davin that, so far as he knew, no attack had been made on the Committee.

The statement that the Association had been let down by reason of the fact that the Committee had not reported back to the Association the altered arrangements for the investigation of the proposal for an admixture could scarcely be construed as an attack.

Mr. M. Hipwell said that President Cosgrave and Minister Hogan turned down the grain-growers' proposition. The Commission was only to put things back, and the result was that the farmers were let down, and shockingly let down.

THE BURDEN OF TAXATION.

Mr. Joseph Delaney, County Councillor, said that the farmers had been let down. Since the time of Union there never had been such a tax on the ratepayers of that county as at present. And why? Because of the coalition between parties. Pre-war the taxation of that county was £35,000; now it was £135,000, and yet the farmers were asked to compete with foreign markets.

The Chairman said that Mr. Davin's explanation was quite clear and satisfactory. The agreement to leave the matter to a tribunal was done in the best interests of the country, and nobody could be held blameworthy except the Government, which had failed to supply the report at the time that it promised to do so.

The Rev. Father Hayes said that it was the duty of the elected representatives to help the farmer, independent of party. The way to do that was to cultivate the home market. He felt that the Committee of Deputies had done what they thought best in the interests of the farmer. He hoped that they would all join to improve the lot of the farmer, so that the future would not be as hopeless as the past and the present.

THE RESOLUTION.

Mr. Hipwell proposed a resolution calling for the enactment by a special meeting of Dail Eireann of legislation to prohibit the entry of foreign oats; to impose a tariff of 5s. per cwt. on foreign barley and 7s. 6d. per cwt. on malt; 10s. per cwt. on foreign bacon, ham, pigs' heads, lard etc.; to make compulsory the labelling of meat with the country of origin; to prohibit the import of butter and condensed milk; and that this should be done at once.

Mr. Bulfin seconded.

The resolution was passed, the tariff sought on bacon being increased to 20s. per cwt.

PRESIDENT COSGRAVE'S LETTER.

A letter was received from President Cosgrave regretting his inability to attend the conference, and pointing out that an inquiry had been instituted into the grain position, and that until the report was received and considered no useful purpose would be served by discussion of the question by him.

THE ATTENDANCE.

Those present were:—

Tipperary—The Rev. J. M. Hayes, C.C., Templemore; T. McCluskey, Cashel; J. Quinn, Thurles; T. Maher, Lisdelan; T. Sweeney, Templetuohy; P. Darcy, Borrisokane; W. Maher, Thurlesbeg.

Offaly—E. Bulfin, Derrinlough; J. F. Bowes, Banagher; A. W. Fletcher, Belmont.

Leix—R. Hipwell, Coolsoe; J. Delaney, Maryborough; T. Gowing, do.; D. O'Connor, do.; L. Brady, Lalor's Mills.

Kildare—J. G. Yates, Athy; J. Ashmore, Mageney; J. J. Bergin, Athy.

The following deputies were also present—Messrs. W. P. Aird, W. Davin, P. J. Gorry and P. Boland.

ECONOMIC UNITY OF THE EMPIRE.

LORD DYNEVOR AND MR. BALDWIN.

Lord Dynevor, speaking at the annual Conference of the Wales and Monmouthshire Conservative and Unionist Council at Swansea yesterday, said that the Conservative policy as laid down by Mr. Baldwin was a clear and good one. They were for a close economic unity of the Empire.

"Do not be led away by other proposals put forward on this question," he said. "Never mind how powerful or important a newspaper may be that is putting them forward."

A resolution calling upon the leaders of the Conservative Party in London to use all possible means to bring about an amicable settlement on the question of the taxation of foodstuffs with the United Empire Party, added: "Otherwise we feel that at the general election we are bound to lose a number of safe seats, and certainly not win any doubtful ones."

An amendment moved by Mr. David Evans (Tonypandy) condemned the "wrecking" tactics of the United Empire Party, and gladly welcomed the stand made by Mr. Baldwin "against the dictatorship of Lord Rothermere."

The resolution was withdrawn, and the amendment agreed to.

SALMON FISHING ON THE SLANEY.

COMING SALE IN LONDON.

Clobemon Hall, Co. Wexford, will be offered by auction by Messrs. Knight, Frank and Rutley, at Hanover square, London, on 16th October. Included in the sale is two and a half miles of the best salmon fishing in the River Slaney, the average catch being 150 fish.

The estate, which covers some 150 acres, has an early Georgian residence, standing in a finely timbered park; while, in the old-world grounds, are trout and lily pools. There are also rich grazing lands and home farm, suitable for a model stud farm.

WHY SHAMROCK FAILED.

FRESH CHALLENGE DENIED.

PROPOSED TRIBUTE TO SIR. T. LIPTON.

From Reuter's Correspondent.
NEW YORK, Friday.

Mr. Vincent Astor, the Commodore of the New York Yacht Club, to-day denied that there was any fresh challenge for the America's Cup, either from Great Britain or any other country. He added that he did not see much likelihood of another challenger for a long while to come. Mr. Astor's statement has definitely laid at rest the rumours circulated in New York and Newport to-day that another British challenge had been received. "The New York Yacht Club," Mr. Astor said, "is in the most obliging and receptive mood, and is willing to oblige any comer, but there is simply none in sight." Incidentally Mr. Astor agreed that the mechanical gadgets with which Enterprise is equipped were probably largely responsible for her victory.

Unconfirmed reports received at Newport state that the next challenge for the America's Cup is expected from either Germany or Sweden.

A LOVING CUP.

From Reuter's Correspondent.
NEWPORT, RHODE ISLAND, Friday.

America's professional humourist, Will Rogers, has telegraphed to the New York Times, suggesting as a spontaneous expression of sympathy with Sir Thomas Lipton that contributions limited to one dollar each should be sent to Mayor Walker to buy a cup, just as good as the America's Cup, whereon should be inscribed: "To the world's most cheerful loser," and Mayor Walker has promised to carry out his part of the project.

The suggestion has been taken up enthusiastically by the rest of the New York papers, and already Mayor Walker is being deluged with dollar contributions, received by telegram, letter and messenger.

Mayor Walker offered to take charge of the fund and to receive contributions, and said that the receipts would be used to buy a loving cup for Sir Thomas from the American people.

U.S.A. AND COLONEL FITZMAURICE.

OBSTACLE TO LANDING AT NEW YORK.

From Reuter's Correspondent.
NEW YORK, Friday.

The first time that Colonel Fitzmaurice, of trans-Atlantic flight fame, landed on American soil he was greeted with acclamations, but to-day when he arrived here in the liner Reliance, he was refused admittance. The reason for this, it transpired, was that his passport was not in order.

Colonel Fitzmaurice has been in the United States since last year as a non-quota visitor, and his passport was extended until October 22nd, but the extension was automatically cancelled when he left a few weeks ago on a trip to Europe. The matter, however, was quickly adjusted to-day by the Special Immigration Board, who admitted the airman on parole on his own recognizances.

Colonel Fitzmaurice said to-day that he expected to become an American citizen within the next year.

Colonel Fitzmaurice, formerly Chief of the Irish Free State Army Air Force, it will be recalled, accompanied the German fliers, Captain Koehl and Baron von Huenefeld, on the East to West flight in April, 1928, in the German aeroplane Bremen, which started from Baldonnel Aerodrome, Dublin, and descended on Greenly Island, Labrador.

ROYAL WEDDING.

PRINCE LOUIS AND PRINCESS MARIE DE BROGLIE.

The wedding took place at Paddington Registry Office yesterday of Prince Louis Ferdinand d'Orleans-Bourbon and Princess Marie Charlotte Constance de Broglie.

The marriage of Prince Louis to Princess Marie de Broglie was reported to have taken place early in July this year in Paris, but the report was afterwards denied. Later in the month an application was made in the Paris courts for an injunction to restrain Princess Marie from marrying the Prince. The Princess's family sought to prevent the marriage, and the application was made by the Duc de Brissac, the Princess's nephew.

The court decided that, as nephew of the Princess, the Duke had no right to oppose her marriage. Although evidence had been submitted that the Princess was apparently incapable of managing her own affairs, she had produced three medical certificates attesting her "perfect health and sanity." The court was of opinion that a more complete examination was desirable, and three doctors were appointed to examine the Princess. It was also decided to maintain the appointment of the official administrator to look after the estate of the Princess for four months.

The Princess's counsel submitted that certain eccentricities of the Princess, such as her habit when taking a room in a hotel of engaging also the room on the floor above and a room on the floor below, and her passion for dogs, gamecocks, and donkeys, were perfectly innocent.

The counsel for the Duc de Brissac declared that the family considered that Prince Louis was a most unsuitable "parti." Moreover, counsel continued, the Princess was squandering her fortune, mortgaging her estates, and that only recently she tried to send most of her jewellery, valued at £240,000, to Prince Louis, who was then living in Italy. The Princess, before her marriage in 1875 to Prince Amedee de Broglie, was Mlle. Constance Nay, daughter of the French millionaire sugar refiner.

The marriage was then arranged to take place last month at Ventimiglia, but it was postponed. At the last moment, however, the Spanish Consul-General refused to furnish the necessary documents declaring the consent of the King of Spain. The Italian Procurator-General declared that the marriage, therefore, could not take place.

Princess Marie is the seventy-three-year-old widow of Prince Amedée de Broglie, and Prince Louis Infante of Spain is aged forty-one. The Prince is a cousin of King Alfonso.

WIRELESS "TAPPING" MADE FUTILE.

From Reuter's Correspondent.
THE HAGUE, Friday.

A remarkable wireless telephone conversation, in which the spoken words were transformed to such a degree as to be completely unintelligible to illicit listeners-in, and then retransformed on reception so as to be understood by the receiver, has been held between The Hague and the Dutch East Indies. In this system the transformation and retransformation of the words is done automatically, so that no alteration in apparatus or wires is necessary.

FEDERATED STATES OF EUROPE.

GERMAN GOVERNMENT AND THE NATIONALISTS.

From Reuter's Correspondent.
PARIS, Friday.

Regarding the conversation yesterday between M. Briand and Dr. Curtius, the representative of the Matin in Geneva states that the two foreign Ministers found themselves in agreement concerning the procedure to be adopted for the formation of a European Federation.

Both Ministers were of opinion that a committee should be appointed immediately to work in the intervals between the sessions of the Assembly.

Dr. Curtius urged that the most important duty was the discussion of economic problems, particularly agrarian matters.

Though there was no definite outcome of the meeting, Dr. Curtius, says the representative of the Matin, gave assurance of the intention of the German Government to remain in office and "face the music," and stated that it would not collaborate with the Nationalists in a Ministry, at least in the presnt circumstances.

NAVAL DISARMAMENT.

FRENCH CONVERSATIONS WITH ITALY.

From Reuter's Correspondent.
GENEVA, Friday.

French circles deny the report in the Italian Press that M. Briand will spend a few days on the French Riviera and may cruise along the Italian coast. In view, however, of the fact that it has been announced in Rome that Signor Grandi will not return to Geneva for the remainder of the session of the League Assembly, it is thought possible that M. Briand and Signor Grandi may meet later on somewhere on the Italian or French Riviera.

At present there is a lull in the Franco-Italian conversations over the naval difficulty, and there is no prospect at the time being of a three-Power meeting between Great Britain, France and Italy in connection with the same. There is a feeling, however, in French technical circles that whatever the outcome of the conversations with Italy may be, the session of the Preparatory Disarmament Commission in November will be final.

OBITUARY.

MAJOR-GENERAL SIR NEVILLE HOWSE, V.C.

Major-General Sir Neville Howse, V.C., died last night in a London nursing home. Sir Neville, who was a Minister for Health and Repatriation in the last Australian Government, underwent an operation on Sunday.

Sir Neville Howse, V.C.

Major-General the Hon Sir Neville Howse, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., V.C., was born at Stogursey, Somerset, on October 26, 1863. He was educated at Fulland's School, Taunton, and entered the London Hospital as a student in 1882, and took his diploma of M.R.C.S. (England) and L.R.C.P. (London) in 1885. He went to Australia in 1889, and practised at Taree, Manning River, until 1895, when he returned to England, devoting himself to surgery for four years.

GALLANTRY UNDER FIRE.

In 1899 he returned to Australia, and settled at Orange, New South Wales. After a few months he went to South Africa in the New South Wales Army Medical Corps. During the campaign he was mentioned in despatches and won the Victoria Cross. The London Gazette thus recorded the deed for which he won the V.C.:—

> "During the action at Vredefort on the 24th July, 1900, Captain Howse went out under a very heavy cross-fire and picked up a wounded man and carried him to a place of shelter."

When war broke out in 1914 he was promoted Lieutenant-Colonel and appointed Medical Officer of the Australian Naval and Military Expeditionary Force, and went to Rabaul. He returned from there in October of that year and sailed with the First Expeditionary Force.

At Gallipoli Landing he was appointed A.D.M.S. in December, 1914, and promoted Colonel. He was at the Gallipoli landing on April 25, 1915; appointed Deputy Director of Medical Services to the Australian and New Zealand Army Corps in September, 1915. After the Gallipoli evacuation he went to Egypt, was promoted Surgeon-General in December, 1915, and appointed Director of Medical Services, Australian Imperial Forces, a position which he held until the end of the war. Later he was attached to the Australian Imperial Forces Headquarters, London. He afterwards became Director-General of the Australian Medical Services and reached the rank of Major-General. In 1922 he entered the Australian Commonwealth Parliament as a Nationalist, and in January, 1925, he was appointed Minister for Finance and Minister for Health in Mr. Bruce's Cabinet. Later he became Minister for Health and Minister for Repatriation, and he held these posts until he was defeated at the general elections in Australia in 1929. Sir Neville was one of the Australian delegates at the Fourth Assembly of the League of Nations.

MR. WILLIAM McCLURE.

The death occurred at his residence, The Haven, Howth road, Clontarf, Dublin, yesterday, of Mr. William McClure, P.C., aged sixty-four years. A native of Dublin, the late Mr. McClure was for thirty years Secretary to the General Prisons Board, and served in that capacity in Dublin Castle. On the change of Government he elected to continue as Secretary to the Board under the Free State Government, and held the position up to a couple of years ago, when he retired on pension.

Mr. McClure, who was a Governor of St. Andrew's College, Dublin, and of the Merchant Taylors' School, was a member of the General Assembly, and took a keen interest in the affairs of the Presbyterian Church. His death will be deeply regretted by a large circle of friends and relatives.

James McAllister, a native of NEWRY, and a member of the crew of the steamer Abington, has been admitted to the County Hospital, Wexford, suffering from injuries which he received when he fell into the hold of the vessel while discharging cement at Wexford.

ATLANTIC FLEET MANŒUVRES.

READY FOR A GRIM ENCOUNTER.

TORPEDOES WHICH COST £200 EACH.

From Press Association's Special Correspondent on Board H.M.S. Warspite.
INVERGORDON, Friday.

On the broad waters of Cromarty Firth, most picturesque even of Scottish harbours, the chief warships of the Atlantic Fleet were to-day at moorings in readiness for the hottest work in the autumn exercises.

Since the Fleet left Portsmouth ten days ago it has carried out a stiff series of manœuvres and practices, but the climax has yet to come, for next week will see the Atlantic Fleet hard at it in deeds that will be the nearest possible peace-time approach to the real thing.

TEST OF SURPRISE.

Complete as naval discipline is, efficiency demands that the personnel of these grey guardians shall periodically be put to the test, and the devising of means by which crews can safely show their abilities with tremendous instruments of destruction is an aspect of naval science in which secrecy plays its part. Surprise can be the fiercest test. If you talk to officers and men of the Atlantic Fleet about next week's programme, you hear them cheerfully admit that they do not know all that is in store.

For this and other reasons, it is as yet possible to give only a very sketchy outline of the exercises to which the Fleet will be put. At present there is one of those spells of stand-by quietness. For a few days Jack will be at play and the opportunity is being seized for games ashore.

NIGHT DESTROYER ATTACK.

The week-end over, the fifth and sixth destroyer flotillas will arrive from Rosyth, and on Tuesday the curtain will go up on a daylight exercise of the Fleet, with naval aircraft from Novar to complete a grim picture of modern warfare. Afterwards will come a night destroyer attack.

The full range of these evolutions is a secret kept by the Commander-in-Chief of the Atlantic Fleet, Admiral Sir Michael Hodges. In Warspite, the Second Battle Squadron flagship of Rear-Admiral Little, predictions are scarce. "We shall all know when it comes," is a popular forecast.

Nelson, flagship of the Fleet, and her twin giant, Rodney, will have single ship firing, probably on Wednesday. The target ship Centurion is coming from Portsmouth to undergo yet another pounding. This ex-battleship, converted to the weird job of being fired at, has a crew of her own, but before a shot is fired they abandon her and go on board the Shikari, which controls the Centurion by wireless, while the big guns fire at her.

UNSINKABLE TARGET.

She has been made unsinkable, and after each of her gruellings her crew re-board her and do their best to make themselves at home again.

The fifteen-inch and sixteen-inch guns will have further work to do in combined gunnery and torpedo practices, and, later on, in target shoots. Individual performance seems likely to come last on the programme, a position often reserved for the finest "turn."

To say that Warspite gunners are confident is a commonplace. Like all other of the Navy's specialists, they do not talk about what they can do; they leave it to the results to show which is the best gunnery ship, and they seem quite sure that it will be theirs. Also, it is no use trying to get torpedo-men to brag.

BATTLE DAMAGE.

I have heard on shore that a night or two ago, when Warspite and Malaya were supposed to be warring ships, both were slowed down by battle damage. Warspite hit her enemy with a practice torpedo at four thousand yards, but the only information vouchsafed in Warspite herself is the regretful remark, "We have not recovered our torpedo yet."

A governing factor in deciding whether torpedo practice can or cannot be carried out is whether the sea-way allows a reasonable chance of recovering the torpedoes. Every 21-inch "Whitehead" costs over £200, and the Navy is economical.

To-night an east wind is whipping Cromarty Firth and there is a stinging rain, but weather forecasts for the manœuvres are not pessimistic.

MARTYRDOM OF SAINT JANUARIUS.

LIQUEFACTION OF BLOOD.

From Reuter's Correspondent.
NAPLES, Friday.

Thousands of people flocked to the Duomo this morning to witness the traditional miracle of the liquefying of the blood of St. Januarius, which is said to occur on the anniversary of his martyrdom, when his blood was gathered up and placed in two phials, where it has been preserved ever since. The miracle is reputed never to have failed, its efficacy being supposed to consist in the time it takes to accomplish.

The year before the war the liquefaction of the blood did not take place until after mid-day, and this was taken to indicate that a great calamity was approaching. To-day the Services commenced at eight in the morning, various offices being recited by the Bishops, while cries from the multitude resounded through the Cathedral invoking the miracle.

The blood became liquid at 8.43 a.m., and, amid joyful songs of thanksgiving, the saint's image was carried round the church in procession among the kneeling throng.

INDIAN CONSTITUTION

PLANS FOR ROUND-TABLE CONFERENCE.

Arrangements are being made to ensure that the proceedings of the Round Table Conference on India shall be given the fullest publicity.

Some of the Princes who are to represent the Indian States are already in England, but the majority of the delegates have arranged to sail from Bombay by the Kaiser-i-Hind on October 4. They are expected to arrive in London about October 20.

The date of the opening of the Conference will depend upon the concluding day of the Imperial Conference, but it is anticipated that the delegates will begin their work about November 10. The proceedings on the opening day will be public.

The Press arrangements will follow closely those of the last Naval Conference. Special cabling facilities are to be installed at St. James's Palace, so that the information available at the end of each day can be transmitted to all parts of the world without delay.

The Northern Ireland Ministry's Inspector, in his report on the working of the scheme of technical instruction in FERMANAGH during the school year 1929-30, states that for the first time since the inception of a technical instruction scheme in the county, the furtherance of home industries formed no part of the functions undertaken by the Committee. The circuit of the work was, therefore, narrowed, but only by the exclusion of a part that was no longer justified.

The netting of four thousand herrings off Costello Bay marked the opening of the season in Galway for the Claddagh fleet. Great destruction was done to the nets by dogfish, which are very prevalent among the herrings.

LESS TENSION IN GERMANY.

NEGOTIATIONS IN SECRET.

CABINET RESOLVED TO GOVERN.

From Reuter's Correspondent.
BERLIN, Friday.

"The National Socialist Party has become silent. It is going to remain so,' declares the Voelkische Beobachter, the principal newspaper of this party. It also denies categorically that Hitler's party ever thought of a fusion or a close co-operation with the German National Party, which, it says, got out of the election comparatively well, because many of the German Nationalist electors had confidence in the strength of National Socialism.

"We are a social revolutionary party," the journal insists, "whereas the German Nationals are social reactionaries. For this reason a fusion of the parties in the Reichstag is out of the question."

This statement, however, does not obscure the fact that both parties will always support one another in the Reichstag when an important issue is at stake there.

SECRET NEGOTIATIONS.

The political situation so far has not undergone any change. Negotiations are going on behind closed doors. The Bruening Cabinet is still confident of obtaining sufficient support for its Reform Bill, and a majority which declines a catastrophic foreign policy, and which is determined to maintain law and order at home, and to keep out of power the National Socialists.

The formation of a solid coalition in the eyes of the Centre Party is quite unnecessary. Chancellor Bruening, they say, holds a very strong position. He can rely on the support of his party, not only in the Reichstag, but also in the Prussian Diet.

It is doubtful whether, in view of the outcome of the Reichstag elections, the Social Democrats could risk a dissolution of the present Diet, and the Centre Party say that the Social Democrats could not do better than support the Bruening Cabinet, instead of having broken up the Government coalition in Prussia.

WHAT BAVARIA THINKS.

The excitement which three days ago still prevailed in Berlin has given way to more sober feelings now. Bavaria, which is giving hospitality to Hitler and his chief lieutenants, refuses to get excited, because it knows the capabilities of the Hitler party, and because, some years ago, it had the experience of a Hitler rebellion.

What Bavaria in general thinks of the National Socialists has been recently expressed in a Bavarian People's Party journal, which wrote: "We must not allow Germany to be delivered into the hands of such charlatans."

Political circles in Berlin deplore the fact that a large number of foreign journalists in Berlin are sending "inaccurate reports" of the political situation to the newspapers, which are causing excitement not only among the people, but also on foreign exchanges.

The appeal of the Prussian Prime Minister to form "a coalition of all who have common-sense," it is expected, will not be made in vain, and will bring together those parties which, despite their economic and social differences, are Republic at heart, recognise the need of the hour, and are willing to support a Government which is determined to lead Germany out of its present muddled state.

THE CABINET'S PLANS.

"To govern at the head of shifting majorities is apparently the intention of the Cabinet if all efforts to form a majority Cabinet should fail." This was the gist of a statement by a prominent member of the Government to-night.

After having decided that the paramount task of the Government is to put the financial affairs of the Reich in order, the Government feels that every phase of its financial reform programme will somehow command a majority. Thus, for the programme of relief for the East Prussian farmers, it counts on the support of the Nationalists; for the Unemployment and Sick Benefit Bills it considers that Socialist support is assured. In short, the Government will not shrink from going before the Reichstag as a minority Government if necessary, and will challenge the Reichstag to overthrow it.

Fears lest the Radicals of the Left and Right might lose patience and try to upset the Government by illegal means were pooh-poohed by the Government spokesman who emphasised that President von Hindenburg was the guardian of the Constitution, and that he and General Groener, as Minister of Defence, were the best guarantees against any subversive movement.

NEW LONDON PLAY.

"SEXTON BLAKE."

From Our Correspondent.
LONDON, Friday.

At the Prince Edward Theatre last night a new detective play, "Sexton Blake," by Mr. Donald Stewart, was produced, with a fair degree of success. It is compounded from all the favourite ingredients for such a dish, and murder, explosions, blackmail, poison and abduction, seasoned with occasional revolver shots, are in demand. A racing motor car, a taxi cab and a bloodhound play a part, but the bloodhound failed to make an appearance last night, owing to stage fright.

The story deals with the hair-raising adventures of a famous detective, "Sexton Blake," while in pursuit of a great, but mysterious, criminal, "Mr. Midnight." The leading rôle of Blake was played by Mr. Arthur Wontner with an intensity and power worthy of better things. He was in the picture all the time, and the gallery hung upon his words and movements with an almost uncanny devotion. He was well supported, but really nobody else, apart from the detective, matters in such plays.

A very warm welcome was given the drama at the close, particularly from the more popular parts of the house.

U.S. MARKETS.

STOCKS CLOSE WEAK.

(Reuter's Telegrams.)
NEW YORK, Friday.

More active trading, stimulated by an unfounded rumour of political disturbances in Germany, featured to-day's early session. The tendency, at the opening, was weak, and bears placed leading issues on the market in large blocks, ranging from 5,000 to 8,000 shares, with Steels and Utilities freely offered, and succeeded in bringing out considerable liquidation from other sources. The denial of the rumour concerning Germany arrested the break, when losses ranged from 2 to 8 points; but, after an irregular recovery, the market turned dull, and later again declined, with considerable nervousness apparent. Some disappointment was expressed over the failure of the anticipated business revival to materialise broadly, and many who purchased during the recent advances had placed stop-loss orders, which were uncovered by the decline. The day's business news included a few favourable dividend actions, while Wall street heard a report that the Republic Iron and Steel Company is likely to omit its common dividend. Sporadic rallies and recessions featured late trading, but the closing was weak. U.S. Steel, American Can, Sears Roebuck, Loews Incorporated, American Waterworks, Republic Iron and Steel, Dupont, Eastman Kodak, Western Union Telegraph, and American Power and Light declined from 2 to 5 points; and Worthington Pump, Case Threshing Machine, Allied Chemical, and International Business Machines lost from 8 to 9 points. Government Bonds quiet. Railroad Bonds firm. The day's sales totalled 2,994,000 shares.

Money on call closed steady at 2 per cent. bid and 2¼ per cent. asked. All business during the day was done at 2 per cent. Sterling exchange easier. Silver ½c. lower at 36¾.

THE MEOPHAM AIR ACCIDENT.

PROPOSED INQUIRY BY EXPERTS.

The Air Ministry made the following statement last night concerning the inquiry into the Meopham accident, in which six people were killed:—

"There is no desire to conceal anything relevant to this accident, nor, indeed, is there anything to conceal. The Air Ministry are desirous of ascertaining the cause of the accident, and are taking the action which, in their considered judgment, is likely to be most effective to this end.

"In view of the fact that there were no survivors, and that the accident occurred when the greater part of the journey between Berck (France) and Croydon had been completed, but not in the immediate vicinity of the aerodrome, when the evidence of expert eye-witnesses might have been available, the only useful investigation at this stage is one which will determine whether it can be ascribed to any discoverable technical defect.

"It is for this reason that the Aeronautical Research Committee, as representative of the most highly qualified technical opinion available, have been charged with this investigation.

"Moreover, it has been made clear throughout to the legal representatives of the interested parties that the Committee's report and findings will be published; and, further, that the subsequent public inquiry is in no way precluded should any new factors emerge rendering such a course desirable."

TOOTH IN CHILD'S LUNG.

FATAL RESULT OF AN OPERATION.

Efforts to recover a tooth which had slipped into the lung of a six-year-old girl were described at an inquest at Hove yesterday on Eugenie Rosa Stacey, daughter of the manager of a Worthing hotel, who died during an operation.

While the child was having seven teeth removed on Monday last one, a molar, slipped from the forceps and disappeared. The next day an X-ray photograph was taken, and showed that the tooth had lodged in the right lung. The difficult operation of bronchoscopy was performed at a Hove nursing home and the tooth was brought up to the throat, but again slipped from the forceps. At this point the child, who was under an anæsthetic, collapsed.

A post-mortem examination showed that the tooth had lodged at the back of the nose. Dr. Douglas A. Crow, of Hove, who performed the operation, said that he felt grievously disappointed and frustrated in not being able to save the child's life.

The Coroner (Dr. E. F. Hoare) praised the efforts made by the dental surgeons, anæsthetists and doctors in the case, and recorded a verdict of "Death by misadventure."

A bronchoscope is an instrument on the principle of a telescope which is passed through the mouth down the larynx and windpipe, and enables an observer to see the interior of the large bronchial tubes. Dr. Crow, who is the author of a work on the ear, nose and throat in general practice, wrote in the British Medical Journal in 1924 on "Removal of part of a safety pin from the bronchus of a child aged three years by peroral bronchoscope."

£16,000 DEFICIENCY.

MERCHANT'S STOCK EXCHANGE LOSSES.

Joseph Shammah, of Wilmslow road, Didsbury, Manchester, formerly a merchant and shipper at Major street, Manchester, appeared for his public examination at Manchester Bankruptcy Court yesterday.

It was stated that Shammah's statement of affairs disclosed gross liabilities of £35,331, and a deficiency of £16,147. His losses included £30,353 on Stock Exchange transactions.

Shammah told the Official Receiver that in eight months he lost £28,000 as a result of writing his stock down to market prices.

The examination was closed.

GOOD WORK IN AID OF THE EX-SERVICE MEN.

THE SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' HELP SOCIETY.

The Executive Committee of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Help Society met at 12 Merrion square, Dublin, on Thursday, by kind permission of Lady Arnott. There were present: Colonel Bramston Newman (in the chair), Lady Arnott, D.B.E.; Mrs. J. Fetherstonhaugh, O.B.E.; Mrs. Gaisford St. Lawrence, M.B.E.; Miss Sullivan, Mrs. Bellingham, Lady Coote, Major Kirkwood, Mr. A. E. Hamilton, Miss Blount, M.B.E., Hon. Secretary.

Apologies for absence were received from Miss Rothwell, Mr. W. T. Kirkpatrick, Sir John Lumsden, Mrs. Forde Leathley, Hon. Mrs. Porter and Mr. M. J. Nolan.

THE REPORTS.

The following reports of work done were received:—

Dublin City and Office—1,567 cases were dealt with in the Dublin Office during July and August, and £158 4s. 4d. was granted in relief. 2,400 dinner tickets were issued in July, which terminated the special fund appealed for in Noevmber last. Cash grants were made in 146 cases of pre- and post-war ex-Service men; arrears of rent, nine cases; 10s., grocery order, one man; £8, horse purchased for one man; £5 14s. 5d., railway fares, four men; 15s., surgical appliance, one man; £1 13s. 3d., articles redeemed from pawn, one man; £7 10s., stock purchased, two men; £2 2s., convalescent home fees, one man; £3, artificial teeth, one man; 13s. 11d., blankets, one man; £7 10s., contribution towards funeral expenses of three old soldiers. £47 6s., for eighteen men, was received from regimental and other funds.

Men's Clothing Branch—36 articles of clothing was issued to eleven men; boots and clothing purchased for eight men. Gifts of clothing were gratefully received from Mrs. Mayne and Anonymous.

Finance—The Hon. Treasurer submitted a financial statement, and reported the following payments in relief:—Dublin City, £100; Counties, £50. Subscriptions and donations during July and August amounted to £40 9s. 6d. A cordial vote of thanks was passed to Mr. R. Croker Stein, who on his own initiative organised a golf tournament at Kingstown and sent the Society £14 2s. 6d.

A SALE OF COUNTRY PRODUCE.

It was arranged to hold a sale of country produce in aid of the Society on October the 9th and 10th in the Gregg Memorial Hall, Dawson street.

Gifts of game, rabbits, poultry, eggs, butter, honey, jam, sweets, flowers, vegetables, fruit and plants would be gratefully received at the Dublin Office, 26 South Frederick street.

THE BRITISH LEGION IN TULLAMORE.

GENERAL HICKIE'S VISIT.

TULLAMORE, Friday.

General Sir William Hickie, K.C.B., visited Tullamore last night and performed the ceremony of opening a new annexe, containing baths, etc., to the British Legion Club premises. There was a large gathering of ex-Service men, who wore war medals and decorations. They formed a guard of honour for General Hickie, who was received with a fanfare of trumpets.

Captain G. A. Moorhead, President of the local branch, occupied the chair.

General Hickie congratulated the ex-Service men of Tullamore on what they had done in the war. He ascertained that in Tullamore they had a population of 4,500 men, women and children. There were at the time of the war in that town 1,200 men of military age, and from that they had to deduct the physically unfit and others, and it left a small margin of men who could have gone to the war and didn't. He had been informed that 800 Tullamore men had gone to the war. He did not know that Tullamore had done so well until he had got those figures.

Lieutenant-Colonel Howard Bury, M.P., spoke on the advantages of membership of the Legion, and asked them to come into the organisation in greater numbers.

Major Tynan, D.S.O., addressed the gathering, and pointed out the many ways in which ex-Service men might help themselves. It would be well to have an employment committee set up and employers interviewed to get work for members.

Mr. J. Browne, Chairman of the branch, proposed, and the Rev. J. A. Boulier seconded, a vote of thanks to General Hickie. It was supported by Mr. J. A. Lumley, V.C., who, referring to Colonel Bury, said the name of Bury was loved in Tullamore.

Mr. P. J. Egan, Chairman of Offaly County Council, sent a message regretting inability to attend and wishing the ceremony success.

SEPTEMBER'S RAINS.

MORE FLOODING IN DUBLIN YESTERDAY.

If the heavy rain that has been experienced in Dublin at intervals since the beginning of the present month continues for the next ten days, September will be recorded as a wetter period than last month, which was continuously wet. The total rainfall in Dublin for August was 5.04 inches, and the total rainfall for this month up to yesterday was 4.19 inches. The average rainfall for the same period in September for ten years was 1.83 inches, so that the rainfall for this month, up to yesterday evening, was 2.36 inches above the average for September for ten years. During the last two years September was very dry, but this year it is proving to be abnormally wet.

Yesterday morning there was a renewal of the torrential showers in Dublin, causing flooding in some districts, including Clontarf, where the Tramway Company employed their "submarine," a special car used on this route in bad weather, and Fairview. At the latter place the flooding, which occurred between 10.30 and 12 o'clock in the day, caused great inconvenience to people going to and coming from the city. Many of them who were travelling in tramcars were transferred to the Tramway Company's omnibuses.

Farmers are greatly perturbed about their crops, which have suffered as the result of the continuous rain. In many districts in the country hay and corn have been badly damaged, if not destroyed.

TEMPORARY DISTRICT JUSTICE.

Mr. Hugh J. McCann, barrister-at-law, who has been appointed temporary District Justice for the Carlow and Kilkenny district during the absence, through illness, of District Justice Molloy, made the declaration required by the Courts of Justice Act before the Chief Justice in the Supreme Court, Dublin, yesterday, before taking up his duties.

NURSES' PENSION FUND.

ALEXANDRA COLLEGE GARDEN.

Now that the season for the opening of the Gardens in aid of the Nurses' Pension Fund is drawing to a close, all who can do so should avail themselves of the opportunity afforded by Miss White to visit Alexandra College to-day, when the garden there will be open in aid of the Fund. It will be a surprise to most people to find so many plants "all a-growing and a-blooming" within the city's boundary, but Miss White, in spite of a very full daily curriculum, has not forgotten that "a garden is a lovesome thing." Although it is now late in the season, a glow of autumn colour greets the visitor. Many beautiful Michaelmas daisies are in bloom. Aster, royal blue—which, unlike the name, is a lovely soft mauve—flourishes beside Grey Lady—a quaint novelty. Chrysanthemum bronze buttercup needs no other description than the name. Dahlias are there, too—new varieties—a soft, pink shade, which gives a warm glow of colour in the grey days of autumn.

A group of Agapanthus—the blue lily of South Africa—is still blooming, having wintered in the open. These seem to have flowered well this summer in a great many gardens around Dublin, and no one need despair of growing them out of doors if the place selected for planting them is near the shelter of a sunny wall; but they should be protected from severe frost.

There are two small water lily ponds and beside one is a large clump of pheasant's tail grass. Rockeries and a moraine provide places for many rock and Alpine plants, and these must have exhibited a mass of colour in springtime and early summer. Among them was peeping the small purple flower of the hyssop of the Bible.

The background to all this natural beauty is an old brick wall covered with various creepers, and the rich colour of a bronze-leaved Prunus near by makes a beautiful contrast to the bright red berries of a pyracantha that rambles over the wall.

From the flower garden a path leads to the Teachers' Training College in Leeson street. This house is supposed to be of Huguenot origin. Three rails to every step of the stairs denote this, and there are powder closets to every room, where the fair sex, and possibly many of the sterner sex also, were wont to use powder in even more abundance than in 1930.

Miss White has also a unique collection of scented geraniums, which comprises about 170 varieties.

To-day tea will be provided in the gymnasium, and flowers, jam, and sweets will be on sale in aid of the Nurses' Fund.

IRISH DISTRESSED LADIES' FUND.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Irish Distressed Ladies' Fund was held at 6 Merrion square, Dublin, yesterday, the Earl of Wicklow presiding. Among those present were: Mr. Denis R. Pack-Beresford, D.L.; Lady Talbot de Malahide, Miss King-Harman, Lady Mary Corbally, Miss Bond, Miss Tottenham, Major Guillamore O'Grady, Lady Arnott, Mrs. George F. Stewart and the Secretary. Apologies for non-attendance were received from Lady Moore, Miss Kenny, Mr .R. Nesbitt Keller and Mr. Cyril H. Dickinson.

The pension list for October was submitted, and cheques amounting to £63 were ordered to be issued. Various grants and renewals of grants were approved.

GOSSIP FROM THE COURSE

HERONSLEA TAKES THE CUP.

A DEAD-HEAT.

LIGHT O' LOVE WINS.

FROM OUR TRAVELLING CORRESPONDENT.

AYR, Friday Night.

It rained incessantly all the time during racing here this afternoon, but when Gordon Richards had weighed in, after riding the winner of the last race of the meeting, Blue Don, the rain magically ceased, the sun came out and lit up the Ayrshire hills and the sea below them. Everything was beautiful except the drenched, bedraggled human beings making their way from the course. The rain had made the course ride even heavier than yesterday, and the racing was only fair.

On the whole, this Western meeting has not been up to the standard of other years. One of its features has been the success of the Yorkshire trainers. Elsey had taken four races on the first two days, but drew a blank to-day. This was a Middleham, not a Malton, day; for Peacock won the Ayr Gold Cup with Heronslea and divided the Eglinton Plate with Aldessan.

Heronslea is a good looking three-year-old Irish-bred son of Bachelor's Double and Dinah Desmond, who won with consummate ease by three lengths and a neck from Knight Error (to whom he was giving a pound and a year) and Oak Ridge. I think the latter was second-best, but he was not pressed when Heronslea flew past him a furlong out. Oak Ridge had made the running with Quothquan, who dropped back and finished fourth. He ran his usual splendid race, but the younger horse was far too good for him at the weights.

MORE THAN USEFUL.

I imagine from what he did to-day that Heronslea is more than useful. He was considered very unlucky at Manchester not to have got the decision in the Irish Hospitals' Cup, which was won by Tefnut by a short head. Holikoki was favourite at the finish, but Mr. Huntley Walker's French-bred plater was beaten at half-way. Poor Lad also did not run well, nor did Richards's mount, Grandma.

The next race was the Eglinton Plate, in which Lord Glanely's filly, Ocean Wide, was a good favourite. Richards took her to the front at once, but two furlongs from home she was challenged by Timber and Aldessan. Both soon had her well beaten, and Timber had a slight lead, but the other got up on the post to make the dead-heat. Aldessan is a half-sister to Twelve Pointer by Yutoi, bred and owned by Mr. Kincaid Lennox. Doura was started again and finished fourth.

I forgot to mention yesterday that this winner of the Ayrshire Handicap was bred by Mr. W. T. Carolan, and was bought in Dublin by Mr. A. E. McKinlay for Mr. John Wallace. Mr. Wallace is a one-horse owner, and is a partner in the firm of Dixon and Wallace, live stock auctioneers in Glasgow, who deal annually with a large number of Irish cattle. Timber belongs to Mr. R. F. Watson, whose father, the late Lord Manton, owned his sire, Lemonora. He is trained at Newmarket by Fred Butters, who does exceptionally well with the small number of horses he has.

WRAGG'S CLEVER RIDING.

Jack Jarvis, who was second in the Ayrshire Handicap with Larking, owned by Mr. Edward Esmond, won the Land of Burns Nursery for the same owner with Light o' Love, a good-looking, if leggy, colt by Pharos, bred by Mr. Lambton, who was out in the Brocklesby Stakes at Lincoln and won a race at Leicester in April last. It was a brilliant piece of riding on the part of Wragg that landed him a winner by a neck from Mrs. Ambrose Clark's filly by Jackdaw out of Edgar's Lady, who was only caught on the post after making all the running. The favourite, Gallini, finished fourth, but he failed to stay on the holding ground.

Gratuitous, an American-bred five-year-old won the first selling race, and was not sold afterwards. The other seller, a two-year-old affair, was more interesting. There were only four runners, and Richards's mount, Cold Blast, was joint favourite with Miss Amy. They finished, respectively, second and fourth, and the race was won very easily by the outsider of the party, Lord Beaverbrook's Castalia, an Irish colt by Fantomas, who had not run before, and here beat Bellamour by three lengths. She was sold after the race to Mr. Cottrill for 300 guineas.

Richards's followers were not on good terms with themselves when we came to the last race, the Shaw Memorial Plate, for he had not ridden a winner during the day. Everyone expected that his mount, Blue Don, would be favourite, but a stranger in Mr. R. D. Renton's Beau Seant was the first choice at the start. He is a four-year-old of whom the public had never heard, but an examination of the books showed that he had run twice as a two-year-old and then disappeared.

A GREAT FINISH.

The handicapper seemed to have taken a chance in letting him in with only 4lb. above the minimum weight. When they had gone a furlong he dashed to the front, and soon had the race to himself. Coming into the straight, however, his poor little bolt was shot, and a furlong from home Blue Don was challenged by Swashbuckler, and was getting just a little the better of it when another challenger appeared on the outside. In a terrific finish Blue Don beat Sept and Swashbuckler by two very short heads in the best finish of the meeting.

SELECTIONS.

The better racing to-morrow is at Windsor, where LEOPARDUS should win the Royal Borough Handicap. The Fregmore Welter may be won by LANDSONG and the Ivor Nursery by AERIAL FLIGHT.

At Bogside Richards may have a couple of winning rides on Grand Light in the Portland Nursery and Western Flier in the Montgomerie Welter.

LEOPARDSTOWN.

TO-DAY'S SELECTIONS

Fields will not be of great numerical strength at Leopardstown this afternoon. Still, the racing promises well, and there is the material in the Three Rock Handicap for an interesting contest. Of the four runners for the Dargle Plate Chelsea and Carey Dennis are the property of Mr. R. Croker. Both have claims to consideration, but Kirkgunzeon, who ran well in the Phœnix Plate and beat Crotalo and Lily Maid earlier, looks to hold a stronger chance of winning. Tail End, the full brother to the crack sprinter, Tag End, has done nothing yet to suggest his emulating the achievements of his distinguished relation, so the selection is KIRKGUNZEON.

Selections for other races:—
Autumn Hurdle—Betty R.
Scalp Plate—Tagala.

CURRAGH TRAINING NOTES.

THE CURRAGH, Friday.

The morning was both wet and stormy, and very little work was possible.

BEHAN'S Irish Times, Ballyhalbert and the remainder of the Mountjoy Lodge team were given brisk canters.

BRABAZON'S Chelsea, Carey Dennis and the other two-year-olds went three furlongs sharply.

DAWSON'S Flashing Dawn was sent the same distance at the same rate; Tuton, Prudent Ross, Cornafulla and the remainder of the team cantered.

DOYLE'S Kildare's Pride, Battle Bridge and Pretty Land went five furlongs steadily.

SELECTIONS FOR LEOPARDSTOWN—TO-DAY.
Autumn Hurdle—A.P.

WINDSOR TO-DAY:

PROBABLE STARTERS AND BETTING.

JOHN DORY FOR CHIEF EVENT.

AERIAL FLIGHT'S CHANCE.

The Scottish Autumn Circuit closes with a one-day fixture at Bogside, but the better-class sport will be that provided at Windsor, where the Royal Borough Handicap is the principal item on a well-supported card. It is decided over a mile and a quarter, and is considered to be the ideal distance for Leopardus. He is at least very favourably handicapped with 8st., and early in the present month he showed a return to something like his best form when he failed only by a head to concede 1st. to Last of the Dandies at Lewes. From Epsom there are good accounts to hand of Bachelor's Date, who won over this course last time out, and who may not yet have reached the limit of his improvement. On the Sandown Anniversary running, however, he has more than four lengths disadvantage with John Dory for 3lb., and this may prove a stumbling block to his success. Moyresque appears to have his full share of weight, and a similar remark applies to King's Oven, who is not now so good as he was a year or so ago.

Of the light weights I like the three years old Bunch as well as any, for she has been successful in her last three races, and this is just the course which should suit her. There are possibilities about such as Sunny Trace and The Cheerful Abbot, but in summing up I select from John Dory and Leopardus, and I prefer the former.

The Ivor Nursery is an open handicap in which I have most liking for the bottom weight, Go On, and Walter Nightingall's Aerial Flight. The latter has shown up well in her last two races, having been second to Minette at Leicester and to Panache gelding at Folkestone, and she should be the safest selection.

I hear that Popotte II. is to be a general fancy for the Mill House Plate on the strength of home gallops, but I prefer to rely upon known public form, and, therefore, take sides with Gashmu, who has shown very useful form by winning his last two races.

Frogmore Welter—Scarlet Fly.
Quickly Selling Nursery—Aislabie colt.
Royal Borough Handicap—John Dory (nap)
Pistol Selling Plate—Water Dean.
Ivor Nursery—Aerial Flight.
Mill House Plate—Gashmu.

TO-DAY'S DOUBLE.

John Dory (Windsor) and Grand Light (Bogside).

GOLF.

MOTOR TRADES AT GRANGE.

A GOOD SCORE BY H. E. BELL.

PALMER CUP RETURNS TO BELFAST

The Motor and Allied Trades' Golfing Society were very unfortunate yesterday, when its September meeting was held at the Grange, Rathfarnham, in almost continuous rain. The downpour, which was accompanied by a steady breeze, set in early, but, nevertheless, sixty of those entered turned up, Belfast sending several to defend the Palmer Cup, presented by the Palmer Tyre Company. The Goff Memorial Cup was also played for, and the Society, as usual, put up a number of supplementary prizes.

The Palmer trophy was retained for Belfast, E. Hamilton, of the Knock Club, returning one up, which, in the circumstances, was good scoring, while the Goff Memorial went to H. E. Bell (Portmarnock), who had the particularly good gross score of 78. His nett 77 tied with A. F. Nolan, but, on the play off, Bell won, and thus regained the cup which he won in 1925. Colonel Tamplin became entitled to the scratch award, Nolan taking the prize for the second best nett.

Mr. Thomas Cullen represented the Palmer Tyre Company, which entertained the members to luncheon, and among those present, in addition to the competitors, were:—Messrs. P. J. Lawrence, Irish-American Oil Company; J. A. Burns, Shell Company; J. A. Taylor, Dunlop Company; R. C. Flanagan, Dunlop Company; George Robinson, Lincoln and Nolan; S. Hutchinson, Hutchinson Tyre Company; J. Toal, Rudge-Whitworth Company; James Moore, I.M.T.A.; M. Mahony, Avon Tyre Company; J. Quinn, I.M.T.A.; R. Neill, Abbey street; W. J. Henderson, Fiat Company; C. J. Maguire, Humber Company; T. Keating, Abbey street; E. Lemass, L.S.E.; Gerald Huet, Huet Bros., and J. and G. Cooney, Kells.

The results were:—

PALMER CUP.

E. Hamilton, Belfast (11), 1 up; M. Kearney, Drogheda (7), 2 down; *H. L. Frazer Watson, Dublin (14), 3 down; C. O'Shea, Dublin (14), 3 down; R. Kenneth, Dublin (6), 3 down; C. McMullan, Belfast (4), 3 down; R. D. Gibson, Dublin (15), 4 down; R. E. Hamilton, Banbridge (12), 5 down; R. Ruttledge, Birr (6), 5 down. *Third play off.

GOFF MEMORIAL CUP.

H. E. Bell, Dublin (1), 77; A. F. Nolan, Dublin (14), 77; H. L. Frazer Watson, Dublin (13), 80; George J. Cooney, Kells (12), 80; *R. J. Tamplin, Dublin (5), 81; R. B. Kenneth, Dublin (6), 82; E. Hamilton, Belfast (11), 82; R. E. Hamilton, Banbridge (12), 83; C. O'Shea, Dublin (14), 85; R. D. Gibson, Dublin (15), 86; D. Leechman, Dublin (18), 88; M. Kearney, Drogheda (7), 90. *Best gross.

Putting—S. R. Lagnell, 15, 1; J. Young, 17, 2.

IRISH OPEN FOR ROYAL DUBLIN.

The Committee of the Royal Dublin Club has decided to accept the Irish Open Championship for next year, and it will, therefore, take place at Dollymount.

The meeting, we understand, will not be held as early as was this year at Portrush.

TOBACCO TRADE G.S.

The competition for the prize presented by Messrs Spillane, of Limerick, was held on the Clontarf links, and G. S. Spratt won after a tie with H. Jones. The captain of the Society (Mr. P. A. Bell), in the unavoidable absence of the President (Mr. J. H. Cooper), presented the cups and replicas won during the season at a smoking concert in the pavilion, and was supported by Messrs T. Pike (hon. secretary), D. Finn (captain, Clontarf), and H. J. Lyons (hon. secretary, Clontarf). The winners were as follows:—

Friendly Cup—J. Fielding; runner-up, P. Hennessy.

Imperial Challenge Bowl—P. J. Pentony; runner-up, D. Bridgman.

Sweet Afton Cup—G. Robertson; runner-up, J. Fielding.

Messrs. Spillane's Prize—G. S. Spratt; 2nd prize, H Jones (after a tie); 3rd prize, "A" Section, P. J. Pentony; "B" Section, P. Creamer. Visitors' Prize—H. Young.

IRISH LADIES' UNION.

ANNUAL MEETING IN DUBLIN.

AUSTRALIANS' VISIT.

The annual meeting of the Irish Ladies' Hockey Union was held yesterday at 16 St. Stephen's Green, Dublin. Previous to the election of Mrs. Hanna, Mrs. Eraut (Connaught) occupied the chair.

The reports of the hon. secretary and hon. treasurer were unanimously adopted.

The election of officers resulted as follows:—President—Mrs. Hanna (Leinster). Hon. Treasurer—Mrs. Carson (Ulster). Hon. Secretary—Miss B. Hanna, 83 Pembroke road, Ballsbridge, Dublin.

A proposition by the Ulster Branch that Rule 8 be altered to read: "The annual meeting to be held in May instead of October," was agreed to.

In the event of two clubs having the same colours in any all-Ireland competition. The Union in future will have power to decide which club shall change colours for the occasion.

All players selected for future international games, who are playing regularly outside Ireland, must belong to a club affiliated to the Irish Ladies' Hockey Union.

A proposal by Ulster, that one inter-provincial match be played in each province each season; and one by Munster. That the inter-provincial matches be played in each province in rotation, were defeated. All inter-provincial games will, as heretofore, take place in Dublin.

The following international dates were arranged:
February 21—Ireland v. Scotland. In Scotland.
March 7—Ireland v. Wales. At Cork.
March 21—Ireland v. England. At Dublin.

A Council meeting was subsequently held and the following arrangements were made for the inter-provincial games and the Australian visit.
February 5—Munster v. Leinster.
February 5—Ulster v. Connaught.
February 6—Ulster v. Munster.
February 6—Leinster v. Connaught.
February 7—Munster v. Connaught.
February 7—Ulster v. Leinster.

It was decided to play a match, Leinster v. Ulster, on January 31st at Belfast, a week previous to the inter-provincial game between the two provinces.

The dates for the games against Australia are as follows:—
October 22—Australia v. Munster. At Cork.
October 25—Australia v. Leinster. In Dublin.
October 29—Australia v. All-Ireland. At Belfast.

PEMBROKE WANDERERS H.C.

The annual general meeting will be held in the pavilion on Saturday, the 27th September, at 5.15. Prior to the meeting, and starting at 3 o'clock, there will be a practice for all members. Intending members should send their applications to hon. secretary, T. Pike, 18a Upper Merrion street.

GAELIC GAMES.

BIG MATCHES IN BELFAST.

DUBLIN JUNIORS MEET DONEGAL.

MONAGHAN READY FOR THE FINAL.

Belfast Gaelic Ground at Corrigan Park will hold a "record" crowd to-morrow. The Central Council, with a view to encouragement of the game in the Northern capital, have fixed two attractive matches for the new grounds—Dublin play Donegal in football and Kilkenny's second hurling string meet Antrim, both being All-Ireland Junior Championship games. The Belfast Committee have staged some good tournament games recently, but to-morrow's is the first serious championship programme consigned to Corrigan Park.

ANTRIM'S HURLING TRADITION.

Antrim have a combined hurling tradition through the old caman players of the Cushendall and Cushendun Glens. Belfast City has some useful clubs, and to-morrow's side is divided between the glensmen and the city hurlers. They have won comfortably from Cavan and Down, but are set a serious proposition against Kilkenny, who had easy victories over Offaly and Leix. Kilkenny hurling is recovering from a lean period, and it is expected that Junior and Minor honours will compensate the Noremen for their seniors' defeat by Leix in the Leinster Championship.

Dublin footballers, like Kilkenny hurlers, feel that their seniors were unlucky, and hope to retrieve lost laurels for the county. Having won well against Louth, Westmeath and Kildare, Dublin played indifferent football against Carlow in Athy. They will have tightened up their lines for to-morrow's game against Donegal, and should qualify for the final.

Donegal has been little heard of in inter-county football. The introduction of skilled guardsmen to their county football has raised the standard very decisively, and their surprise victory over Armagh (after a drawn game) will encourage Ulster supporters Both Leinster teams may win, but the issue is open in each case, and Antrim hurlers may spring yet another surprise.

National Leagues continue to attract increased attention. At Enniscorthy, Leix meet Wexford, and the home fifteen will be favoured by ground and records, for Leix are down to Wexford, Dublin and Kildare. Should the midlanders travel at strength Wexford will be fully extended. Leix have had hard luck through the year in both codes. They have played Kildare and Kilkenny's best team with little in the balance, yet, they lack that small final touch before goal which wins games.

ACTIVITY IN CONNAUGHT.

Connaught counties, since the smoothing of their differences in Council, have been very active. Mayo's success at Croke Park last Sunday is a further incentive, and I anticipate a keen struggle at Roscommon to-morrow between Galway and Leitrim in senior football.

Monaghan are training rigorously for their game against Kerry on September 28th. Ulster will be at full force at Croke Park, and believe in their teams.

Against Kildare the Northern side was convincing. Their defence against Kildare's brainy attack was of high class. They played football very close to Kerry's method. The champions can be trusted to take no chances. They may win again, yet I consider the game an open one, and give Monaghan more than a sporting chance.

BOXING.

KID BERG BEATS GLICK ON POINTS.

NEW YORK, Friday.

Kid Berg, the Whitechapel light-weight, last night defeated Joe Glick, of New York, on points in a ten-round return contest at the Queensboro' stadium, Long Island. Berg won the previous fight in April last.

After a few rounds of furious fighting, Glick resorted to questionable methods, and was repeatedly warned by the referee.

There was a time when Berg looked unusually uncomfortable. Glick's terrific lefts to the body jarred him considerably, but with his customary stamina Berg fast tired Glick, and led him a considerable dance in the last few rounds, to the great delight of the 15,000 spectators present.

Glick showed great gameness, and as he heard his supporters acclaiming him he repeatedly glanced at them and nodded confidently, only to have to submit to ultimate defeat beneath Berg's devastating onslaught towards the end.

Berg had much at stake last night, for he is matched with Billy Petrolle, and yesterday Sol Goldie, Berg's manager, received a cable from Berg's father informing him that he had received an offer of £5,000 for his son to box Al Foreman, the British champion, at the Albert Hall at an early date. Defeat would probably have cost Berg both of these lucrative matches. The Petrolle fight is causing some concern among Berg's friends, for it will be recalled that in 1928 the Italian beat Berg on a technical knock-out in the fifth round, when Berg was floored six or seven times.

ACTOR TAKES TO THE RING.

Desmond Jeans, the actor, will make his debut in professional boxing at the Royal Albert Hall, London, on the 29th inst. Mr. Jeff Dickson, the promoter, flew to Paris, and arranged for Josef Thomas, a promising French heavy-weight, to meet Jeans in a six rounds contest, supporting the Len Harvey—Dave Shade fight.

UZCUDUN'S FIGHTS.

TO MEET YOUNG STRIBLING IN LONDON.

PARIS, Friday.

Paolino Uzcudun, the Spanish heavy-weight, will fight Young Stribling in England this winter, says Mr. Bernstein, the former's manager, on their arrival here last night. Uzcudun is expected to have three matches during his stay in Europe. The first will be against Maurice Griselle here in November, the second against Primo Carnera, probably at Barcelona, and the third against Stribling.

Regarding the Stribling match Mr. Bernstein said that the details were not yet arranged, "but you may take it as definite that the fight will take place in England," he said. The fight will probably be held in January.

Al Brown, the Panama coloured boxer, who arrived on the same train, is to fight Eugene Huat at the bantam-weight limit on October 4th in Paris. He will start work on Sunday. He now weighs 126lb., and will thus have about a fortnight to work off the extra 8lb.

ATHLETICS.

STANDING COMMITTEE N.A. AND C.A.

The usual weekly meeting of the N.A. and C.A. Standing Committee was held last evening at the offices, 58 Dame street, Mr. C. M. O'Shaughnessy presiding.

Sir Harry J. Barclay, Hon. Secretary, Amateur Athletic Association, wrote to thank the N.A. and C.A. for their kind letter of condolence and sympathy at the tragic death of the former Hon. Secretary of the A.A.A., Mr. Fisher, which occurred during the British team's visit to the Empire Games at Hamilton, Ontario

A meeting of the Central Council will be held at Wynne's Hotel, Lower Abbey street, on Sunday, September 28th at 5 o'clock, to arrange a suitable venue for the International Cross-country Championship, in which seven nations will compete.

The date of the Ballinagappa Cup Road Race, from Dublin to Naas, was fixed provisionally for October 12th, pending a reply from the Naas Sports Committee.

CORCORAN'S TREBLE AT ARMY SPORTS.

The 3rd Battalion annual sports at the Curragh provided some excellent contests, where big entries marked each event. The winners were:—100 Yards—Private P. Corcoran (M.G. Coy.); 220 Yards—Private Corcoran; 440 Yards—Private Corcoran; 880 Yards—Corporal Somers (No. 3 Coy.); One Mile—Private Rafter (R. and T. Dépôt); Four Miles Flat—Private J. O'Connor (No. 3 Coy.); 120 Yards Hurdles—Corporal J. Meaney (H.Q. Coy.); Three Miles Cycle—Private Mahoney (No. 3 Coy.); 16lb. Shot—Sergeant Houlihan (A.S.I.); 56lb. Over Bar—Private O'Loughlin (H.Q. Coy.); 56lb. Without Follow—Private O'Loughlin; Javelin—Corporal Meaney; Discus—Sergeant Connors (No. 2 Coy.); Pole Jump—Corporal Manning (Police); Long Jump—Sergeant Houlihan; High Jump—Private Longwell (M.G. Coy.); Hop, Step and Jump—Sergeant Houlihan; Hurling Puck—Private Kelly (No. 2 Coy.); Football Place Kick—Private Boyne; Relay Race—M.G. Coy. (Captain M. Connery, Private P. Corcoran, Private J. Murphy, Private J. O'Leary).

YACHTING.

FIXTURES FOR THE WEEK-END.

Late as it is in the season two matches may possibly be sailed this afternoon, one at Kingstown, under the auspices of the Seapoint Boat Club, to decide the fate of the Smalldridge Cup, and the other at Howth, the concluding race of the local 17-footers.

This was the arrangement, at least previous to the hard blow of yesterday morning, and it may be that to-day the sea may not have fallen sufficiently, or else that owners and crews will have given up all hope of the weather picking up, and have abandoned all thought of racing.

One thing that is certain is that after yesterday's experience there will be a rush to lay yachts up for the winter. Those caught out in the Channel in the blow must have gone through a bad time, and at Kingstown, at any rate, there was one bird of passage glad to put into harbour, viz., the well-known Cork cutter, Verve, which arrived about 7 a.m.

Last week it was the intention at Howth to sail off the postponed match for 17-footers this afternoon if possible. Whether some other decision has been come to in the meantime, we have not heard. If it starts it will be at the usual time over the usual course.

As for the Seapoint Club's race, the starting hour will be 3.30 p.m. and the handicap (on the time-on-time system) is: Mercia III. (scr.) allows Bonita ½ min., Alethea 1¼ min., Sho Shi 2¼ min., and Kitsune 7¼ min. per hour.

The course has been altered since last week, what is known as the Seapoint mark disappearing. From the starting line now the yachts go to the South Bar buoy, thence to the Rosbeg buoy, and come back then to finish on the starting line.

MODEL YACHT REGATTA.

To-day at Herbert Park races for seniors and juniors will be sailed, and there will be a display of fast hydroplanes by Messrs. Willis and Trampe. The first event has been fixed for 3 o'clock.

ASSOCIATION.

THE IRISH AMATEURS AT ABERDEEN.

LOCAL WEEK-END GAMES.

The list of Free State League matches down for decision over the week-end should be productive of several keen games. Shelbourne, who at present have a slight lead over the other clubs on the League table, are at home to Dolphin this afternoon, and the latter, who have been beaten in only one game to date, should make a strong bid to improve their position. The League champions, Bohemians, travel to Dundalk, and as the kick-off in this game has been fixed for 4.30 the Dalymount team will be accompanied by a large following.

To-morrow Waterford pay their first visit of the season to Dublin, when they engage Brideville at Harold's Cross, and in view of the visitors' good performance last week in holding Shelbourne to a draw, the attendance should be a big one. Drumcondra will attempt to maintain their winning sequence at the expense of Cork, whom they meet on the latter's ground, while Shamrock Rovers will be at home to Bray Unknowns. The neighbouring teams, St. James's Gate and Jacobs, clash at Crumlin, and though neither club has registered a win so far this season, the rivalry between the pair is so keen that a close game should be the outcome.

Interest in the amateur international between Scotland and Ireland at Aberdeen will be increased by the fact that J. McMahon, Bohemians' centre-half, has been selected to fill a similar position in the Irish team.

OLD DAYS RECALLED.

TEAM THAT WAS READY TO PLAY EITHER RUGBY OR "SOCCER."

The death of Mr. Sidney Bourne, Chairman of the Crystal Palace A.F.C., removes a very well-known and popular figure from the world of sport. For many years Chairman of the Southern League before the chief clubs threw in their lot with the Football League, Mr. Bourne brought to the game on its official side valuable experience gained on the field of play. He kept goal for Champion Hill, and he often referred to the Mosquitos, a team ready to meet opponents either at the Rugby or Association game. In the late "eighties" he helped Lyndhurst to win the Surrey Cup, and of a tie against Godalming he used to recount how his arm suffered from stopping many shots from G. O. Smith, then at Charterhouse School, soon to get his Blue at Oxford, and become the most talked of centre forward ever to play for England.

Bourne played for Lyndhurst in the first English Cup tie contested by Arsenal, the present holders of the trophy. Official records give Royal Arsenal, as the Plumstead club was then called, winning by eleven clear goals, but Bourne always insisted the score was 10 to 1. He, as goalkeeper, naturally liked to keep the score down if possible. Lyndhurst, after an even first half, faced a driving rainstorm that helped towards the heavy defeat.

Mr. Bourne, as a member of the Surrey Club, kept in touch with cricket. Until well on in middle life he played for the Brixton and other clubs.

BILLIARDS.

LINDRUM V. FALKINER.

At Thurston's, London, yesterday afternoon, Falkiner had the distinction of making the highest run of close cannons of the match so far. It was 306, and was included in a break of 294. In the session Lindrum scored 1,287 points and averaged 143, Falkiner's figures being 418 and 46 respectively. Additional to the breaks mentioned were 169 (full), 384, 218, and 191 (unfinished) by Lindrum. Interval scores—Falkiner (receives 8,000), 11,312; Lindrum (in play), 11,023.

The lead twice changed hands in the evening session, but eventually Lindrum concluded play with an advantage of 670 points. Lindrum opened by taking his unfinished break to 206, and after a run of 76 he went ahead, while making 397, which included runs of 32 and 54 close cannons. Falkiner pegged back the visitor with 70 and 182, but Lindrum, playing attractive billiards, made the highest break in the match so far—740. This included 37, 61 and 75 cannons. Falkiner left off in play with 40 unfinished. Closing scores:—Lindrum, 12,383; Falkiner (rec. 8,000) (in play), 11,713.

COUNTY PLAYERS FOR SOUTH AFRICA.

Five county cricketers sailed from Southampton yesterday on the Union-Castle liner, Windsor Castle, to take up winter coaching appointments in South Africa. They were:—Newman (Hampshire), Ashdown (Kent), J. Langridge (Sussex), Bates (Warwickshire) and Hubble (Kent).

AUSTRALIANS LEAVE.

Practically unnoticed and without any demonstration, Messrs. Woodful, Kippax, Grimmett, Richardson and McCabe, of the Australian cricket team, left Liverpool street, London, last night for home. Mr Woodful said that they would always remember their visit. "We have had a wonderful time," he said, "and we all want to thank the people of England for the fine reception they have given us. We shall be glad to come again."

CHESS.

IRISH CHAMPIONSHIP.

Our Chess Correspondent writes:—Arrangements are now complete for the opening of play in the Irish Championship tourney on October 8th. Munster will be represented by Mr. Barry St. John Galvin, who shares with Mr. W. O'Connell the Championship of Cork. He has been a conspicuous figure in the inter-city Cork and Dublin matches. Last year he lost to Mr. Cranston, ex-Champion of Ireland, after a very strenuous contest, and in the preceding year he won decisively from Mr. P. W. Whelan, former Champion of Leinster. Mr. Galvin is also a member of the Dublin Chess Club.

Preparations are well under way for the Tailteann chess contests of 1931, and the special committee in charge of the programme is meeting next week.

MOTOR BOAT RACING.

COMMISSIONER MEGHEN'S CUP.

The Handicap Competition for the Challenge Cup presented by Mr. Meghen, the Commissioner for Howth, to the North Dublin Motor Boat Club (deferred owing to weather conditions at Howth last Saturday) took place yesterday on the "Blue Lagoon" at Dollymount, over a six-mile course.

The competitors were—J. N. Richardson's Nelt (Dunelt 250), limit; R. W. Alexander's Bobalong (Johnsen 500), 2 mins. 45 secs.; Viscount Forbes' Rocket (Dunelt 500), 3 mins.; W. Moran's Whirlwind (Dunelt 500), 3 mins.; and D. McMurrough's Blue Bird (Elto D), 3 mins. 30 secs.

Nelt was first to cross the line, so becoming cup-holder, and Whirlwind second, thus winning the club prize.

RUGBY FOOTBALL.

NORTHERN BRANCH I.R.U.

At the annual meeting of the Northern Branch, Irish Rugby Union, in Thompson's Restaurant, Belfast, last night, Dr. J. R. Wheeler was elected President for the season. The retiring President, Mr. R. D. Smyth, was unavoidably absent, and the chair was occupied by Captain J. Gillespie a past President, who said that there were now sixty-eight clubs in membership, as compared with thirty-five in 1921-22. The standard of play, however, had not shown a corresponding increase, but the game was certainly becoming more popular. The election of Mr T. M. Greeves as President of the Irish Union had been very popular, and he had discharged the duties of an arduous year in a manner reflecting credit on the province.

Tribute was paid to the work of Mr. R. W. Harland in organising referees, and appeals were made to senior players on retiring to take up refereeing.

A satisfactory financial statement was presented by Mr. A. S. Atkinson, hon. treasurer, who reported that £40 had been subscribed to the Royal Victoria Hospital from the Schools' Cup and £50 from the clubs of the branch.

Messrs. A. McAlery and F. W. Hazlett were elected vice-presidents. The hon. secretary (Mr. W. A. B. Douglas) and hon. treasurer (Mr. A. S. Atkinson) were re-elected, and the following appointed to the committee:—Messrs. A. L. Douglas, W. H. Hall, Dr. T. R. Irwin, J. B. O'Callaghan, D. Kane and J. McVicker.

DEATH OF AN OLD WELSH INTERNATIONAL.

The death has occurred in London of Major the Right Hon. C. P. Allen, who was well known as a Welsh Rugby International wing three-quarter forty-five years ago. He had the distinction of scoring the first try ever obtained for Wales against England in the series of international matches, at Leeds in 1884, and in the same year was awarded a cap against Scotland. Although these were the only two international honours he gained he played for Oxford against Cambridge in 1881, and the two following seasons.

DUBLIN UNIVERSITY R.F.C.

GAELIC COLLEGE CERTIFICATES.

MINISTER'S ATTITUDE DENOUNCED.

"A GROSS WOUND TO THE LANGUAGE."

References were made at a meeting of the Leinster College of Irish last night to the threat of the Department of Education to deprive the College of the right to confer certificates on its successful students, one of the speakers declaring that "the blotting out of the Leinster Gaelic College at a period when the language is struggling for its life is a crime against Irish nationalism, a gross wound to the language."

The meeting, which was held in the College premises, 39 Parnell square, Dublin, inaugurated the 25th session of the College. The proceedings were conducted inIrish.

THREAT TO COLLEGE.

Mr. Brian Fitzpatrick, M.A., principal of the College, in the absence of Judge Moonan, the honorary manager, occupied the chair and welcomed the students.

Referring to the past session, the Chairman said that it had been a most successful one, over thirteen hundred teachers having been enrolled as students of the oral or the correspondence classes.

He went on to refer to what he described as the neglect of the Minister of Education to reply to the statement regarding the recognition of the College certificates, which had been submitted to him in March last. The College, he said, would be adversely affected by the new Vocational Act, unless rules were formed under the new Act to enable the College to continue the work which it had been doing for the past twenty-four years.

Mr. M. Heaney, Secretary, submitted the Committee's annual report of the work of the College, in which it was stated that it had improved the education of the country, and that the Education Department's new scheme could not have been put into effect had it not been for the work that was done by that College. Over five thousand students had received instruction there and at the College's branches.

"CRIME AGAINST NATIONALISM."

Dr. Sean McCann, proposing the adoption of the report, said that they had expected to receive something more than a formal acknowledgment from the Department of Education of the statement sent forward from that College concerning the recognition of the College certificates.

They wished to point out to the Department the high position that that College held in the Gaelic life of Dublin. Not only was it an establishment in which Irish was taught, but it was a centre of Gaelic culture right in the midst of the Galltacht.

They wished to tell the Education Department that the blotting out of the Leinster Gaelic College at a period when the language was struggling for its life was a crime against Irish Nationalism, a gross wound to the language.

He believed that another effort on the part of the Committee would succeed in getting the Department to withdraw the edict as to the certificates. Despite the fact that the Department had withdrawn recognition, the College had a most successful year. He believed that the coming year would be more successful still. He was convinced that the Department of Education was not going to trample upon a centre of Gaelic culture in their midst.

Mr. P. McElhinney seconded the adoption of the report

NOT TO YIELD.

Mr. T. O'Sullivan said that those who were in authority directing Irish education, instead of doing anything to hamper the work of the College, should be the first to encourage and assist it.

Dr. S O'Sharkey, M.A., said that they had no intention of yielding to the threat of the Department of Education to deprive the College of the right to confer certificates to its successful students.

He said that he was in favour of the formation of a class in the college to teach students how to write books. It was, he added, during the British régime that the Irish colleges were given grants, and it would be strange if an Irish Government deprived them of that assistance.

The report was adopted.

Thirty-five certificates of efficiency were awarded for higher, bi-lingual and ordinary work.

DUBLIN FEATURES FEW.

ANOTHER "STIR" IN TRAM DEBS.

The usual end of the settlement and week-end market gave still little or no facilities for enlarging the scope of business current on 'Change, in view of surrounding causes for at least marking time or awaiting events. Investment support was about among British and Local Funds. Land Bonds held the previous day's easier level, while Dublin Corporation new 5 p.c. was firmer at 101⅛, and all others well held. Banking Securities were almost neglected. Bank stock was firm. Nationals were held for a fresh recovery, and Munsters were wanted at last price. Provincial Old Shares were wanted at a concession. Royals were firm. The annual meeting of shareholders will be held on 26th inst., at the Head Office, Foster place, Dublin. Guinness Ord. Shares were steady to firm, just under the previous day's top level. Support was offered for British and Irish Steam Pref. at the previous day's slightly higher level. Home Rails were quiet. Great Southern looked inclined to harden, but Pre-Ord. issues tended to ease all round. There was an important stir in another of the Dublin United Tramway Debenture issues, with redeemable dates just over eight years hence. On this occasion we refer to the 4 p.c. Mortgage Debs. (Dublin Southern Districts) redeemable in 1939. The last price was 55⅗, while 60 was paid yesterday. The total of the issue is only £62,000, whereas the 3½ p.c. "B" issue, to which attention was recently directed, covers £300,000. Bakery Shares remain scarce, with bids, sometimes over last markings, not responded to. Coats and Courtaulds were more inclined to slip back further in a weaker market. Goulding Ord. were less firm. Imperial Chemicals were realised steadily from the other side, but the shares were finally well taken at a concession. Dunlops were dull, but Imperial Tobaccos were firmer, though 'Bats" were the turn quieter. Leading Local Newspaper shares were all bid for, but supplies are limited. Lever Bros. 7 p.c. Pref. were again very firm. Cables and Wireless were unsettled, on the sharp reduction in cost of "wiring" to South Africa and South American States.

LONDON DULL.

INTERNATIONALS MARKED DOWN.

Quiet conditions characterised the majority of sections in the London Stock Markets yesterday, members' attention being principally directed to the preliminary arrangements in connection with Monday's carry-over, whilst fresh business remained on the small side. The general tone was distinctly easier, the international descriptions being marked back on the weaker advices from America, whilst the "home" Industrials also sought lower levels in numerous instances. Little of interest transpired among British Funds, and, with the exception of Consols 4 per cent., which lost ¼ to 88, the closing rates were much the same as before. Among Colonial Government issues, Australians were scaled down further. The feature in Foreign Government Securities was the sharp reaction in German issues, the 5½ per cent. Bonds slumping to 79½, while the Sevens lost a further point to 104. Chinese and Brazilians were steady to firm, and Turkish Unified strengthened to 11½, or ½ harder. Easer conditions prevailed among Home Rails, but the losses recorded were few and slight in character. Among Colonial and Foreign Rails, Argentines remained in a heavy condition and lost fresh ground, but others were usually well maintained. Easier conditions characterised the Industrial sections as a whole.

DIVIDENDS AND REPORTS.

CITY OF WATERFORD GAS.—5 per cent. per annum on Ordinary Stock. (Same.)

AIRD AND COGHILL.—Dividend of 7½ per cent. on Ordinary for year. (Same.)

BERRY'S INSULATING AND BUILDING PRODUCTS.—The first accounts, covering the period from March 5th, 1929, the date of incorporation, to June 30th last, show a net profit of £5,519, subject to provision for depreciation and income tax. The directors propose to allocate £1,378 to capital reserve for depreciation, £659 to reduce costs of issue of capital, and £1,089 to preliminary and development expenditure to date, leaving £2,393 to go forward.

BEMBERG A.G.—Bemberg A.G., according to reports in the German Press, has not had a very successful year. The reduction of prices in viscose and acetate rayon has necessitated the lowering of quotations of Bemberg rayon. Consequently profits have been less than in the preceding year. Trade depression and foreign competition have also had their effect. It is uncertain whether last year's dividend of 8 per cent. will be maintained.

CRITERION RESTAURANTS.—An interim dividend of 3d. per 5/- share, 5 per cent., less tax.

CINGLETON AND COLE.—Interim dividend of 1/- per share, tax free, for six months ended July 31 last. (Same.)

CORONA WINES.—In a circular to shareholders Mr. F. A. Maquisten, K.C., M.P., the chairman of the company, states that negotiations for the sale of the business have broken down by reason of the fact that terms ultimately offered were inadequate. Cash in hand amounts to nearly £70,000, while ascertained creditors amount to less than £5,000. In these circumstances, and having regard to the present position of the wine trade, the Board is of opinion that the company should be placed in voluntary liquidation. Notice is accordingly given of an extraordinary meeting to be held on 13th proximo.

D. NAPIER AND SON.—An interim dividend of 3d. per share (5 per cent.), less tax, on the 5/- Ordinary Shares for the year ending September 30, 1930. It will be remembered that since the date of the last interim Ordinary dividend there has been a bonus issue of three Ordinary Shares for every one originally held, so that the total gross interim dividend now being paid is equal to the 1/- per share interim dividend paid in respect of the year ended September 30, 1929.

HOPKINSONS (ENGINEERS, HUDDERSFIELD).—Interim dividend of 2½ per cent. actual, less tax, on Ordinary, against 5 per cent. last year.

INDESTRUCTIBLE PAINT AND STANDARD VARNISH.—Interim dividend of 5 per cent. (actual), less tax, on Ordinary Shares. (Same.)

KHEDIVIAL MAIL STEAMSHIP AND GRAVING DOCK.—Dividend of 2¾ per cent. on Preference for six months to June 30.

LONDON UNITED LAUNDRIES.—The distribution for the year ended June 30th last is to be maintained at 14 per cent. by a final dividend of 7 per cent., and a bonus of 2 per cent.

LONDON AND PROVINCIAL TRUST.—Half-yearly dividends to September 30 at rate of 4½ per cent. per annum, less tax, on Preference Stock, and at rate of 6 per cent. per annum, less tax, on Ordinary Stock. (Same.)

LONDON AND HOLYROOD TRUST.—Half-yearly dividends to September 30 at rate of 5 per cent. per annum, less tax, on Preference Stock, and at rate of 5 per cent. per annum, less tax, on Ordinary Stock.

NORTH BRITISH ART. SILK.—The second report of North British Artificial Silk, Ltd., which was registered in February, 1928, to manufacture artificial silk yarns, shows that the sum expended on development during the period of thirteen months to end June, amounted, less receipts from sales and other sources, to £25,885, which has been transferred to development account. Production has been on a gradually increasing basis, and for some time past has been 80 per cent. of capacity. The report states that, apart from the resulting unabsorbed overhead and indirect expenses, the cost of production is on a satisfactory basis. The whole production has been sold continuously through the period, stocks carried being no more than required to meet customers' demands. The balance sheet shows a bank overdraft of £13,310, but this is practically covered by stocks in hand. Debtors exceed creditors by some £5,000. Lands, buildings and machinery, with additions, at cost, stand at £279,373, in addition to which there is other house property valued at £16,346. Preliminary expenses stand at £35,881.

PASS AND JOYCE.—Half-yearly dividend on 7½ per cent. Cumulative Participating Preference Shares.

PARKER WINDER AND ACHURCH.—Interim dividend of 2½ per cent. on Ordinary. (Same.)

QUEBEC POWER.—Dividend on Common Shares of 8⅓ per share for quarter ended September 30. (Same.)

SOUTHERN RHODESIA BASE METALS.—Report for year ended March 31, 1930, states that the directors have deemed it advisable to apply balance standing to credit of premiums on shares account, namely, £240,286, in reduction of expenditure on Copper Queen, Copper King and district claims. Profit and loss account shows a debit balance for year of £10,106. The directors point out that while sale of copper concentrates and stock of concentrates on hand (£30,924), and operating expenses and shipping and realisation charges (£29,154) are in respect of six months when plant was in operation, depreciation and London office expenditure (£3,484) relate to the whole year. On the other hand, no provision has been made for redemption of cost of Alaska mine. Arrangements have been made with Minerals Separation, Ltd., for construction of a copper segregation plant capable of treating up to 50 tons of oxide and mixed oxide-sulphide ore per day. All material for this plant has been shipped, and its erection is well advanced.

SHERWOOD STARR.—After allowing £20,000 (against £12,000) for depreciation, the accounts for the year ended June 30th last show a net profit of £28,317, which compares with £15,709 for the preceding year, while a balance of £21,680 was brought forward. The two dividends paid totalled 25 per cent. (as against 15 per cent.), and after carrying £10,000 (against nil) to general reserve, a balance of £14,997 is carried forward. The payable ore reserves were computed at June 30th at 110,000 tons, having a value of 66.7 shillings per ton. A year ago they were computed at 113,000 tons, of a face value of 13.7 cwt. per ton.

TEBBITT BROTHERS.—A dividend at rate of 5 per cent., less tax. Forward, £6,693. (Last year 5 per cent.)

INDUSTRIAL MARKET.

HEAVY TONE.

ROYAL MAILS DECLINE.

Yesterday being the last day of the account the Industrial Market finished in a dull mood in practically all sections. Dealers were mainly occupied with preliminary contangos, and prices generally were allowed to find their own levels. International issues all came on offer, the trans-Atlantic favourites being marked down in the absence of supporting orders from Wall street.

International Nickels finished with a net loss of 1½ at 24½, while Brazilian Traction Common shed a dollar at 36¼ and Radio Corporations 2 at 38½. Hydro-Electrics dwindled to 38⅞ and International Holdings to 4⅜.

Of the "Record" dealers, Columbia Graphophones were no better than 3¼ in the final "Street" dealings, which left them with a decline of 9/32. Gramophones (H.M.V.) ruled comparatively steady throughout at 3 7/32. Edison Bell Ord. at 13s. 9d. and Decca Records Ord. at 3s. 10½d. both lost the turn.

Cables and Wireless Stocks continued depressed on the coming reduction in cable rates, though the "B" Ord. recovered to 13 before the close. The Pref. Stock gave way 1½ to 74½ and the "A" ½ to 25.

Moderate support was again forthcoming from the provinces for Motor shares. Austins continued active and finished at 35s. 9d., with Singers inquired for at 23s. 9d., Rolls Royce at 2 3/16 and Rovers at 8s. 6d. On the other hand, Levlands seemed dull around 62s., and Morris Pref. lost the turn at 21s. 6d.

Electricals generally were fairly well maintained, and little material change was shown in values.

Rayons and Textiles generally had a dull appearance. Canadian and American Celanese Common reacted to 2¼ to 2⅝ respectively, and Courtaulds lost the turn at 2 3/16, and, on the other hand, British Enkas improved to 4s. 9d.

There was little doing among Textiles, and values were much the same as before.

Among Foodstuffs and Stores, Liptons were levelled to 5s., while Tate and Lyles came back 9d. to 40s. 3d. Scribbans again came into request and finished harder, and Harrods recovered.

An uncertain tendency was manifest in the Brewery section. Allsopps were offered at 24s., Barclay Perkins at 27s., Bass Ratcliff at 67s. 9d., Benskins at 35s., Distillers at 62s., and Taylor Walkers at 33s. 9d.

Tobaccos gave a rather mixed display, being easier for choice. "Bats" receded a trifle to 5 3/16, Carreras "A" to 7⅛, the "B" shares to 18s. 6d., and Godfrey Phillips to 24s.

Newspapers continued on the down grade. Movements in the Insurance group continued of an irregular nature, while Banks slipped back the turn here and there.

Of the Shipping issues, P. and O. Deferred reacted a few pence to 44s. 6d., and Gunards eased to 19s. 3d. Royal Mail Ordinary stock was scaled down 3½ to 14.

In the Miscellaneous section, United Molasses proved the most active feature, being sold heavily in the earlier dealings down to 26s. Subsequently the price was run up to 32s., but at this level sellers again predominated, and the close was around 29s. 9d. Imperial Chemicals dwindled by 9d. to 21s. 3d. in the course of a moderate turnover, and the Deferred shed a few pence to 6s., while Dunlops were levelled to 11s.

Turner and Newalls suffered from a renewal of liquidation, and lost 1s. 3d. further to 60s. 6d., and a moderate recession occurred in Borax Deferred at 12s. 6d., while Kreuger and Toll at 27 and Swedish Match at 14⅞ continued to lose ground. British Match put on a few pence to 24s. 3d., as did Pinchin Johnson to 43s. 3d., and Spillers to 20s. 9d.

RECENT ISSUE DEALINGS.

Marks and Spencer Debentures eased to 105, while quite a good turnover was witnessed in the Preference around 21s. 9d. Newcastle Electric Debentures met with a little inquiry in the neighbourhood of 101. United Molasses Preference hardened to 19s. 4½d.

OIL SHARES DEPRESSED.

In common with most other sections of the Stock Exchange, the Oil Share Market was heavy in tone yesterday. Business was on extremely small lines, there being virtually nothing doing on behalf of Continental centres in international counters. The news of a further improvement in the price of Pennsylvania crude oil was without influence on the market. Some fairly heavy selling of Shells was in progress, causing the price to decline, and there were also moderate realisations of Royal Dutch, Burmahs and Anglo-Persians. Venezuelans remained on the dull side. Trinidad Leaseholds continued to be pressed for sale, and other Trinidad issues were dull in sympathy. Elsewhere there was little of interest. Attocks had a slightly harder appearance, but movements among other Miscellaneous descriptions were adverse.

RUBBER SHARES LOWER.

Dull and idle conditions continued in the Rubber Share Market, the fresh reaction in commodity values exercising a depressing influence. Actual price movements were not numerous, and for the most part of modest denomination, but, with a couple of minor exceptions, they were against holders. Quiet and easier conditions ruled in the raw material market, spot and October closing no better than 4d. per pound, after 4 1/16d., while November finished at 4 1/16d. per pound, December at 4⅛d. per pound, and January to March at 4¼d. per pound. It is expected that London stocks of the raw material on Monday next will show an advance of some 600 tons, whilst Liverpool stocks may show a heavy increase.

LONDON MINING MARKET QUIET.

DIAMOND SHARES REACT.

The Mining Market fared no better than the other sections yesterday, dealers reporting one of the quietest days for some months. Changes on balances, although mostly unfavourable to holders, were very few, and the tone was best described as steady. A few Cape inquires for selected Kaffir shares on Thursday was not repeated yesterday, and Paris also took no interest in these issues. Despite the lack of support, however, the majority of quotations were well maintained at previous levels. Dull conditions continued to prevail in the Rhodesian market. The volume of business remained of almost negligible proportions, and prices where changed were inclined to sag. A reactionary tendency was seen in the Diamond section following the withdrawal of support. De Beers Deferred relinquished Thursday's rise, and the Pref. receded again. The price of tin fell 15s. to £133 per ton, but the share market was not affected to any material extent, quotations for the most part remaining as before. Quotation for lead recovered 3s. 9d. to £17 12s. 6d. per ton, and that for spelter 1s. 3d. to £15 18s. 9d. per ton. Barriers were quiet but steady. Westralians did not attract any attention and values were maintained. Copper was quoted 10s. lower at £45 12s. 6d. per ton, and the shares were mostly easier. Lack of interest in Tintos caused a further recession, while Tharsis and South American Copper finished on the wrong side. Elsewhere provincial selling depressed Burmas, and Tigon reacted, but Panama were inquired for and St. John Del Rey improved. Closing prices:—

THE MONEY MARKET

CHEAPER GOVERNMENT BORROWING.

Market anticipations were fulfilled when the forty millions of Treasury bills offered yesterday were allotted at an average rate of about 2 3/16 per cent., against nearly 2¼ on Friday last. Tenders dated Monday to Wednesday and Saturday at £99 9s. 9d. received about 78 per cent., and above in full; dated Thursday at £9 9s. 11d and above, in full and dated Friday at 99 9s. 8d. and above, in full.

The tendency in the Discount Market remained easy under the pressure of money supplies, brokers again taking the three months' bank bills at 2 3/16 per cent. The clearing banks bought November date at 2 per cent., while the hot Treasuries changed hands at 2 3/16 per cent.

Floating credit remained in abundant supply, borrowers generally filling their needs at 1½ down to 1 per cent.

There was a slight reaction in silver, as the result of China selling. The spot price was fixed 1/16d. lower at 16 15/16d., but forward remained at 17d. per ounce. Gold was fixed ½d. higher at 85s. 0¾d. per fine ounce.

At the Bank of England £11 in foreign gold coin was bought, £23,000 in sovereigns received from abroad, £350,000 in sovereigns released, £27,768 in bar gold sold, and £7,000 in sovereigns exported.

Sterling in terms of the principal currencies generally depreciated in the Foreign Exchange market yesterday. Dollars finished at a little over 4.86 1/32, as compared with Thursday's final quotation of 4.86⅛. Canadian dollars appreciated by 1/16c. to 4.85⅝. The chief feature of the European section was again provided by the firmness of the franc, the closing rate of 123.69 being lower than the previous day's finish by 2c. Among the Scandinavian exchanges the Swedish rate fell by ¼ ore to 18.09, and the Norwegian rate by ⅛ ore to 18.16⅛. In the South American group Argentine dollars were slightly weaker at the close at 40 7/16d.

FINANCIAL PARAGRAPHS.

SAMUEL ALLSOPP AND SONS.

A circular to shareholders states that the directors have resolved to issue 466,408 new Ordinary shares of £1 each of the company at £1 2s. 6d. per share. The shares now offered will not participate in any dividend which may be paid in respect of the year ending 30th September, 1930, but in all other respects will rank pari passu with the 466,408 Ordinary shares of the company already issued. This offer is made to the holders of the existing Ordinary shares of the company appearing on the company's register on the 12th September, 1930. Should applications be received for a larger number of shares than is offered, allotments will be made in proportion, so far as is practicable, to the amount of the holdings of applicants; so that every existing holder of Ordinary shares can make certain of an allotment of new shares equal to his existing holding if he applies for that amount. The proceeds of the present issue will be utilised in payment or recoupment of the purchase consideration of certain new acquisitions of the company.

TIN AMALGAMATION.

Subject to the approval of the shareholders of both companies, it is proposed to amalgamate Kamunting Tin Dredging, Ltd., and Pangnga River Tin Concessions, Ltd., and to introduce additional finance. The scheme provides that, in purchase of the assets and undertaking of Pangnga River, Kamunting shall pay all the liabilities (about £100,000) of the former and shall allot to that company 1,000,000 fully-paid shares of 5s. each at a premium of 1s. per share, ranking for dividend as from July 1st, 1930. The Pangnga Company will remain in being as a holding company. Subject to the ratification of the amalgamation proposals, arrangements have been made for the subscription at 95 per cent. of £100,000 8 per Cent. Debentures of the Kamunting Company, bearing a three years' option, at 8s. per share on five Kamunting 5s. shares for every £1 of Debentures subscribed. Pangnga Company was floated in 1927, under the auspices of Kamunting, and has reached the stage of commercial production with both its dredges in operation. Both companies, adhering to the reduction scheme of the Tin Producers' Association, have announced the suspension of production for four months.

RAND NATIVE LABOUR.

Reporting to next Monday's meeting of the Transvaal Chamber of Mines, the Gold Producers' Committee says it has addressed the Cabinet on the subject of native labour and set out exhaustively the position. The Committee indicates the means by which it considers the otherwise inevitable crisis can be avoided and asks for permission to employ natives recruited from the areas now closed. The report adds: "After some delay the Minister of Mines notified that the Government does not deem it necessary to depart from the attitude it has hitherto taken up."

CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAYS.

The earnings of the Canadian National Railways for the week ended 14th September amounted to $5,022,666, a decrease of $675,446 as compared with the corresponding week last year. The aggregate traffic since 1st January amounted to $15?,922,533, a decrease of $32,556,390.

THE GENERAL ELECTRIC CO.

The directors announce that they have decided to redeem at 100 on 30th September, 1931, the whole of the 7 per cent. Mortgage Debenture Stock outstanding at that date, which is the earliest date on which the stock can be called for redemption, in accordance with the terms of the trust deed under which it is secured, and that they have decided to create and issue £3,500,000 of 5 per cent. Mortgage Debenture Stock for the purpose of such redemption, and to provide additional capital for the development and expansion of the company's business.

SELFRIDGE PROVINCIAL STORES.

The following statement was made to the Press Association last night, on behalf of Mr. A. H. Williams, a director of Selfridge Provincial Stores, Limited:—

"On the instructions of the Selfridge Provincial Stores, Limited, Messrs. Guedalla, Jacobson and Spyer have issued a writ for libel and slander against the Financial Telegraph, Limited, Donald Kennedy, and Ernest Godfrey. Bowering. Sir Patrick Hastings, K.C., has been retained for Selfridge Provincial Stores, Limited."

AUGUST TIN SUPPLY.

The Tin Producers' Association issued a circular yesterday giving the total world supply of tin in August last as 11,017 tons. This is the lowest for any month this year, and compares with a production of 13,245 tons in July, 1930, and 13,336 tons in August, 1929. The total world production for the eight months of the current year is 113,370 tons, against 122,035 tons in the same period of 1929.

DUTCH DIAMOND INDUSTRY.

The present situation in the diamond industry at Amsterdam is alarming, says Reuter's Correspondent. More than 4,000 diamond workers are out of work, and over 1,000 are working only part of the week. The general expenses at Amsterdam are considerably higher than those in foreign diamond centres, but an attempt will be made to reduce these expenses as much as possible. No definite decision has, however, yet been taken, and negotiations over the matter are proceeding.

LEACH'S ARGENTINE ESTATES.

An increase of some £18,000 to £108,490 in trading profit is disclosed in the accounts of Leach's Argentine Estates, Ltd., for the year ended March 31 last. After allowing for depreciation, Debenture interest and other charges, there is a net profit of £32,402, which has been transferred to reserve, which now stands at £88,500. In the preceding year the net profit amounted to £8,462, which was also carried to reserve. The Preference dividend is in arrear as from September 30, 1924, while the last dividend on the Ordinary was 5 per cent. for the year ended March, 1921. The balance sheet shows a bank overdraft of £325,912 and bills payable £300,916, of which £274,472 were secured. Property, etc., appears at £2,058,959, goodwill at £132,700, stocks of sugar and alcohol at £368,247, and cash at £61,820.

TATA IRON AND STEEL.

The directors of the Tata Iron and Steel Company have invited Sir Padamji Ginwalla, formerly chairman of the Tariff Board, to become a full-time director of the company. This appointment follows the demand for more experts to be associated with the company. The company's plea for an enhanced duty on galvanised sheets is still under consideration by the Government.

LINEN AND COTTON TRADE BOARD.

The Linen and Cotton Embroidery Trade Board (Irish Free State) met in Dublin on 18th instant, and considered the question of the necessity for extending the scope of the trade definition so as to include embroidery, drawn thread work, and similar processes, on materials other than those at present specified in the existing definition.

The Board also considered the advisability of fixing minimum piece-rates for new processes of hand embroidery recently introduced, and to which such piece-rates had not previously been applied.

LONDON WOOL SALES.

Two catalogues were submitted totalling 8,454 bales, including 926 New South Wales, 712 Queensland, 588 Victorian, 741 West Australian, 594 South Australian, 3,931 New Zealand, 885 Falkland Islands. Competition was fairly well sustained from a good attendance of buyers. New Zealand crossbreds sold well both to home and continental operators, while fine merinos were also disposed of in the latter. Prices generally maintained at recent levels, with certain parcels withdrawn owing to firm selling limits.

AUSTRALIAN WOOL SALES.

The first series of wool sales, at which 30,000 bales were offered, concluded at Adelaide yesterday. Withdrawals amounted to 25 per cent. Continental operators were the chief buyers. Best and fine quality wools were in good demand at prices 5 per cent. lower. Strong quality wools were 7½ per cent., and shabby wools 10 to 15 per cent. lower. The highest price realised was 12¼d.

NEW YORK WOOL SALES.

There has been a fair amount of activity in the wool market, mainly in half-blood and finer qualities, for which prices ruled steady. In goods there seems to be a slight improvement in the volume of business being done at the mills. The demand for goods, however, is most irregular. Mohair is dull.

O'CONNELL'S BRIDGE.

In connection with the alterations to O'Connell's Bridge, Dublin, the police authorities announce that the present motor parking arrangement will be changed as from Monday next. Cars that now park on that bridge will have to be parked on Burgh quay.

"OLD CONTEMPTIBLES" ASSOCIATION.

At a meeting of the Dublin Central Branch of the "Old Contemptibles" Association, Lieutenant A. T. Ashman in the chair, it was decided to hold a special meeting on Wednesday next at 7.30 p.m. at the Dolphin Hotel, owing to important business that requires immediate settlement. All members are requested to attend.

FOOD AND PRODUCE MARKETS.

Birkenhead—Bad trade for Cattle and poor for Lambs. Dublin—Butter irregular, Eggs show sharp advance, steady demand for Poultry, Fish in good demand, Vegetables easier, Foreign Fruit dull, Potatoes unchanged, Grain in poor demand, Hay and Straw in damp condition and no prices quoted. Irish Butter and Bacon lower at Manchester, Rubber easier. Copper and Tin lower.

CATTLE.

BIRKENHEAD.—With about 800 more cattle on offer a bad trade prevailed. Choice small heifers made 9d., middling heifers 8½d., bullocks 8¼d. to 8½d., cows and bulls 5d. to 5½d. Poor demand was experienced for lambs, a few choice lots making 1/1, and other classes selling at around 1/-, all prices per lb., sinking the offal. On offer—2,292 Irish cattle and 2,913 lambs.

GRAIN.

DUBLIN.—Attendance of buyers shows no improvement, and trade generally dull, with very few bids for the samples of wheat on offer, due to condition. Values for old oats remain unchanged at, white oats, barrel, 12/- to 12/6, extra 13/-, blacks 10/3 to 10/9, and for clipped 11/- to 11/3.

FLOATING GRAIN CARGOES (BALTIC).—WHEAT—There is no change in the general position, and prices nominally unaltered on lack of support. White Pacific October sellers 31/-, No. 1 hard winter Gulf September 32/-, Australian afloat 32/-. Parcels quiet and prices the turn easier. No. 1 Northern Manitoba September sellers 32/3, No. 2 ditto 31/9, No. 3 31/3, No. 5 Manitoba September 28/9. Australian afloat 32/-, choice white Karachi afloat (also October) 31/- per 480lb. Futures—Market dull and easier on lack of c.i.f. demand. Quotations at 1.15 p.m., per quarter of 480lb.—Manitoba grade November 29/9, January 30/5, March 30/11, London grade September 29/8, December (also February) 30/-. MAIZE—Cargoes firmer, but business restricted. Plate afloat sellers 22/6, October 22/9, November 23/-. Bessarabian October 22/-. Dan.-Gal.-Foxanian October-November 22/-. Parcels firmer. Plate September-October (also October-November) sellers 22/6, November-December 22/9. Dan.-Gal.-Fox. September-October (also October-November) 22/6. Bessarabian September-October 22/6, No. 2 white flat African September-October 21/9, No. 6 round yellow ditto September-October (also October-November) 23/- per 480lb. BARLEY steady. Parcels Danubian September-October sellers 14/3, Azoff-Black Sea September-October 14/3, No. 2 Federal American October 13/9 per 400lb.; Californian superior September-October sellers 27/6, Chilian forage f.a.q. September-October 28/- per 448lb. OATS quiet. Plate September (also October and November) sellers 12/-, new January-February 12/-, mixed feed September-October 10/6, Chilian tawny September-October 13/9, Chilian Storm King October 17/3 per 320lb.

MARK LANE CORN.—There was a moderate attendance of buyers at the week-end market, and a quiet trade passed at generally easier prices. WHEAT easier; No. 1 hard Manitoba ex ship 35/-, No. 1 Northern Manitoba ex ship 34/6, No. 2 ditto 34/-, No. 3 33/3, No. 5 Manitoba 32/-, No. 6 ditto 26/6, No. 1 hard winter 32/9, Australian 32/6, choice white Karachi 32/- per 496lb.; English new 6/5 to 6/11 per 112lb. FLOUR dull; London straight run 31/- per sack for country deliveries, and 30/- London area. Of imported, Manitoba patents 28/- to 30/-, Buffalo ditto 28/- to 30/-, Australian 25/- to 26/6 ex store on c.i.f. terms; Manitoba top patents September-October 28/- to 28/6, export ditto 25/6 to 26/-, Australian 23/3 to 23/9 per 280lb.; Argentine low grade October-December £6 7/6 per ton. MAIZE quiet; Plate landed 25/3, ex ship 23/9, August-September (also September-October) 23/3; Bessarabian landed 25/3, No. 2 white flat African ex ship 21/6 per 480lb.; yellow maize meal ex ship £7 10/- f.o.r. London, yellow African ex ship £5 12/6, white £5 7/6 per ton. BARLEY weak; Californian old landed 30/- to 35/-, new ex ship 30/- to 41/-, as to sample; Australian 32/- to 34/-, Smyrna 30/- to 32/- per 448lb.; Black Sea ex ship 14/9, Danubian 14/9, Persian new ex ship 14/3 per 400lb.; English new malting 6/3 to 13/-, feed 5/3 to 5/9 per 112lb. OATS easier; Plate landed 14/-, ex ship 13/-; Chilian tawny ex ship to arrive 13/6, mixed Chilian white 17/6 ex ship; German landed 22/-, mixed Canadian feed ex ship 11/9, landed 12/9 per 320lb.; English new 5/4 to 5/8 per 112lb. MILLERS' WHEATFEED maintained, with a better demand for middlings; broad digestive bran 5/6, middlings 5/6, fine ditto 7/-, oatfeed 5/6, ground oats 8/3 ex mill per cwt. OATMEAL steady; flaked 15/-, rolled oats 15/6 to 16/-; other cuts 12/9 to 13/-, as to quality, ex mill per cwt.

LIVERPOOL—WHEAT—Winnipeg and Chicago markets finished worse than expected, with Russia still offering. There was a general lack of confidence, resulting in pressure to sell, while buyers were apathetic, and forward deliveries of wheat here declined from the outset, with but moderate fluctuations, finishing over the worst point, though marking a considerable loss on the day. C.i.f. parcels wheat inactive, and 3d. to 6d. lower, business being confined to No. 2 Manitoba afloat at 30/9 per quarter. C.i.f. parcels maize neglected and nominally unchanged; River Plate afloat quoted 22/- to 22/9 per quarter, according to position, and October-November 22/- per quarter. Wheat on the spot dull and lower. MAIZE—Spot parcels quiet and River Plate easier at 5/6 to 5/7 per cental. FLOUR quiet and favoured buyers. Graded wheat futures opened ⅛d. to ⅜d. per cental lower; further gave way until 1⅛d. to 1⅜d. under the previous night had been accepted, when a partial recovery took place, with moderate fluctuations, the market closing 1⅛d. to 1⅜d. lower than Thursday.

PROVISIONS.

LONDON.—BUTTER—The market has been firmer during the past week, but towards the close a quieter tone was discernible regarding Continental descriptions. Colonial sorts, however, generally maintained the improvement on a steady inquiry, though there is very little alteration in the position of cold stored stocks. It will be noted that imports of Russian during August marked a considerable decrease, but it would appear that supplies have been held up on the other side, as arrivals so far this month have been at the rate of about 10,000 casks weekly, and will, therefore, show a considerable increase compared with the corresponding period last year. A sharp increase in the arrivals from New Zealand are accounted for by the fact that about 80,000 boxes have been diverted from Canada. Quotations—New Zealand, finest salted, 127/- to 130/-; exceptionally, 132/-; inferior, 118/- to 120/-; finest unsalted, 146/- to 150/-; Australian, finest salted, 125/- to 128/-; good to fine, 122/- to 124/-; inferior, 116/- to 120/-; finest unsalted, 128/- to 134/-; Argentine, finest unsalted, 120/- to 128/-; inferior, 106/- to 112/-; Irish creamery, 133/- to 137/-; Danish, 150/- to 152/-; Dutch, unsalted, 150/- to 154/-; Estonian, 128/- to 130/-; Latvian, 128/- to 130/-; Lithuanian, 126/- to 128/-; Polish, 106/- to 118/-; Siberian, 122/- per cwt.; French rolls, 18/-; Dutch rolls, 17/- to 17/6 per dozen lb. CHEESE—Arrivals from New Zealand are now in small compass, but Canadian is increasing. Demand has been on a fair scale for Colonial and market firm. The premium on coloured prevailing over a long period has now disappeared. Dutch remains slow of sale at about late rates. English, finest farmers, 100/- to 106/-; good to fine, 78/- to 98/-; loaf, 90/- to 106/-; factory, 68/- to 70/- per cwt.; Stilton, 1/6; Cheshire, 8d. to 9½d. per lb.; Scottish factory, coloured, 64/- to 70/-; white, 68/- to 70/-; Canadian, coloured, 74/- to 80/-; white, 75/- to 80/-; New Zealand, coloured, 72/- to 76/-; white, 73/- to 76/-; Australian, coloured, 70/- to 73/-; Dutch Edam range from 44/- to 67/-; Gouda, 43/- to 79/- per cwt. BACON—Market depressed on large arrivals. The poor demand for gammons and fore ends, owing to unfavourable climatic conditions, has gradually dragged down the price level of sides. Danish killings are steadily increasing, and imports into England dominate the market, while it remains to be seen whether it will prove profitable at the reduced prices current to continue production at the high level now reached. Official Danish reduced 4/- to 7/-; Irish, 3/- to 6/-; Canadian, 5/-; Swedish, 5/- to 7/-; Polish and Dutch, 2/- to 6/- per cwt.; Irish quoted 84/- to 94/-; Danish, 74/- to 78/-; Dutch, 71/- to 73/-; Swedish, 69/- to 76/-; Canadian, 80/-; Polish, 62/- to 70/-; Estonian, 65/- to 71/- per cwt. HAMS—Market remains dull for American brands. English, as to weight, 170/- to 200/-; American, long cut, 113/-; short, 88/- to 92/- per cwt. LARD firmer for American, in sympathy with improved c.i.f. offers. American, boxes, 64/6 to 65/6; pails, 69/-; Cartons, 1lb., 70/-; ½lb., 71/6; Danish bladders, 62/- to 65/-; Irish ditto, 62/- to 72/- per cwt. EGGS—The market ruled firm, with a good demand for best descriptions. LIVERPOOL.—BACON—In the weekly revision of prices at London, Danish and Swedish were reduced generally 6/- to 7/-, while, at Manchester, Danish was 3/- to 4/-, Swedish 2/- to 3/-, and Dutch 2/- lower, past week's Danish killings being much heavier than previous week. Prices here, in consequence, are now 84/- to 88/- for Irish, 79/- to 83/- Danish 74/- to 78/- Swedish, and Dutch also at latter price, and Canadian Wiltshire 76/- to 80/- per cwt., with a moderate business generally reported. American generally quiet, and bellies 1/- lower at 87/- to 92/- per cwt. HAMS steady, and short cut in moderate request at late rates. Shoulders scarce and nominal. LARD on the spot 6d. to 1/- per cwt. dearer at 61/6 to 62/6 for prime steam and 65/- to 66/- American refined, with a fair demand for latter. CHEESE firm and BUTTER steady at late rates. EGGS steady at 16/- to 16/3 per 120 for extra selected Irish hen, 15/6 to 15/9 selected, 13/3 to 14/- mediums, and 13/3 to 13/6 for duck.

MANCHESTER.—BUTTER—Danish official quotation wired 6 kroner lower at 248 kroner per 100 kilos, against 254 previous week and 333 corresponding period last year. Spot market steady at reduction, and both Irish creameries and Colonials lower in sympathy. Choicest qualities quoted—Danish 152/- to 154/-, special dairies extra; Finnish 145/- to 148/-, Swedish 142/- to 143/-, Irish creameries 133/- to 136/-, New Zealands 130/- to 134/-, Australians 128/- to 132/-. BACON—Market steady at reduced prices. Irish officially 3/-, Danish 3/- to 4/-, Swedish 2/- to 3/-; Dutch 2/- lower. Irish nominal. Danish 78/- to 88/-, Swedish 73/- to 82/-, Dutch 72/- to 79/-. LARD again shows further advance. English refined 68/6 boxes wholesale, American 65/- to 66/-, according to brand. CHEESE—Choicest Cheshire continues to move quietly into consumption at around 9½d.; medium and lower grades up to 8d. per lb. Colonial firm and occasionally dearer. New Zealand and Canadian white and coloured 77/- to 78/-. EGGS firm at advanced prices. Irish Free State extra selected 17/-, selected 16/3, mediums 14/-, ducks 14/- to 14/6; Northern Ireland 17lb. 21/-, 15½lb. 19/-, 14lb. 17/-; Danish 18lb. 17/-, 17lb. 16/6, 15½lb. 15/9, 13lb. 13/6; Swedish 3d. less than Danish; Dutch 11/6 to 15/6, Polish 9/6 to 11/-, Irish chilled 13/6.

DUBLIN FRUIT AND VEGETABLE.—Home-grown products were in larger supply, particularly cauliflowers, cabbage and white turnips. Demand easier, and slow finish at:—York cabbage per large load 16/- to 35/-, extra 48/- to 49/-, small loads 8/- to 14/-, extra 20/-; cauliflowers per doz. 8d. to 1/6, a few selected 2/-, seconds 4d.; lettuce per doz. 3d. to 6d., carrots per doz. 1/3 to 1/6; beet per doz. 1/- to 2/-, parsnips per doz. 1/- to 1/4; Swede turnips per cwt., large loads 1/- to 1/6, small 1/8 to 2/4; peas per bag 5/- to 7/-, per sack 10/- to 14/-; scallions per bunch 4d. to 6d., onions per bunch 4d., white turnips per bunch 3d. to 5d., parsley per tray 4d. to 6d., kidney beans per tray 1/- to 1/6, broad per box 1/-; celery per bunch, small 9d. to 2/6, large 3/- to 5/-; peaches per doz. 4/- to 6/-, extra 9/- to 12/-; tomatoes per lb. 4d. to 6d., marrows per doz. 2/- to 4/-, cucumbers per doz. 2/- to 4/-, pears per box 1/- to 2/6, others per doz. 1/- to 2/-; apples per tray 1/- to 2/-; plums, Chip Orleans 2/-, Ponds 4/-, Blues 2/6, Victorias 4/6; damsons, chip 1/6 to 2/6½, bushel 2/-, pots 6/-, and nectarines per doz. 4/6. Larger supply of foreign stuffs. Trade generally dull. Cape oranges show a drop in price, but other values much the same as Tuesday last—namely, apples per case, Gravenstiens 16/- to 17/-, Jonathans 21/-, Sturmers 8/- to 10/-, Lisbon 10/-; oranges per case, Cape 24/- to 26/-; lemons per case 30/- to 37/6; grape fruit per case 36/-; grapes, black per lb. 1/- to 1/9, Muscats 1/6 to 2/9, Almeria per barrel 20/- to 30/-; tomatoes per box, Guernsey 4/6, Dutch 2/6; Californian pears per tray, Hardys 22/6 to 24/-, Bartletts 20/-, Comice 30/-; plums per tray 14/-, English per half-bushel 4/- to 8/-; cucumbers per doz. 3/- to 6/-, and onions per case 8/- to 10/-.

GARRETT BEGG AND SONS, LTD., M.I.A.A.,
Fruit and Vegetable Brokers,
CORPORATION MARKET, DUBLIN.
Auction Sales Daily. Empties Supplied.—(Advt.)

DUBLIN POTATO.—Lighter supplies on offer, but ample for fair trade passing at last day's prices—namely, 4/- to 4/3 per cwt., exceptional 4/6.

DUBLIN POULTRY.—All classes of poultry were in good supply, and met a steady demand, everything on offer clearing at the following:—Chickens, per lb., dead, 9d. to 1/-; small, each, 1/- to 1/6; hens, large, fat, each, 2/- to 2/6, others 1/- to 1/6; ducklings, fatted, each, 3/- to 3/6 and 4/-, stores 1/6 to 2/6, old 9d. to 1/-; geese, fatted, lb., 7d. to 8d.; turkeys, lb., 1/- to 1/2; growing prime young, each, 2/9 to 3/-, old 1/9 to 2/-; wild duck, each, 1/6, widgeon 8d., teal 6d., snipe 6d., golden plover 6d., green 4d., pigeons, each, 4d., and rabbits, best, each, 1/- to 1/3.

DUBLIN BUTTER AND EGG.—Good supplies of creamery butter. Local and cross-Channel inquiry weaker, due to recent advance in prices. Farmers' arrivals show a slight increase, and good demand for suitable quality. Other classes hard to cash. Factory lots continue ample for fair demand passing. Finest creams, lb. 1/2¼ to 1/2½, 28 lb. 1/2¼; farmers' good to fine 10d. to 11½d., coarse 9½d. downwards, and factory 10½d. to 11½d., extra 1/0½. EGG supplies smaller, and, with export and local demand improved, values show a sharp advance for reliable fresh eggs, but badly handled and doubtful arrivals continue hard to cash. Duck eggs scarce and wanted. Extra 16 and 17 lb. grades 17/- to 17/9, cases of ordinary and selected 15/6 to 16/6, good mediums 13/6 to 13/9 and 14/6, smalls, etc., 10/9 to 12/9, and best duck eggs 13/9 to 14/3.

PRODUCE.

LONDON.—SUGAR—Spot market quiet and unaltered; foreign sorts neglected; raw refining kinds Cuban 96 per cent. October 5/4½. December 6/6 c.i.f. U.K. Terminal markets steady; December raws sold 4/8½, March 6/1½...May 5/9. COFFEE—Spot parcels remain firm for all the better grades, and a good demand prevailed. COCOA—Accra spot sold 32/-, fine Trinidad 61/-. Forward easier. Terminal weak; October sellers 28/3, January 28/1½, March 28/4½ to 28/-. TEA—Private market firm, especially for the finer grades. RUBBER quiet, and trend of values in buyers' favour. Sheet spot, also October, sold 4 1/16d. to 4d. November 4⅛d. to 4 1/16d., December 4 3/16d. to 4⅛d., January-March 4¼d. to 4⅜d., April-June 4½d. to 4⅝d., July-September 4 11/16d. to 4¾d. London stocks on Monday next expected to show an increase of 600 tons, and Liverpool 2,250 tons. JUTE—Market firmer on covering orders and sellers more reserved; firsts to Continent August-September sold £16 to £16 5/-, September-October, also October-November buyers £16, November-December sold £16 to £16 5/- to £16 2/6, December-January buyers £16, lightnings September-October, also October-November, quoted £14 10/-, November-December sold £14 10/-; hearts September-October sellers £13 10/-. Daisee September-October quoted £14 10/-, Tossa do. sold £15 15/- per ton. SHELLAC quiet; fair T.N. spot 92/6, October sold 84/- to 82/6, December sold 86/-, closing sellers 85/-. March sold 87/6, closing sellers 86/6; to arrive, September-October, also October-November sellers 80/-; November-December sold 80/- per cwt.

OILS—Linseed firmer; spot 31/-, September 29/-, October-December 28/1½, January-April 27/-. Rape, Cotton, also Cocoanut, quiet and unaltered. Turpentine dearer; American spot 36/3, October-December 36/9, January-April 38/6 per cwt. OILSEEDS—Market firmer, and Plate shippers reserved; Calcutta to London September-October, also October-November, £15 15/-; Plate to Hull, old crop, £14 2/6; new December-January £13 5/-, January-February £13 2/6. Rapeseed dull; Toria to Hull-Continent September-October, also October-November, £12 17/6; new December-January, also January-February, £12 12/6. Cottonseed dull and easier; Egyptian black to Hull new September £6 8/9, November-January £6 7/6 white October, also November-January, £5 18/9; Bombay new December-January £5 10/-. Groundnuts steady; Coromandel machined September £13 10/-, October £13 7/6, November £13 3/9, December, also January, £13 per ton.

OILCAKES—Linseed Cakes—Supplies continue on a very limited scale, as importers, in anticipation of a much curtailed demand, have not entered into any large commitments, and with no pressure to sell on the part of home manufacturers values remain fairly steady, and, while arrived or near at hand parcels are mostly absorbed, there is practically no inquiry for later shipments, for the reason that buyers regard the future prospects as so indefinite with the present conditions of agriculture that they are reluctant to contract ahead. Best London-made offer at £9 10/- to £9 15/-, and there are sellers of finest quality 12 per cent. Oil Calcuttas shortly due at £9 10/- ex ship, and Spanish at £9. Cotton Cakes—With some fairly heavy shipments of Egyptian, the market is again barely as strong, and best brands may now be bought at £3 10/- to £3 12/6 ex ship for September-October shipments, while for November-April monthly quantities a moderate quantity has changed hands at £3 15/-, and there are further sellers thereat; English makes are without change at £4 12/6 to £4 15/- per ton. Groundnut Cakes—A small parcel of very fine quality 62 per cent. extra light-coloured on spot makes £7 10/- to £7 15/-, but for September-October and October-November loading of 54 per cent. £6 10/- to £6 15/- ex ship would be acceptable.

LIVERPOOL.—CANE SUGAR quiet and unaltered. Sellers basis 96 deg. pol. parcels 5/6¾ per cwt. September-October shipments to U.K. COCOA—West African on spot continues neglected. Forward shipments fair fermented Accra again easier, with sellers of new crop October-December and November-January shipments at 24/6 and buyers at 24/- per cwt. f.o.b. "D" clause. Spot sales of West African during the week only 124 bags at 30/- to 32/- per cwt. in bond ex store. COFFEE irregular. OIL CAKES—There is little quotable change, and trading continues on very limited lines. American linseed quoted £8 15/- and Plate £9 5/- c.i.f. September-October shipments. Egyptian undecorticated cottonseed easier with sellers at £3 17/6 September shipments ex ship terms. Burmah groundnut dull and idle at £5 for 36 per EARL OF GRANARD'S HERD.

(FROM OUR AGRICULTURAL CORRESPONDENT.)

There was a large attendance at the fifth annual sale of cross-bred and pedigree cattle conducted by Messrs. Ganly, Sons and Company for the Earl of Granard, K.P., at Castle Forbes, Newtownforbes, County Longford, yesterday. The catalogue comprised a choice lot of Hereford and shorthorn calves, five to eight months old, some useful yearling Hereford crosses, a select lot of pedigree Hereford bull and heifer calves, and a number of Kerry and shorthorn springers. For all of these there was a brisk demand, purchases being made for all parts of Longford, Leitrim, Westmeath, and Roscommon, at prices which ruled somewhat higher than a year ago.

The pure-bred Hereford calves by that fine stock bull, Bounds Quiteright, were very much sought after, and should help to spread the fame of the Earl of Granard's herd.

The Earl and Countess of Granard, together with several members of their family, attended the sale. Particulars of transactions are appended:—

CHAMPION RAM SOLD FOR 59 GUINEAS.

BIG SHOW AND SALE AT BELFAST.

Messrs. R. J. Allam, Ltd., held their annual show and sale of black-faced shearing rams in connection with the Ulster Ram Breeders' Association in Belfast yesterday, the event being described as the greatest of the sort ever "staged" in Northern Ireland.

Captain MacMillen, Monavie, Dumfriesshire, the judge, said that the exhibits, which numbered 250 head, compared favourably with the best Scottish shows.

The sale was carried on at the rate of 60 head per hour, and the rams were dispersed all over Ireland. The champion animal, which was from the flock of the late Mr. A. J. Pilkington, was awarded a special challenge cup, valued 15 guineas, and was sold to Colonel Lowry at the "record" figure for Belfast of 59 guineas. The reserve champion and second prize ram came from the flock of Mr. David Gibson, and Colonel Lowry was again the purchaser at 30 guineas. The third prize went to Mr. H. D. M. Barton, the County Antrim Committee of Agriculture being the purchasers at 7½ guineas.

The best group of three shearling rams was exhibited by Mr. David Gibson, the prices and purchasers being as follow:—Marquis of Waterford, 20 guineas; Mr. Wauchob, 16 guineas, and County Tyrone Committee, 15 guineas.

The Northern Ministry of Agriculture, the Free State Ministry of Agriculture, and several county committees were among the purchasers of leading rams in the various classes.

AUTUMN SHEEP SALES.

Messrs. John P. Cuffe, Limited, auctioneers and livestock salesmen, held their final sale of the season for ewes, store sheep, rams and lambs in the Dublin Cattle Market, when about 4,000 sheep of the various classes were offered for sale. Buyers were present from many parts of Ireland, as well as from across Channel. The quality of the ewes in general was not up to the usual standard, and bidding was slow and less money taken to effect sales. Galway ewes made from 50/- to 58/-, Cheviot from 44/- to 50/-, horny 28/- to 38/-.

GENERAL HICKIE'S VISIT TO AMERICA.

TO ATTEND U.S. LEGION CONVENTION.

Major-General Sir William Hickie, K.C.B., President of the British Legion, Irish Free State, has left Queenstown on the Sythia for America, in order to be present at the Convention organised by the American Legion.

The Convention will be held at Boston on the 6th October and following days, and it is expected that this assembly will be the largest gathering of ex-soldiers since the war. It has been computed that the march past will last for two and a half days, as the column will be over thirty miles in length.

The visit of Sir William Hickie to America is largely the result of a friendship that sprang up during the Great War. When the American Divisions arrived in France in 1917 the Divisional Staffs were attached to selected British Divisions, of which the 16th (Irish) Division was one. Among others, the "Yankee" Division, commanded by General Clarence Edwards, spent two weeks near Bullicourt with the Irish Division, and it appears that when General Edwards was asked to become President of the Convention he replied that he would only accept on the condition that the General Officer Commanding the 16th (Irish) Division was invited as the guest of the American Legion.

The result is that Sir William Hickie is now on his way to the United States, and the Irish ex-Service men can be assured that their old divisional commander will convey a message to the American Legion of good fellowship and sympathy, which is as fervent to-day as in the days of the Great War.

COUNTY CLARE FEIS.

SPREAD OF IRISH COMMUNITY SINGING.

The County Clare Feis and Aonach was opened yesterday afternoon at Ennis, and will continue until Sunday night. The main portion of the programme, however, will not start until Sunday, when there will be an address by the Earl of Longford, and the Feis oration will be delivered by M. O Maolain, of Arran.

Meantime, great interest is being evinced in the industrial exhibition. The exhibits embrace a very strong horticultural section, and a large number of finished specimens of woodwork.

In the Feis proper all previous "records" have been beaten. The Irish community-singing movement, which is rapidly spreading in Clare, and Irish figure dancing, which is now well established, have attracted many competitors. Whilst the contests in the language and choral sections should be exceptionally keen. A handsome cup has been offered for competition in the plain chant section by the Most Rev. Dr. Fogarty.

In the industrial exhibition the awards announced yesterday included the following first prize winners:—Fruit, the Most Rev. Dr. Fogarty, John Hickey, Culleen, Newmarket-on-Fergus; Mrs. Vere O'Brien, Ballyalla; Mrs. P. J. Howard, Cushnabouna; John O'Neill, Clare Abbey; P. Keane, Newmarket-on-Fergus. Flowers—Canon Griffin, Ennis; Mrs. Alex Knos, Mrs. P. J. Howard. Honey—Mrs. Vere O'Brien, P. Lynch, Lissane. Cookery—Mrs. T. McMahon, Mrs. Gordon Stewart, Miss M. Fennell, Kilrush; Miss M. M. McMahon, Clarecastle. Woodwork—W. Neylan, Ennis.

CHARGES AGAINST MOTORIST.

FINED £15 AND LICENCE SUSPENDED.

Captain F. J. Welch, of Portrush, was, at Coleraine yesterday, fined £15 and his licence suspended for fifteen months for being under the influence of drink while in charge of a motor car, and driving to the danger of the public.

Albert Froggatt, Belfast, a witness for the prosecution, said that he was driving at thirty-five miles per hour when he was passed without warning by the defendant, who proceeded along the road in zig-zag manner. Eventually witness came upon the defendant's car, which at a bend had overturned. The defendant was still in the car making no effort to get out, although he could have done so easily. The car went on fire, and witness and others assisted the defendant out. Defendant smelt strongly of alcohol.

COUNTY OF GALWAY.

CHARMING RESIDENTIAL HOLDING.

BY INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE EXECUTOR OF THE LATE HUBERT J. TULLY, DECEASED,

THE LANDS AND RESIDENCE OF RATHFARAN, LOUGHREA,

WILL BE

SOLD BY PUBLIC AUCTION, ON TUESDAY, 30TH SEPTEMBER, 1930,

ON THE PREMISES, AT 12 O'CLOCK SHARP (SUMMER TIME).

Area, 327a. 0r. 13p., Statute measure. Held in fee-simple. Annuity, £90 9s. 6d. P.L.V.—Land £191, and Buildings £17 10s. 0d. Two miles from Loughrea.

DESCRIPTIVE PARTICULARS.

The Residence is modern and in perfect condition. It is approached by two avenues, with gate-house, and contains two reception rooms, six bedrooms, study, and usual domestic offices. Perfect sanitary arrangements and water supply. Extensive out-office accommodation, including stabling for 16 horses. Galvanised hay shed (70 tons).

The Lands are of excellent quality, ornamentally timbered and in pasture, with the exception of 10 acres of mixed tillage. They are nicely divided and well fenced. Constant running water. One division of 76 acres is probably the driest and most sheltered winterage in the county.

For years the late owner carried on the most successful small racing and training stable in Ireland. An ideal stud farm. In the midst of one of the best hunting countries in Ireland.

LIVE STOCK.

IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE SALE OF THE ABOVE, THE FOLLOWING LIVE STOCK WILL BE SOLD:—

20 Three-Year-Old Bullocks, 98 Three-Year-Old Galway Ewes,
94 Three-Year-Old Grey-face Ewes, 55 Two-Year-Old Ox. Down Cross Wethers, 123 Ox. Down Cross Hoggets (mixed genders), 132 Ox. Down Cross Lambs,
2 Ox. Down Rams, 3 Milch Cows, 4 Work Horses.
30 Tons of Hay and the produce of 5 Acres of Oats, 3 Acres of Turnips, 1 Acre of Mangolds and ½-Acre of Potatoes.

A. D. COMYN, LL.D., Solicitor, Loughrea.

A. M. TOOLE, M.I.A.A.,
AUCTIONEER, LOUGHREA.

LACKAGH GLEBE, KILDARE.

ATTRACTIVE SALE BY AUCTION OF PRETTY RESIDENCE STANDING ON 11a. 2r. 35p. EXCELLENT GRASS LANDS, SITUATE WITHIN 3 MILES FROM THE TOWN OF KILDARE AND MONASTEREVAN, AND CONVENIENT TO THE CURRAGH. ALSO ANOTHER PARCEL OF PRIME GRAZING LANDS AT CHERRYVILLE CROSS ROADS CONTAINING ABOUT 22½ ACRES.

D. BRENNAN and SON have been favoured with instructions from NICHOLAS HANRIGAN, Esq., to

AT 12 O'CLOCK NOON, SHARP (NEW TIME),

LOT 1—All the Vendor's Interest and Goodwill in the Glebe House and Lands of Lackagh, containing 11 acres, 2 roods, and 35 perches, or thereabouts, Statute measure, situate in the Barony of West Offaly, and County Kildare, held in fee-simple, except as to portion of said lands, containing 4 Irish acres, subject to a fee farm rent of £6 10s. 0d. Poor Law Valuation, on Buildings, £13, and on Lands £8. This most desirable Gentleman's Residence is of medium size, equipped with all modern conveniences, very compact, and economical in upkeep, situate in a select locality in the centre of a good sporting district, on a well-chosen site with a beautiful aspect, in nicely timbered pleasure grounds, and short avenue leading from the county road. There is a well-enclosed flower and vegetable garden, conservatory, etc.; compact yard and out-offices, garage and man-servant's cottage. All the buildings are of substantial construction, with slated roofs, and are all in perfect repair. The lands are of sound, healthy, Co. Kildare type pasture, conveniently divided and well watered. Immediate clear possession.

LOT 2—The Vendor's Interest and Goodwill in Part of the Lands of Cherryville, containing about 22½ acres, Statute measure (being portion of said lands, which contain 207 acres), situate in the Barony of West Offaly, and County Kildare, held subject to the Purchase Provisions of the Land Act, 1923, and will be Sold subject to £9 15s. 0d., being an apportioned part of the yearly payment in lieu of rent payable to the Irish Land Commission. The Poor Law Valuation of the entire lands is £124, which will also be apportioned for the purpose of the sub-division. The lands are being Sold subject to the consent of the Land Commission to the sub-division of said holding, and to the apportionment of said payment in lieu of rent.

These lands are of good, sound quality pasture, well watered, fenced and sheltered, and situate in an ideal position at Cherryville cross-roads.

Conditions of Sale from—

A. W. GLOVER, Esq., Solicitor, 20 Wicklow street, Dublin.
